Hoy--Montroy

By the Rev. Dr. Anderson of Queen street Presbyterian church, Toronto, on Jan. 22nd, Mr. Findlay Hoy of Scotsguard, Sask., to Miss Marie Montroy of Mattawa. After the ceremony a dainty wedding breakfast was served by Mrs. Robt. Phillips of 285 Booth avenue, sister of the groom, when many friends and relations were present. The groom, who spent his boyhood days here, and attended school in the village, was a boy well liked by his schoolmates, who, with his many friends, wish him and his bride a very happy journey through life. Findlay, with his brother Albert, went West a number of years ago and, we are pleased to note, has made good. The bride and groom will visit for a few weeks, when they will make the trip to Scotsguard via Buffalo, Detroit and other points.

Old Landmark Gone

Another old landmark was wiped out by fire on Monday night of last week when the house owned by Mr. George Benson was burned to the ground. This building in the early days of former years was an old tavern, we believe, later being the property of the late Wm. Hogg, who ran a general store and after which Mr. J. R. Hogg continued the business of his father. The place in late years was fixed up as a residence and owned by Mr. Joseph Williams, who sold later to George Benson. The house was unoccupied and the origin of the fire is a mystery. We believe the loss is partly covered by insurance.

Piece Of Steel In Muscle

Mrs. Roy McMillan of Markdale visited with her mother, Mrs. Wilson, over the week end. Mr. McMillan had the misfortune to have a piece of steel run into his arm, which no doubt will give him very serious trouble. An X-ray was taken and the steel located in the muscle which may mean an operation if treatment does not remove the trouble.

Mr. A. Hoy and daughter, Mabel, attended the wedding of the former's brother, Findlay, recently.

We are pleased to be able to report Mrs. Richard Park able to be around again after a long illness of bronchial trouble.

Mrs. J. J. Magee of Vandeleur is this week a guest of her sister, Mrs. Munshaw.

Mr. Lisk of the G.W.V.A., Toronto was a guest of W. E. Morgan the past week.

S. W. Sloan of Toronto is spending a few days with his wife and daughter here.

Miss Ella Genge of Flesherton visited at Mr. J. K. Jamieson's the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnston of the Island have insalled a fine radio.

The ice harvest is now on, the ice being about 19 inches thick.

Death of Thomas Tudor

The funeral of Mr. Thomas Tudor took place Monday, Feb. 9, to Salem burial ground from the home of his son, Henry. Rev. Mr. Harrower took charge of the service both at the home and grave. The funeral was attended by many friends and neighbors who gathered to pay their last respects to one of the oldest residents of these parts. Mr. Tudor, who came to Artemesia in his early manhood, has resided in these parts since that time. Born in 1843 in Kircudbright, Scotland, he came to Canada when a little lad of three years with his mother and settled at Egmondville, near Seaforth, Ont., and came to Artemesia when a young man. In 1869 he married Miss Janet Campbell, sister of the late Robert Campbell of the Valley, who predeceased him 22 yeares ago.. Their union was blessed with four boys and four girls, five of whom survive—Jean (Mrs. James Mann) of Brussels Ont., Dave of Branch, Mich., Duncan of Seaforth, Thomas of Toronto, and Henry at home. Mr. Tudor was of a reserved but kindly disposition, a good neighbor and, although he had reached the ripe old age of almost 82 years, he was very bright and smart, and missed very few days from taking his walk to the postoffice for his paper. The news of his death came as a shock to the villagers, as he was but a few days ill. The sympathy of the community is extended to the family in their bereavement. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Henry, John and Jacob Williams, Wm. Weber, John Holiday and James Mann. There were beautiful wreaths from the family and neighbors. Those who attended the funeard from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. James Mann of Brussels, Duncan Tudor Seaforth, Thomas Tudor, Toronto and Mrs. James Haliday of Seaforth.

We are very sorry to report Mrs. Elijah Paul very ill at time of writing, but hope soon to hear of her recovery.

Quite a number around the village are laid up with the grippe.

We have had our usual January thaw somewhat late this year. Although the thaw was welcome in some respects, it left the roads in a very bad condition. Some tapped the maples and reports are that the sap ran well on Saturday. Some predict a very short season for syrup making, so those who start early are the ones who will reap all the reward that there is to reap.

Two carloads of feed for the pheasants at Pheasant Island are being hauled in this week from the station.

Mr. Levi Duckett has moved his family to the Binnington farm on the gravel road near Maxwell.

Mr. C. Boyce visited his father, who is ill at his home in Southampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Campbell visited the latter's mother, Mrs. Badgerow, of Portlaw, the past week.

