List of Preachers Who Have Been In Local Methodist Church

A meeting not without its pathetic side but marked with a feeling of optimism for things to come is an event of interest. Such was the congregational meeting, the last of its kind, of the Methodist church which took place on Tuesday, May 19, here.

The pillars of the church, the ones who stood by the church for many years, along with the young members of the congregation sat down to the supper prepared by the ladies and did justice to the extent of their capacity.

The remainder of the program consisted of reminiscenses of the past by the older members of the congregation. Mr. W. J. Bellamy read the minutes of the first meeting of the Board of the church which took place 48 years ago. Mr. C. W. Bellamy spoke of the work on the early circuit and Mr. Jos. Blakely recalled the founding of Methodism at Inistioge and Flesherton by the Armstrongs and the Strains. The first quarterly official board was held in the same place, a co-incidence noted by many. Mrs. Jos. LeGard of Toronto and Mr. Wm. Little of Owen Sound are the only members of the early congregation living at the present time. Mrs. Wm. Wilcock gave the names of the ministers of the circuit since the early days of the church and these we have recorded below:

The Circuit commenced in 1858 with Rev. Campbell and there followed: J. F. Latimer, D. L. Huff*, W. J. Hewitt*, J. Stewart*, Geo. Jacques, Jas. P. Kidd*, Jas. McCartney, John Saunders*, Josias Green, D. Scarf*, J. Isaacs*, D. Williams*, C. E. Perry, Wm. Beilby*, E. Charlton*, Rev. Langford*, James Coburn*, H. S. Matthews, John Turner*, Richard Strachan*, Wm. Johnston, W. Smyth, S. C. Philp, D. C. McDowell, Walter Ayers, J. W. Shilton, A. W. Tonge, E. Rupert, John Mahan, J. Ward, J. I. Wilson, T. Caldwell, H. E. Wellwood, Jas. Dudgeon, C. Belfry, John Oke, H. H. Eaton.

Those marked * were unordained young men.

Mr. Davidson's family, who attended the funeral on Monday were Mrs. Hyslop of Portsmouth, New Hampshire, U.S.A., Thos. and Hugh of Detroit, Mrs. Plummer of Empress, Alta., together with the sons, Will, Thomson and Ern who reside near this village, and Cassie, Mrs Fred Hale, living near here.
