Character and Individuality in Banks

IN THE course of development of a banking business policies are formed habits maintained and methods practiced which are peculiarly and intimately connected with the institution that gave them birth. It is these things that give a bank individual character that influences a man in making his financial affiliations. In offering our services, we solicit your enquiries regarding Standard Bank policies as affecting your own business.

Woollen Mill Is To Remain In Old Hands

Mr. John Nuhn Retains Passesion of Business He Founded

Recently a gentleman was endeavoring to purchase the Flesherton Woollen Mills and reports to that effect were broadcasted, but Mr. Nuhn, the proprietor wishes the Advance to inform the public that all negotiations are called off and that he still retains possession of the business. This business was started on March 1st, 1894, thirty-one years ago and Mr. Nuhn has built a solid foundation that has made his products known all over Canada, shipments even going to Vancouver B. C. Besides this "foreign" trade he has a very large market for his surplus goods such as yarn, blankets, and other woollen products throughout Grey and Bruce Counties. The factory has not been in operation for the past month, but commenced work again on Tuesday morning of this week.

Mrs. T. Woods Dies

A very sad death occurred at the home of Mrs. Marshall Morrison, Maxwell, on February 17th, when her youngest daughter, Catharine Margaret (Mrs. Thos. Woods) passed away at the early age of 23 years and 7 months. She was born in the township of Osprey on the 4th line, where she lived all her life unil one year ago, when with her husband she moved to Owen Sound, where they resided until a couple of months ago, when she came to live with her mother, where she passed away.

The funeral, which was largely attended, took place to the Anglican burial grounds on Thursday, February 19th. The services were conducted in St. Mary's church by her minister, the Rev. Mr. Pogson. Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn her loss an infant babe, her mother, Mrs. Marshall Morrison; one sister, Hattie (Mrs. W. P. Stuart) Regina, and five brothers, Alex., Maxwell; John L., Maxwell; Albert, Shelburne; Wm. G., Maple and Harold of Flesherton. All were present at the funeral excepting Mrs. Stuart.

The floral tributes were very handsome, among them being a pillow from her husband and daughter, a spray from Miss Elsie Woods, spray from her nephew, Warren Morrison.

The pallbearers were young schoolmates of the deceased, Messrs. R. J. Morrison, Joe Wright, Robt. Priestly, Geo. Long Jr., Wm. Robertson and Walter Lawler.

Miss Sophia Findlay of Toronto is visiting with her friend, Miss Elsie Ferris.

Mr. and Mrs. R. McLaughlin from near Berkle visited their cousins, Mr. R. Benham and Mrs. W. Wilcock, last week.

Don't forget to-night's hockey game between the girls teams of Dundalk and Flesherton high schools. We guarantee that you will have your best laugh since Noah was a boy.

A large crowd was pleased with the lantern slides put on under the auspices of the Young People's Society at the Methodist church Monday evening. The slides pictured the life of the people of China. The proceeds were donatd to the missionary department of the league.

To travel from St. Joseph, Missouri, to Flesherton at the extremely advanced age of 92 years was the experience of Mr. J. W. Willis, who spent the past week with his sister, Mrs. Sarah Archibald, who lives with her son, Norman, on the West Back Line. Mr. Willis is hale and hearty and the long trip was made without discomfort or anything to mar it in any way. Besides his relatives here Mr. Willis is visiting with friends at Hanover.

Kimberley Won Their Debate from Vandeleur

Will Meet Flesherton In The Next Round

The opening debate of the series in the Owen Sound Debating League was held in Kimberley on Friday evening last when Vandeleur and Kimberley debated the subject resolved "that the advancement of any country is due more to the natural resources than the people." Kimberley, supporting the affirmative, had Misses Kathleen Hutchinson and Almeda Weber as their team, while Mrs. Frank Davis and A. E. Buchanan supported the negative.

The arguments were well composed and the delivery excellent and, while Kimberley won, the debate was close and the issue in doubt until the judges announced their decision. The Kimberley team is to be congratulated on the winning of a subject which two teams in the district defaulted. The judges were Revs. Harrower and H. H. Eaton of Flesherton, and R. D. Carruthers of Wodehouse.