Mrs. A. Hoy gave a quilting and tea the past week in honor of Mrs. Findlay Hoy, when about twenty ladies were present and all enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon.

James W. Coulson, a pay inmate of the House of Refuge since last May, died of senile decay at that institution recently at the advanced age of 90 years. Deceased was a former prominent resident of Medonte of which township he was reeve fifty-three years ago. The postoffice of Coulson was called after him.

Herbert and David Lawson, well-known fox hunters of Nassagaweya township, have bagged twelve red foxes since New Year's.

FEVERSHAM

The L.O.L., 1085, box social came off on Thursday evening as advertised and was attended by a fair crowd, and though a misfortune occurred to the radio machine which put it out of business, the program was all that could be desired of a socail evening. Although chairman C. H. Smith had to depend on local talent to fill in they responded heartily with recitations, songs and music. The orchestra composed of Sayers, Esland and Brownridge, violins; John Robinson, traps, and Ivan Alexander, guitar, and Miss Esland, accompanist, was especially fine. Bro. A. J. Conron gave three recitations in good style and the recitation of little Garnet McKenzie entitled, "A Maiden's Mistake" brought down the house. Come again, Garnie. We noticed that chairman Smith picked up the talent nearly all from one side of the hall and his explanation was that it was easier travelling on that side. On closer observation we noticed that his good wife sat on the side he did not frequent. Never mind, Charlie, we sympathize. We have been through the mill; we are married too. Auctioneer Kaitting auctioned off the boxes in his usual happy style. There were no clasical soloists, therefore it was not necessary for us to be like the old man who was closing a social gathering with prayer and prayed "Lord bless the soloist, Thou knowest what she said, we didn't." Bro. W. A. Hawken of Flesherton has kindly promised to return again with his radio machine for another social gathering when, weather permitting, a large gathering will be in attendance.

Mr. Alex. Keith's horses broke loose in the mill shed on Monday last, turned around and came out on the fly, swooped around by Henderson's store and then across the bridge north. The sleigh struck the end of the bridge railing with terrific force, everyone who saw it thinking that they had gone for a five mile run home. However they went straight up the hill, one horse wanting to go to the Goff shed and the other apparently thinking the Presbyterian shed was good enough for him. The Goffite fellow came to grief in the snow and had to stop. Nothing more than a few breaks in the harness was the result.

Messrs. John Conn and G. Whewell visited with old neighbors on the 6th line last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McIntyre of McIntyre visited with friends in this village on Monday last.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. T. W. Conron is still seriously ill with no signs of improvement.

Mrs. R. J. Colquette has been ill for a couple of weeks with the grippe, which seems to have been epidemic in this locality lately. Mrs. Colquette is improving nicely now.

4TH LINE AND VICINITY

The bear hunt is still on. A couple of boys have been close enough to him on Friday last to shoot at him a couple of times and get a handful of fur and hide. We believe this bear is like a cat and has nine lives. However he is a real friendly fellow and has paid a visit to almost every home in he neighborhood. So the chief topics of the day are "beer" and "bear".

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. McDonald left last week for a couple of weeks' visit with friends and relatives in Michigan.

Miss Gladys Patterson and Lloyd Morewood of Markdale spent Sunday at the former's home here.

Mr. Richard Whittaker has purchased a new Bell piano.

The Holdfast U.F.W.O. club meeting was held at the home of Mrs. J. D. McLeod Thursday of last week.

Mr. R. Peart of Trvearston and Elzie Beaton spent Sunday at Mr. Wm. Beaton's.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Glchrist of Flesherton spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. J. A. Nichol.

IN MEMORIAM

LINLEY—In loving memory of our dear son, Eddie Linley, who died on February 15th, 1924, aged 7 years.

"Gone, But Not Forgotten"

Yet again we hope to meet there
When the day of life is fled,
When in heaven with joy to greet thee
Where no farewell tears are shed.

FURNITURE TALK

It will soon be the time of the year when all housewives will be thinking of what changes they would like to make in their house cleaning campaign this Spring. Nearly every housewife likes to add or replace some piece of furniture when at the job of cleaning house. Might we suggest that we would be pleased to supply your wants in this line at all times. Special prices to beginners starting up or sales made for presents.

We also handle the Sunstop shades for stores, halls, schools or any business place; last twice as long as ordinary blinds. We have been very pleased with the response to our picture framing advt. and would add that no doubt there are others who have pictures or a nice calendar which would keep far better if nicely framed. If so, bring them in and we will do the job for you.
