SAWING-OFF.

Toronto World

Yesterday The Toronto Globe published without comment the following despatch:

Montreal, Dec. 3.—The chiefs of the two political parties are in conference to-day in regard to protests of the recent elections. Among those taking part are Messrs. L. P. Brodeur, H. B. Ames and F. D. Monk. It is expected that an agreement will be come to by which there will be no protests. If, however, no agreement is come to eleven seats of the Conservatives will be contested in courts and twenty-five of the Liberals. December 5 is the last day for filing protests.

Probably new readers stopped to think what an item like this means. Could there be a more cynical comment upon the Election Act or upon the sermons and sermonettes which adorn the secular press?

If this despatch be true, there is reasonable ground for believing that electoral corruption has prevailed in 36 out of these ridings in Quebec. Yet we are asked to believe that a minister of the crown and two reputable members of parliament get together to prevent the truth from coming out. A similar report has been published in the Toronto newspapers which avers that Hon. Geo. P. Graham and Mr. Barker, M.P., are arranging to saw off election protests in Ontario.

It may come to be considered all right, the practice of "sawing off." Of what avail is it for parliament to pass election laws against electoral corruption if the Aylesworth Act to be enforced by Sandy his colleagues will not be induced from its author, who by the way, is the attorney-general of Canada, the information which they possess. Government supporters, above named, are gentlemen of high standing. Mr. Aylesworth, who took office not long since, promised a carnival of corruption, and perpetrated the criminal law to bring the malefactors to justice. He should not weary in well-doing.

If the saw-off is a proper thing why not let the negotiations conducted in public? And why confine these minutes to only a few shakers who defy parliament by violations of the Elections Act? To be consistent we should not expect the man who is charged with embezzlement or engaging a friendly "saw-off" with his neighbor in the dock, who is charged with arson.

RHEUMATISM RECIPE.

A well-known authority on Rheumatism gives the following valuable, inexpensive and harmless prescription which anyone can easily prepare at home:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargen, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces.

Mix by shaking well in a bottle, and take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

Here are the ingredients can be obtained from any good prescription pharmacist, and, being of vegetable origin, are harmless to take.

The proper mixture, if taken regularly for a few days, is said to overcome the most severe cases of Rheumatism. The pain disappears at once, and, being a vegetable remedy, it acts in a permanent manner by removing the causes of the disease, and without injuring the stomach. Where there are many so-called Rheumatism remedies, patent medicines, etc., some of which do give relief, few really give permanent relief, and the above will, no doubt, be gratefully appreciated by many sufferers here at this time.

Inquiry at the drug stores of this neighborhood elicits the information that these drugs are harmless and can be bought separately or the druggists here will make the prescription for our readers at a cost of Stayathome—Oh, we're all right and getting along as well as could be expected.

Wanderer—And how is the Widow Green?

Stayathome—She isn't so Green as she was.

Wanderer—What's the matter? She isn't gray, I hope?

STARTLING STATEMENT

It's Statements Like That of H. Heyman, Kingston, Ont., That are Making Mi-o-na World Famous For Obstinate Stomach Complaints.

Mr. H. Heyman, 132 Colborne Street, Kingston, Ont., says "Mi-o-na is worth its weight in gold as a remedy to quickly cure long-standing cases of dyspepsia. For years I had suffered with my stomach and could find no cure nor even relief. I could not eat anything as it would sour and form gas on my stomach that had a pressure on the heart. Heavy pains would come around my sides and pit of my stomach. I was unable to sleep for this and there was nothing to relieve my miserable condition. I was weak and languid and would feel as tired in the morning as on going to bed and perspiration would break out all over my body. I would be so weak from vomiting that I would fall to my knees. My head would ache and spells of dizziness would leave me unable to see. Doctors had termed the trouble gastritis, but failed to benefit me. I tried Mi-o-na, which I procured at a drug store on advice of a friend, which has cured me when all else failed. I am sound and well and feel grateful to Mi-o-na for my present health.

It's the known results obtained by Mi-o-na that place it far and away above all other remedies and confirm Higginbotham Drug Co. in offering to refund the money if Mi-o-na fails to cure stomach trouble. 50 cents a box. Relief in twenty-four hours.

