Jas. Hemphill Buried In Flesherton On Friday

REMAINS WERE BROUGHT FROM REGINA FOR INTERMENT HERE

The remains of Mr. James Hemphill arrived here Thursday noon last from Regina, where he resided for a number of years with the members of his family who reside there. On arrival of the train the body was taken to the home of his brother, Mr. Sangster Hemphill, from where the funeral took place Friday afternoon to Flesherton cemetery, where he was laid beside his wife, who predeceased him 24 years ago. Rev. Eaton of Flesherton conducted the service, giving a comforting message. The pallbearers were his three brothers and three sons. The late Mr. Hemphill was born in King township, York Co., 75 years ago, coming with his parents when quite young to a farm at Mt. Zion. When he finished his public school education he learned the carriage making business with Mr. Heard of Flesherton, after which he came to Ceylon, where he worked at his trade for many years. Then he accepted a position as baggage man at the depot here, where he was very efficient and obliging. He was married 50 years ago to Miss Ellen Latimer, to whom were born five sons and three daughters, who mourn the loss of a kind and loving father—Will R. of the T. Eaton Co., Toronto; Mrs. Thos. Wilcock (Janie) of Regina; Mrs. Chester Murdock (Maggie), Regina; Walter, Regina; Kilbourn, Vancouver; Joseph, Toronto; Fred of Churchbridge, Sask.; Mrs. Lorne Murdock (Minnie) Regina. He also leaves three brothers and three sisters—Mr. Joseph Hemphill of Dundalk, Mr. Hood and Misses Fanny and Emma of Flesherton; Mrs. Warling of Vandeleur, and Sangster of Ceylon.

Those who attended the funeral from a distance were: Walter from Regina, who accompanied the body here; Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Hemphill and son, Kilburn, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hemphill, Mrs. Chas. Irish, Mr. Bolton and Mr. White, Toronto; Mr. T. Hemphill and Mr. Brownlee, Kleinburg; Mr. Joseph Hemphill, Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Morrow, Mrs. Johnston, Dundalk; Miss Kate McKenzie, Mrs. Speers and Mary Speers of Feversham. The many floral offerings of sympathy which covered and banked the casket were beautiful and chaste. The sympathy of this whole community is extended to the family, brothers and sisters.

Mr. Andrew Kennedy left this Tuesday morning to attend the funeral of Mr. Alex. Stewart at Thornton

Sympathy Is Extended

The sympathy of this community is extended to Mr. J. McDonald in the loss of his aged father, who was laid to rest Saturday in the Priceville cemetery, also to Mr. Thos. Irwin in the loss of his sister, Miss E. Irwin, who resided with her brothers near Markdale and was buried Saturday.

J. Ashdown Back To B.C.

Mr. James Ashdown, who has spent the winter at Notch Hill, B.C., with his son called on old friends here on Saturday, who were very pleased to see him. Mr. Ashdown had a sale of his household furniture in Owen Sound the past week and is leaving Monday to reside with his son inB.C.

SINGHAMPTON

(Intended for Last Week)

We are glad to know that Mr. A. Buie, Sr. is improving.

Sorry to say that an old resident of this village is seriously ill, namely Mrs. G. Ferguson.

A gentleman time-keeper of this vicinity has double work owing to the fact that he keeps music time in addition to his other work.

The roads being closed between the eighth and tenth of Osprey and fields muddy make it inconvenient for a few young men.

Two automobiles passed through our village last week.

The flood across the pond on the pine tree side-road has made an interference but the telephone in that district is still working.

The skating season is ended. That will leave more time for study.

A reception was given to Mr. James McQueen and his bride on Mar. 26th, when an enjoyable evening was spent in games and music.

The box-social at Rob Roy held by the Orangemen on Friday last proved a success.

Percy Winters of Maxwell has been residing on the town line for the past month. He has been empoyed by F. J. Gadke.

Russell MacDonald has been assisting Robert Edwards at syrup making.

PAY YOUR SUBSCRIPTION IN ADVANCE NOW!

No doubt it would suprise a large number of our readers to learn how much money there is outstanding in subscription accounts for The Advance. We would like to have our list paid up ahead and it would be easier for our readers to pay in advance and not have two or three years to pay for at one time. The Advance is only three cents a week and comes the year round. Send us the money for your arrears now and have a clear conscience in this matter.

TRAMPLED ON BY A COW

Severe internal injuries sustained as a result of being trampled by a cow on her husband's farm, near New Germany proved fatal to Mrs. Mark May, well known resident of the district for many years. She was just about to sit down on a milking stool beside one of the cows when it kicked her, throwing her under another, which became frightened and trampled her badly.

Mr. May reached the scene of the accident shortly afterward and dragged his wife to a position of safety. The injured woman could not be removed to a hospital, and passed away at her home. She is survived by 12 children besides her husband.

USE THE ADVANCE "SMALL ADVTS." IT WILL PAY YOU.

FEVERSHAM

Mrs. Dr. McGee has returned to Markdale after spendng a couple of weeks with her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Croft and family visited with Mrs Croft's parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sayers.

Mr. F. Wilcox, who has been miller in the mill here since Jim Davidson got hurt last summer, has returned to his home at Nottawa, and Jim is in charge once more.

Mr. Oscar Deadman of Toronto is home for a holiday. Oscar has been employed in a branch of the Royal Bank in Toronto.

Mr. James Speer had a bad spell with his heart on Sunday and had to call in Dr. Guy. Mr. Speer is still feeling very poorly.

Miss Slade of Eugenia spent the week end with her friend, Miss Mina Moffat.

On Friday last week little Mervin Ottewell got out in the road with his dog and wandered away until he got lost and wandered about a mile from home, when his father, Sherman Ottewell, found him. He was tired out and there certainly might have been a sad story to tell if he had not been found before dark, as he is only about three years old.

EAST MOUNTAIN

Mrs. R. McMillan is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Andrew Fawcett, Kimberley.

Mr. Thompson Allen had a wood bee on Friday afternoon and a party at night. A pleasant time was spent by all.

Why He was Shy on "e's"

This joke, which was recently forwarded to prove that scientific men can be witty as well as wise, should be read aloud. A colleague of Dr. Cum Brown, the famous Edinburg professor of Chemistry, once came to him concerning an Indian medical student whose English was defective.

"We cannot pass this man," he said "He is quite illiterate; he simply cannot spell. Why he has spelt proceed with one 'e'.

"From what place does he come?" asked Dr. Brown.

"From Ceylon."

At once Dr. Brown flashed back: the"That explains it That's the land of the Cingalese!"
