

Bantam reps fold in finals to Park Hill

The Wiarton Bantam rep players have no reason to hang their heads after a great season in hockey. They battled all the way to the final OMHA championship series finally meeting a team that was a little bigger and stronger. Large crowds followed the team throughout it's quest for a C Division Championship. Wiarton lost the first two games with identical scores of 7-2 and in a penalty-marred match here in Wiarton Saturday lost the final game. Above, goalie Colin Davidson saw a lot of rubber during the game. The Echo salutes the team of Colin Davidson, Brenden Hay, Torey Hay, Reid Hay, Brittney Gresel, Derek King, Mathew Nadjiwon, Trent Hay, Brian Ruth, Kirby Hepburn, Brandon Boulter, Charlie Cunningham, Michael Akiwenzie, Cole McDougall, Devon Jackson, Evan Wyborn, Billy Phillips and Trent Hawke. Head Coach Peter McDougall, Assistant Coach Jay Gilbert, Trainer Rob King, Manager Ron Cunningham.

Delaine Smith has recently graduated "With Distinction" from the Royal Conservatory of Music, Toronto, with an A.R.C.T. in Performance Voice. She is the daughter of Rick Smith and the late Joan Smith, and the granddaughter of Gord & Marj Smith of Wiarton and Jim and Margaret Urbshott of Purple Valley.

105608