Forty-Seven Years In North.

Forty-seven long years spent in the north country away from civilization is the record of James Wylie, who came out recently as far as Winnipeg on his first visit since going north. He came from the Orkney Islands in 1862, reaching Canada by way of Hudson Bay. He went from York Factory to Norway House, down Lake Winnipeg to Grand Rapids, up Cumberland river to Isle La Crosse, thence to Portage La Roche on Clearwater, and to Fort Chipewyan. He has been there ever since, working as a blacksmith and gunsmith for the Hudson Bay Co.

He came out this year and was offered a trip to England by the company. He went as far as Winnipeg, but gave it up and returned. Mr. Wylie never saw a street car nor a railway till his visit to Edmonton and Winnipeg.

SERIOUS DEPLETION IN FUNDS

HARD TIMES HARD ON THE POOR CONSUMPTIVE

Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives Makes an Urgent Appeal for Money.

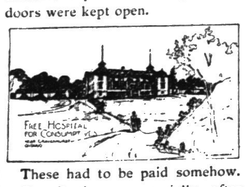
$35,000 Required to Cover Bank Overdraft and Provide for Maintenance of Poor Patients.

These head-lines tell the story of our needs.

They are heavy and urgent.

Many times during the past twelve months the question has pressed itself upon the Trustees, "Can we continue the work further?"

Every month brought its quota of accounts for salaries and wages of staff, bills of butcher, milkman, eggs, groceries, heavy coal bills—a serious item—and other uncontrollable expenses so long as the doors were kept open.

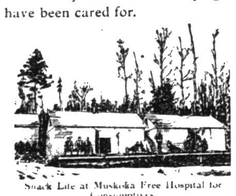


These had to be paid somehow.

Contributions—especially after the turn of the year when the financial depression was felt at its keenest—fell off to such an extent, that each month the burden became heavier.

During all this period there was only one thing to do, and that was to lean on our banker—swelling the bank overdraft.

The trial was the severest in the history of these Muskoka Homes, in which nearly 3,000 persons, stricken by the dread white plague, have been cared for.



Snack Line at Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives.

But never for a single hour did the doors of the Free Hospital fail to swing open, and give a welcome to suffering ones without money and without price.

The good news has gone forth of a rich harvest the wide Dominion over.

Friends, we come to you at this time, when the clouds of depression are being lifted, asking that you now in the direness of our extremity help to lift the burden being carried not for any personal gain, but solely, alone, only on behalf of suffering sisters and brethers.

Our plea is on behalf of the sick ones.

What will you give?
Do not say nay.
Help generously.
Help all you can.
Help some.
Help now.

Contributions may be sent to W. J. Gage, Esq., Chairman Executive Committee, 84 Spadina Avenue, Toronto; or J. S. Robertson, Sec.-Treasurer National Sanatorium Association, 317 King Street West, Toronto, Canada.

Golden Silence.

A man who could not quote Ralph Waldo Emerson at the house of a friend told of the conversation was in which the Concord philosopher blunted the edge of a compliment.

"Oh, Mr. Emerson," said a young woman of the party, "it must be so delightful to know that people all over the country are grateful for the things you have said!"

"Thank you," said Emerson slowly, "but it is for some of the things I have not said that I feel most grateful."

To Save Himself.

Some naturalists are of the opinion that the whale was once a land animal and that it was forced to take to water as a means of protection.

For Over Sixty Years.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by millions of mothers for their children while teething. If disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of Cutting Teeth send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. It cures Diarrhœa, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses of the United States. Price twenty five cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists. Guaranteed under the Food and Drugs Act, June 30th, 1906. Serial number 1588.

Ten Thousand Dollars In Coin.

There arrived recently in Galt, consigned to the Ontario Rag & Metal Co., Chinese currency to the value of $10,000 in Canadian money.

Just what the sum would represent in Chinese currency is impossible to ascertain, but a conservative estimate places the amount at 500,000 tael. A tael is a silver piece worth 63 cents in Canadian currency. There are no taels in the coin in Galt, it being composed of copper and brass pieces graduated from half a tael to one-tenth of a tael.