The Flesherton debating team will meet Kimberley in the next round of the series, the contest taking place at Vandeleur.

F. H. W. Hickling Leaves For Holiday In England

Mr. F. H. W. Hickling, merchant, will sail next week for England where he wll spend a few weeks among old scenes there. It is 34 years since Mr. H. left London for Canada to seek his fortune. He has only visited his boyhood home once during that time, accompanied by Mrs. Hickling. The latter will not accompany him on this occasion. He will attend the Wembly exhibition, which is being held again this year, before returning. The worst we can wish him is a bon voyage and a safe return, via the C.P.R. steamship Montlaurier.

MRS. OLIVER TURNER DEAD

Mrs. Oliver Turner of the 8th line, Artemesia, died at her home on Tuesday evening, after an illness extneding over a period of about two years, at the age of 36. Mrs. Turner was the eldest daughter of Mr. Wm. Magee of this township.

THE BOY WHO PASSED

A young entrance pupil, writing on the examinations in composition at a certain Ontario town contributed the following choice bit of literature:

"An editor is a man who edits a paper. Some editors use a pen to write with but some use scissors. Lots of editors are Farisees. All editors lie. An editor is a man that likes gossip. All editors lie. An editor that can't lie ain't no good for an editor. Women'd make good editors, but editors have to keep secrets. An editor never makes any money. Once an editor got ten dollars and it made him crazy. An editor never wants any pay for his paper and some people never think of paying an editor. When an editor gets a free ticket he has to give a dollar's worth of free advertising in advance. Most people know how to edit a paper better than the editors do. The only stumbling block is that they can't run them machines that set the type. If the editor asks for his pay for his paper, the fellow gets mad, so it is cheaper to borrow your neighbour's paper. Editors are not afraid of any man. I once knew a woman that frightened an editor and made him crawl under his desk. If you say nice things to an editor he will say nice things about you in his paper.

This boy is said to have passed with honors.

John White, An Old Pioneer of Grey, Dies In Toronto

John White, one of the earliest settlers of Grey County, passed away in Toronto on the 20th inst. Born in the County of Tyrone, Ireland, he emigrated to Canada, where his father's family settled first in King township, but seventy one years ago the family moved to Artemesia township. John was a young lad at that time and for many years took an active part in transforming the wilderness of forest into the present progressive farming country. His partner in life was Elzabeth Weir. Of their family of nine children only four survive Mrs. Thos. Taylor, Artemesia; John, Markdale; David, Toronto, and Miss Margaret of New York. For many years the family lived in Glenelg township, but since the death of his devoted wife he has made his home with relatives, the last twelve years of his life being spent in Toronto at the home of his cousin, Mrs. Joseph Cornfield.

The funeral took place to Markdale cemetery on Monday, te 23rd inst. There were many floral and other kind tributes from his numerous friends and relatives. The pall bearers were Messrs. Albert Jackson, J. R. Armstrong, Albert Erskine, S. A. Halbert, Thos. Wilson and W. M. Foster.

MEETING OF TRUSTEES.

A meeting of Artemesia trustees and representatives to the Easter convention in Toronto, held in the town hall on Saturday afternoon last, was well attended. Short addresses were given by Mr. Pedlar, the retiring president; Messrs. N. McCannel, Proton Station; Albert Stevens, Warden T. R. McKenzie and others.

Officers appointed were as follows: President, W. J. Blackburn, Proton Station; Vice President, Leslie Chard; Sec.-Treas., Richard Allen.

The Association will send some strong resolutions to the Easter convention.

MINSTREL CONCERT POSTPONED

Owing to illness and unfavorable conditions the minstrel concert which was to have been held at Vandeleur this Friday evening, has been postponed indefinitely.

"With malice toward none and charity to all" was Abraham Lincoln's way. Modern methods are, "with mallets toward all and charity for none."—Durham Chronicle.
