TIMELY PRECAUTION

After Mr. John Garbutt and his family had motored here on Saturday night from their farm in Brant, his son stalled the Ford in front of a West Ward home and went in to visit a friend, firmly believing that all would be well until the time for returning arrived. On issuing from the house however, some hours later, the son found the bus gone, and as a search about town failed to reveal it, the matter was reported to the police and an auto-stealing sensation was on. As the son had the fliver so adjusted that when a certain speed was exceeded a needle would drop down and shut off the ignition and so stall the machine until the needle was removed he had hopes that the present craze for speed would get the thief in trouble, and it was so. For while being driven home by Alvin Glinz, they beheld the missing bus abandoned on the roadside near the C.N.R. freight sheds, and an investigation showed that the robber had hit too fast a clip, and that the needle had done its work and stopped the flight. Not being onto the wrinkle the culprit deserted the gas-wagon and started in to make himself scarce.—Bruce Times.

Dundalk Head League Wins From Flesherton

All baseball games are not won in the first few innings, and that fact was exemplified on the local lot Thursday of last week when Dundalk bunched hits in the 8th inning, overtaking Flesherton's three run lead and winning 9——6. When Dundalk came to bat in the eighth inning they had what seemed an insurmountable task of overcoming a three run lead, as Hutton had struck out three men the inning before and seemed to be in great form. However four healthy hits, a walk and two errors allowed Dundalk to score six runs. Akins started the scoring for Flesherton when he romped home, while Dundalk was throwing the ball around the field two errors being chalked up against them, one overthrow to second and one to third. Their second run came in the third, both counters going to Akins. Flesherton held the lead until the fifth when Dundalk shot over three runs, to lead three to two, the locals tieing the count in the sixth when Dow tallied. Then in the seventh from, McTavish, Boyd and Kelly tallied, making what was thought to be a safe lead, but the dope was upset as aforementioned. The day was cold and cloudy, but a good crowd turned out to see the opening game here, the only disappointment being felt was the loss of the game, as it was a real good game of ball with only a few errors.

Players—
Dundalk — Claridge, McAllister, M. Thompson, Armstrong, Sudden, Dyre McIntyre, C. Thompson, Lockhart.

Flesherton — Kelly Akins, Hutton, Dow, Alcox, Muir, Wauchope, McTavish, Boyd. Sparks.

Score by innings,
Flesherton — 1 0 1 0 0 1 3 0 0—6
Dundalk — 0 0 0 0 3 0 0 6 0—9

NOTES ON THE GAME

Hutton has everything on the ball and with more experience will improve materially. He had six strike outs that were were well earned.

Dow had a good day at bat this time, securing three good healthy singles out of four trips to the plate.

George Armstrong pitched for Dundalk and was half the team, as he fanned thirteen and had three assists. All he had was the cover on the ball and a fast high delivery.

Akins is the leading run-getter on the Flesherton team, with four in two; Kelly and Sparks second with three each; Dow and McTavish, two each; and Boyd and Hutton, one each.

Hutton stopped Dundalk's stealing, as he nabbed four on the bases in the first three innings. There is no use trying to steal with Hutton pitching.

Wauchoupe fielded perfectly in centre and secured one hit, a two bagger.

It is hard to get on base if you reach for the high ones.

The Old Durham Road Ball team are scheduled to play the local talent at 6.30 to morrow evening. The Onwards are no weaklings and should help several of the locals to remove superfluous avoirdupois.

FEVERSHAM LOST 2—0 TO COLLINGWOOD UNITED

The Collingwood United football team was proven to be superior to the Feversham team at Feversham on Saturday evening last when they won 2-0 from the Feversham eleven. While the Feversham team has been composed mainly of young men they gave a good exhibition of football and their opponents knew each time that they were up against good material. While Feversham's initial appearance in organized football has not brought them a championship it has brought them experience, which is needed to bring home championships. We wish the Feversham team the best of luck next year if they again decide to enter.

The town girls nearly wrecked the Mission Band on Tuesday evening when they romped away with a softball game to the tune of 26—24. It was a hetic game with errors predominating the damsels play.