The shipment of about 9,000 pounds of Chinese coin was received direct from China. It arrived in a score of sacks fastened with strips of tough weed.

The coin has been discarded by the Chinese Government, most of it being worn or defaced. It ranges in size from pieces as small as a Canadian nickel to those as large as a half-dollar, and each coin has a square hole in the middle.

The coin will be sold by the company, to be used in foundries, etc., where an exceptionally fine quality of brass or copper is needed.

Antiquity of Cockroaches.

Some of the finest fossil insects known to geologists are those preserved in amber. Originally a gum exuding from a species of pine tree, the amber first captured the insect and then buried it, thus preserving every detail of its structure. The exhibition of a fine collection of cockroaches thus preserved at a meeting of the Entomological society shows the respectable antiquity of this unpleasant insect, for the amber deposits of eastern Prussia, whence they were obtained, are of middle tertiary age. The cockroach, as a matter of fact, however, can claim a much greater age, for a species of Blatta is recorded from the Purbeck beds. A related genus, Palaeoblattina, rates as far back as the Silurian.

Royal Athletes.

Both the King of Greece and the King of Norway are wonderful athletes. King George is especially proficient in all manly exercises, and were an athletic concourse of European sovereigns to be held he would be facile princeps among his brother monarchs. King Haakon, besides being a good "all-round man," is remarkable for his marvellous sleight-of-hand; he delights in playing all manner of difficult tricks with corks, bottles, knives, forks, coins, and other objects such as jugglers love to play with.

Monkey Brand Soap will clean a house from cellar to roof, but won't wash clothes.

Jupiter and Lightning.

Among the ancients, especially the Greeks and Romans, one struck dead by lightning was held in great honor. The supreme deity in the Greek and Roman religions, Zeus or Jupiter, was supposed to be the manipulator of the lightning, and the person struck down by one of the fiery bolts was especially distinguished, inasmuch as he had been felled directly by the king of the gods. The dignity of the killer was reflected upon the killed. In addition to this, the opinion was quite universal that the bodies of those struck by lightning were incorruptible.

A Mighty Eruption.

It has been calculated that the quantity of solid matter ejected by the great eruption of Krakatoa, in the strait of Sunda, in August, 1883, was 4.14 cubic miles. To give some idea of the enormous volume this represents we may take the following illustration: The largest of the pyramids of Egypt, known as the Great Pyramid, contains about 82,000,000 cubic feet of masonry. It would therefore take about 7,360 of such structures to equal in bulk the matter that was thrown out by this eruption.

Experiments in Germany have proved that it is almost impossible for airships to escape the fire of rifles and cannon on the ground.

BEFORE TREATMENT

Peter E. Summers, of Kalamazoo, Mich., relates his experience:

"I was troubled with Nervous Debility for many years. I lay it to indiscretion and excesses in early youth. I became very despondent and didn't care whether I worked or not. I imagined everybody who looked at me guessed my secret. Imaginative dreams at night weakened me—my back ached, had pains in the back of my head, hands and feet were cold, tired in the morning, poor appetite, fingers were shaky, eyes blurred, hair loose, memory poor, etc. Numbness in the fingers set in and the doctor told me he feared paralysis. I took all kinds of medicines and tried many first-class physicians, wore an electric belt for three months, went to Turkish baths, but received little benefit. While at St. Clemens I was induced to consult Drs. Kennedy & Kennedy, though I had lost all faith in doctors. Like a drowning man I commenced the New Method Treatment and it saved my life. The improvement was like magic. I could feel the vigor going through the nerves. I was cured mentally and physically. I have sent them many patients and will continue to do so."

GOT IN ALL THE NEWS.

Cummings Killed a Lot of Ads. and Raised a Row.

