Former Osprey Pioneer Dies In Collingwood

There passed away at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. R. J. McPherson, Collingwood, a few days ago, a former well known resident of Osprey township, Mrs. Henry Seigell, aged 90 years.

Mrs. Seiggell, whose maiden name was Isobel McAllister, was born in Islay, Scotland, in 1835, and when about 15 years of age came to Canada wtih her parents and brothers and sisters, settling at the village of Nottawa. When about 25 years of age she was married to Mr. Henry Seiggell, moving from Nottawa to Osprey township and like all the early settlers of those days, hewed a home for themselves, in a country that was practically all bush. For 45 years they resided in Osprey, during which time Mr. Seiggell died, also one daughter, Margaret, Mrs. Archie Currie. After her husband's death Mrs. Seiggell moved to Singhampton. For the past four years she has resided with her daughter, Mrs. McPherson, and for over a year has practically been confined to her bed.

Six daughters and two sons are left to mourn the loss of a loving mother: Sarah, Mrs. Archie Buie, Singhampton; Elizabeth, Mrs. McBride, Calgary, Alta.; Annie, Mrs. Dave Bristow, Frog Lake, Sask.; Isobel, Mrs. Geo. Bristow, Strongfield, Sask.; Christine, Mrs. Cousins, Ogema, Sask.; and Emma, Mrs. R. J. McPherson, Collingwood. The sons are Donald and Fred of Singhampton. Two brothers, Archie, Victoria, B.C., and Bobt., Ballard, Washington, also survive.

LADY BANK

March 20th is here and gone, with the wind in a good quarter for an early spring. We are sure in need of it after such a steady winter.

The Ladies' Aid has been holding their monthly meetings in the Providence church the past three months with good sucecss.

Mr. Dick Howard of Owen Sound visited his sister, Mrs. Robt. Croft, at Rock Mills lately, and also his old neighbors at Lady Bank.

Fred Semple has gone to Down's garage, Flesherton to seek his fortune. Good luck to you, Fred.

Mr. Ed. Harbottle intends having his new mill going full time by June the first, with a good stock of logs in.

The order of the day, or evening we might say, is the planning and working of a memory quilt that the Ladies' Aid is busy at. It just requires three hundred and sixty names to complete the work. One fair lady has over 36 names already.

Mrs. Wm. Semple is bound to catch the early market this fall, as she has a setting of goose eggs hatching.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. John Ottewell of the 10th line, Osprey, to our midst.

Mr. Wm. Tyler and Herb McMullen have completed their big cut of over 120 cords of wood for Mr. Jas. McKenzie and Mr. W. J. Chard in the Cooper bush, near Wool Pond. Mr. Tyler has engaged to help Mr. Jas. Best of the Toronto Gravel with the farm work. This will be his third summer with Mr. Best, which speaks well for both sides. Master Herb goes to help Mr. Chard with his harvest of maple syrup.

Wedding bells are ringing.

Miss L. Bunt Successful At Her School At Toronto

The Toronto Globe of the 18th contained an interesting illustrated account of exhibition and sale of handiwork completed by the pupils of Miss Lillian Bunt, who is stated to have the distinction of being the teacher of the first rural auxiliary class in Ontario. This work was accomplished in Secord public school, located in York County, just outside Toronto city limits. The articles produced embraced basketry, knitting, weaving, embroidery, plain sewing, stuffed animals, etc., made of white cotton and was produced by pupils ranging from eight to fourteen years of age; and the various specimens were eagerly purchased by the parents and friends of the pupils in attendance. The proceeds are to be devoted to purchase records for the school victrola, magazines, etc. It is stated that this special instruction so enthusiastically entered into by both teacher and pupils, but whets the appetite for ordinary elementary studies.
