Dundalkites are rejoicing that J. T. Park is not leaving town. He had to cancel negotiations for bandmaster of Walkerton band on account of his son, Bert Park, who had planned to manage the jewellery business in Dundalk. Bert, who is on a tour in the States in the solo clarinet section of the Sousa Band, is retaining his position with that organization.

BARN HAD NARROW ESCAPE FROM FIRE

The barn of Mr. Alex. Morton at the Rocky had a narrow escape from destruction by fire last Wednesday night, and but for the fact that Mr. Morton had occasion to go to the barn the chances are that there would have been another mysterious fire to report.

Mr. Morton was getting ready to thresh, and the separator and engine had pulled into his place about 5.30, the engine hauling the separator. The separator was placed in the barn ready to start in the morning, while the crew went to their homes for the night. Along about 9 o'clock Mr. Morton went to the barn, which was discovered full of smoke, and a hurried investigation showed that the top of the separator had caught fire and was smouldering. Mr. Morton lost no time in getting water on the scene and extinguishing the fire.

There is no explanation offered for the near catastrophe other than a spark from the engine must have alighted on the separator. Though not blazing when discovered there is little doubt that if Mr. Morton had not gone to the barn when he did, the fire would have been beyond control. It was a narrow escape. — Durham Chronicle.

4TH LINE AND VICINITY

(Intended for last week)

A very successful Hallowe'en social was held in "Stone" school on Friday evening, October 30th, under the direction of Miss E. Nichol, teacher. Mr. I. B. Whittaker was in the chair. Programme of songs, recitations and dialogues, after which games were indulged in by all present. Prizes were awarded for the best contestants. The school was tastefully decorated with lanterns, Jacko-Lanterns and pump kins, and was haunted by ghosts, witches, fairies, clowns and southeners. A good social time was spent, after which refreshments were served.

Mr Ben MacKenzie's shooting match was a decided success, some carrying off five and six ducks making an afternoon of sport worth while.

The Holdfast Club held a Hallowe'en dance at the home of Mrs. Archie Stewart, whose home was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The evening was spent in cards and dancing under the strains of beautiful music, renderd by Mr. A. E. Haw, Mr. W. McMillan, Mr. D. McLeod, and Mr. A. Knox, until a late hour brought "Home Sweet Home," all having spent a jolly time.

Mr. Reg. Hutton, Markdale, spent a few days at Mr. Thos. Irwin's.

TRAIN RAN OFF TRACK

A railroad accident with a great deal of inconvenience but little damage occurred last night about 4.30 when the westbound freight from Saugeen Junction to Walkerton left the rails on the siding leading into the Durham Stone & Sand Company's plant. The engine and four cars left the track, and, while the damage was repaired, without calling out the auxiliary, it took until 8 o'clock this morning before the track was cleared and everything working as usual. A car of stock on the freight that fortunately did not leave the rails was picked up by the night passenger and ataken to Walkerton. The cause of the accident has not been determined. —Chronicle.

The Advance Wil Not Be Published Next Week

Following the usual custom to cut out one edition of the paper each year and take a holiday we draw to the attention of our subscribers the fact that The Advance will not be issued next week. The office will be open to receive all subscription renewals, etc. This has been one of the busiest years we have had for some time and we feel that a little holiday will not do us any harm and that we will return to the editorial chair with new vigor to chronicle the many doings of this fair town.

Mr. T. McGillicudy, who lectured so acceptably in the Baptist church at Rock Mills on Tuesday night, is an old newspaper man. He learned to "pick type" in the office of the Guelph Mercury. He started the Brussells Post in 1873 and after seven years he sold out and took possession of the Huron Signal in Goderich. After running that paper for a few years he again sold but and took a government position in Toronto. Here he remained for 37 years and is now superannuated and entertains in the Canadian Chautauqua.