When Amos Cummings was managing editor of The New York Sun, many years ago, an important news story came in late one night and was sent to the composing room with "must" written above it, which meant that on no account must the news be left out of the paper. A few minutes after the copy boy returned to the editorial rooms and reported that the foreman had said the paper was already overset and that two columns of other news would have to be killed if the "must" story was to get in. Cummings took the copy from the boy and went himself to the composing room. He demanded an explanation. The foreman told him that there was a pressure of advertisements that night and that they had usurped some of the space usually given for news.

"What shall I kill?" asked the foreman.

"Kill two columns of advertisements and print all the news," ordered Cummings, and it was done.

The next day there was trouble around The Sun office. A hurried meeting of the stockholders was called, and it was a stormy one. Some of the stockholders wanted to have Cummings discharged, but Charles A. Dana stood up for him, and as Dana owned the greater part of the stock his voice was all powerful. After the meeting Mr. Dana walked out of his office and straight to Cummings' desk. He put his hand affectionately on the managing editor's shoulder and said:

"Amos, you have my permission to throw out advertisements to make room for the news whenever in your opinion it is necessary. We are publishing a newspaper, not an advertising poster."

Shortly afterward an improvement was made in the presses so that two or more pages could be added to the paper at the last moment if necessary.

A Suggestion of Rare Value.

A diseased condition of the surfaces of the air passages causes bad breath, but more commonly emanates from indigestion or an impure condition of the blood. Thousands of cases prove that Dr. Hamilton's Pills through their specific action on the secretory and eliminative organs, not only cure bad breath, but so thoroughly purify the system that anything suggestive of blood or digestive troubles is impossible. Through Dr. Hamilton's Pills the skin grows rosy and clear, activity of the body and mind increases, and bounding health is established, sold everywhere in 25c boxes.

Reindeers and Wives.

At the meeting of the society For the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals some extracts from school children's essays were read. "Feed your horse with horseradish and horse chestnuts if you want your horse to grow," said one child. Another wrote, "If you are very kind indeed to your dog it may even follow you to your grave." A little girl wrote: "The Eskimos are very fond indeed of their reindeer—in fact, they love their reindeer sometimes more than their wives. But, then, they are very useful to them."—London Mail.

Almost Dead of Bronchitis.

Few people have suffered more than Jno. P. Taylor, of Dyment, P. O., Ont. To-day he is well and writes:—"I must tell you how much Catarrhozone has been to me. I was so bad with bronchitis sometimes I thought it would soon be over with me. A spell of choking would come on that left me prostrated and weak. Since using Catarrhozone I have had no trouble at all. It strengthened my throat, stopped the cough, gave me free breathing and entirely cured." Just the usual experience. Catarrhozone invariably cures whether Bronchitis, Asthma or Catarrh. Two sizes, 25c and $1.00 at all dealers.

JEWELRY

THE GIFT OF GIFTS

It's so, for a gift ought to be more than the mere presentation of something worth about so much.

The aesthetic sense ought to be recognized. The fitness of the gift to the occasion ought to be considered.

Thus you always find Christmas and Jewelry inseparably connected. The question for you to decide is what article of Jewelry is the most suitable in each case.

We would like to suggest that our stock furnishes innumerable suggestions. All your gift wants might easily be supplied from it—with profit to you—and satisfaction to those you wish to remember. Because Jewelry is liked by everyone. As we said, it's the gift of gifts.

You will notice that we claim to sell goods cheaper than others do. You will ask how we can do this. We will give you a few of the reasons why we can do this. We will give you a few of the reasons why we can sell cheaper than others do. First, we are located where rent is not one-quarter what it is in the centre of the city. Second, we do our own buying, and have the name of being very close buyers. Many stores trust this important matter to others. We buy for cash and sell for cash, and have no debts to lose. We are satisfied to work and to live as farmers having the same amount of capital are forced to live. We don't think that because we keep store that we are entitled to a fine city residence and a house at the Beach, and servants to wait on us. Can farmers afford to live such a life? It not, why should we expect it? We keep our store open every day except Sunday, about the same hours farmers are forced to work. Many stores open at 8 and close at 6 p.m. Why should we be entitled to shorter hours and better pay than the farmer, who represents in number and wealth about nine-tenths of the civilized world? There are still many other reasons why we can and do sell cheaper than others, but these should be sufficient.
