

COPS FOR CANCER

— Photos by Mona Whicher

l-r: Britt Lauder of Britt's hair styling, Cost. Dave Meyers, Bruce Peninsula Cops for Cancer, Event Coordinator and Harriet Nixon. As part of the Cops for Cancer fundraiser Harriet Nixon of Red Bay had her hair dyed purple and orange last week by Britt Lauder of Britt's Hairstyling in Mar. She will have it shaved off at the Cops for Cancer Shave-off event on June 1st at 7 p.m. at the Meeting Place in Wiaraton. Hair cutting at the event by Shear Style of Wiaraton. "I hope to raise a lot of money for this worthwhile cause. I am doing this to honour the friends I have who are living with cancer and to remember the friends and family I've lost from cancer, including my mother when I was fourteen years old." Harriet works for the Bruce Peninsula Association for Community Living and is inviting her friends and colleagues to come and watch her getting shaved bald. Pledges can be made by contacting Harriet at 534-0426. or harrietonix@bmts.com

JUNE 28 FEDERAL Election - Locally Results were

LARRY MILLER (PC)	22,388
INCUMBENT OVID JACKSON (LIB)	17,785
SEBASTIAN OSTERTAG (NDP)	6,500
A DROSSOS (GREEN PARTY)	2,075
STEVEN Taylor (Chr. Heritage)	981

BUSY WEEKEND
Traffic on the peninsula over the Civic Holiday Weekend set records. Residents from throughout the Peninsula commented it was the busiest they have ever seen.

11