IN MEMORIAM

IZARD—In loving memory of our dear father, Mr. John Izard Sr., who died July 15, 1924.

We often sit and think of you when
we are all alone;
Your memory is the only thing
That we can call our own.
Like ivy on the withered oak
When other things decay,
Our love for you will still keep green
And never fade away.
When day's are dark and friends are few,
Dear father, how we long for you.

Sadly missed by Jim, Jenny and Minnie.

The car of a Hanover gentleman, Sarvis by name, got into a smash-up with a McLaughlin on the North Provincial Highway one evening last week when returning from Shelburne. The former, in getting off the road to let the McLaughlin pass, swerved onto the road in the path of the latter. The result was that the lighter car was carried a distance, thrown into the ditch and sustained the following damages: Front wheel broken, front axle broken, radiator crushed and otherwise damaged. Sarvis admitted he was at fault and the McLaughlin proceeded on its way, little damaged. — Dundalk Herald.

Feversham Church Union

Maxwell, July 10, 1925.

To Whom It May Concern,—

There being no definite announcement as to the service of the United Church in Feversham next Sunday, I desire to make the following explanation.

Since there was no Methodist church in the village, the members of that conmmunion have been worshipping for the past 14 or 15 years in the Presbyterian building and paying a nominal sum in rental. The finest relations existed between the two congregations, the one meeting in the morning, the other in the afteroon.

Previous to June 10th the Presbyterian group voted on the question of uniting their church with the Congregational and Methodist churches of Canada and gave an anti-union majority.

Certain members of the newly inaugurated United Crurch interpreted this vote to mean that they were no longer wanted to continue services in the Presbyterian church. Some preliminary arangements were even begun whereby services could be continued in another building.

Upon interviewing some leaders of the Presbyterian congregation, I find this to be a serious misinterpretation of their intended motives and actions. We all regret that the situation has been misconstrued and circulated.

With this explanation the Presbyterians have expressed their willingness to have the United Congregation worship in their church on the same arangements as the Methodists have done heretofore.

Accordingly I wish to announce that the services of the United Church of Canada will be held in church on July 19th at 11 o'clock.

All are very welcome.

Sincerely yours,

Rev. H. Howey, Pastor.
