USE THE ADVANCE "SMALL ADVTS." IT WILL PAY YOU.

FEVERSHAM

While Mrs. Samuel Hawton and Mrs. John Hawton of the sixth line of Nottawasaga, near the Batteau were driving into Collingwood on Saturday last their horse took fright at a car and bolted. One of the lines broke and he ran away, throwing both ladies out of the buggy, breaking Mrs. Saw Hawton's leg in two places and also breaking Mrs John Hawton's leg. Much sympathy is expressed, as both adies are well known here. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hawton were raised in Osprey and lived on a farm near this village up until three years ago. Mr. and Mrs. John Hawton were also raised in Osprey and moved to Nottawasaga from Rob Roy a few years ago.

The farmer's have all been busy on the land for the past week and we hear that some of them have sown their peas last week according to the oid idea of sowing peas in the growth of the moon. However we may say that the season is the earliest for a number of years.

Mrs. R. . Whiteoak is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Julian in Collingwood.

Miss Baird has gone to her home in Mitchell for the Easter holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Long attended the wedding of Mr. Long's niece at Maxwell last week.

Miss Zella Long gave a party on her birthday, April 1st, when twenty-five of her girl friends assembled and enjoyed themselves, all enjoying Zella's treat of maple taffy and other good things. Zella received many beautiful presents from them, and after spending the evening in games and music dispersed, wishing her many happy returns of the day.

Mr. Clarence Alexander has purchased a car and now we will watch his smoke.

Mr. T. W. Conron hs resigned his position as operator for the Osprey Telephone System. The commissioners have rented a buiding for the central and will have to get another operator. Mr. Conron's resignation is to take effect on June 1st.

Mr. Wilson of Kolopore has rented the T. Howard farm on the twelfth line and has taken possession.

Mr. John Ottewell Jr. has moved to the Thornbury farm on the 12th line, Artemesia.

Mr. Samuel Mullin has rented the Geo. A. Miller farm on the townline from Wm. Hendry.

Two buggies collided on the 12th on Friday night, with the result that one of the occupants was thrown out adn slightly injured of course. It was dark and foggy. What will happen when Ferguson's 4.4 beer comes on sale. We suppose it will be foggy every night then.

USEFUL THINGS SHOULD BE USED BY SOMEBODY

How many really valuable things do you own that are useless to you?

How many things are simply in your way that other people would be willing to pay a fair price for!

Take an "account of stock" among your chattels and things."

Sell the superfluous things—through a small advertisement in the Advance. The cost is small— so keep it "there" for a while, and you will get a buyer.

IN MEMORIAM

BROWN—In loving memory of George Brown, who passed away on April the 29th, 1924.

We were not there to clasp his hand,
We did not see him die,
We only knew he passed away
And never said good-bye.

Mrs. S. Udell and Mrs. J Stewart daughters.

The residence of Mrs. Oliver Stewart, near Allenford, with the greater portion of its contents was destroyed by fire early on Wednesday morning, "stray spark from the stove"

ROCK MILLS

The rains on Sunday and Monday were quite welcome, as the land was very dry for seeding. If warm weather continues everything will be looking lovely and green in a few days.

The Durham Furniture Co. commenced Monday to saw at their mill here and have a good stock of logs in. We like to hear the old whistle once more. Mr. Jas. Park of Owen Sound is back again as sawyer.
