Late Rev. John Coburn Was A National Figure

WELL KNOWN IN FLESHERTON

An interesting figure passed away at his home at 88 Glencairn Avenue, Toronto, last week in the person of Rev. James Cockburn, famous both in Great Britain and Canada as a blind evangelist. In past years he was a welcome visitor in Flesherton and in 1873 he was married in this village to Miss Annie E. Stewart.

When only a year and a half old, the late Mr. Cockburn lost his sight, but later received an excellent education at the School for the Blind in Belfast, Ireland, of which city he was a native. He applied himself with ambition to his studies and early revealed an aptitude for theology, showing particular interest in the work of the Methodist church, although he was raised in an Anglican home. While stil a boy he commenced to preach and became noted as an evangelist both in the Old Country and in Caanda, having come to the Dominion in 1871. The late Mr. Coburn never took a settled pastorate, but was prominent as a revivaalist, his manner of preaching being trenchant and convincing. While in Ireland he was an opponent of the Home Rule policies of Gladstone and Parnell. He was also consistently during his lifetime a supporter of temperance. He is survived by his widow, by one son, Rev. John Coburn, field secretary of Evangelism and Social Service in the Methodist church, and by three daughters, Mrs. W. G. Ellis and Misses Milly and Clara Coburn. He was for 40 years a member of L.O.L. 551, and his funeral was under the ausnices of the Orange Order.

IMPORTANT TO AUTOISTS.

Two important 1925 amendments to motor vehicles act are: first, that every person who drives a car in this province after January 1st, 1926, must carry a permit, and second, that all motor vehicles entering upon or crossing a through highway must come to a stop before so doing.

Probably 1924's big motor car change was in balloon tires. In 1925 the big move will be toward enclosed cars at moderate prices.

By taking out the inner tubes once in two months and reversing their position in the tire, the danger of having the tubes rubbed through by the edges of the flap or by any other slight projection is removed.

Never jam on the brakes if a tire suddenly blows out while the car is in motion. Cut off the power and let the car coast to a stop. Jamming on the brakes might cause a bad skid and will be fatal to the blown-out tire if the wheel on which it is placed is locked.
