Sutherland having charge of the service. The pallbearers were six young boys, all cousins of the deceased, viz: Innis McLean, Donnie McLean, Neil McLean. Alroy McLean, Donald Reiley and Wilburt Burnett. The whole-hearted sympathy of the community goes out to the grief-stricken parents and friends, especially so, as the mother and little babe were very low at the time, Mrs. McLean suffering from double pneumonia. We are pleased to say that she is now some better and good hopes are held out for her recovery. Mr. Jack Ibbitson and sister, Mrs. G. Ibbitson and Mrs. K. Marshall of Toronto attended the funeral. The different numbers seemed to be well chosen for the character they represented, but perhaps we might mention as being especially good, Mr. Jack Russell, as "Goldie Wix", the country boy who got a job in the city post office.
