PRICEVILLE

Watson Bros. had a costly break in their mill here last week, when the water wheel broke, which means expensive repairs, as well as loss of time. A peculiarity of this break is, that it occurred at night while the mill was shut down.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brawley and sons, Billy and Harry, of Wingham visited at Mr. J. McMeekin's on Sunday.

Miss Blanche Belfry of Victoria Harbor is visiting at Mr. Colin McLean's.

Mrs. E. McKinnon of Toronto is visiting at Mr. W. A. Aldcorn's.

Mrs. E. Wright has gone to Toronto, where she will spend the winter. Her sister, Mrs. K. McArthur, accompanied her down, and will visit friends for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McArthur and Miss Marie of the Glen spent Sunday with Caledon friends.

Mrs Thos. Nichol, Misses Edna and Rebecca and Miss B. Jelly were in Collingwood on Saturday.

VICTORIA CORNERS

Mrs. Bert Badgerow and daughter, Helen, Saugeen Junction is visiting for a few days with her mother, Mrs. Albert Stinson.

Clayton Betts returned to Detroit with Lawson Lockhart, who was visiting at his home here.

Mrs. James Laidlaw, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is recovering nicely.

Mr. Chas. Moore and Mr. Jas. Dargavel of Rock Mills spent a few days last week at the Winter Fair.

BORN—At Detroit on November 16th, 1925, to Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Stevens, a son, Congratulations.

ROCK MILLS

This community was grief stricken on Tuesday of last week when the sad news spread around that Mrs. George Johnson had departed this life. The deceased had been in failing health for some time and Tuesday morning, November 17th, about 5 o'clock she passed away in spite of all that loving hands could do, at the age of 38 years. Her maiden name was Nellie Chard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chard of the Toronto Line South, and was married seventeen years ago to her now sorrowing husband. The deceased lady was of a uiet and loving nature and was very highly respected. The funeral took place on Thursday, November 19th to Chalmer's United Church, Flesherton, where the deceased had been a member for a number of years since her girlhood. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Harrower, assisted by Rev. Mr. Preston, delivered impressive and comforting messages. Interment was then made in Flesherton cemetery. The floral tributes were many and very beautiful. Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn the loss of a loving and kind mother, one son, Mervyn. One son, Frank Leroy, died on August 7th, 1922. She also leaves her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chard, one brother, Robert, and one sister, Mrs. A. Wilkinson. Our sincere sympathy is extended to the bereaved ones in their hour of sorrow.

Prayer meeting will be held this Thursday evening, November 26th, at the home of Mrs. Robt. Croft and we would like as many as possible to come, so as to commence practice for the Christmas tree.

Those who attended the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto last week from here were: Messrs. Robt. Croft, Dick Clark, Jas. Dargavel, Chas. Stafford and Herb Betts.

Unity U.F.W.O. club will hold their December meeting at the home of Mrs. A. F. Pedlar on Wednesday, December 2nd. Orders will be taken.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Dargavel and children motored to Dornoch on Saturday and visited relatives there, returning home on Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Walter Russell on Wednesday, December 9th.

Mr Alfred Partridge returned home last week from the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Betts and family and Miss E. McMullen attended a birthday party last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Betts in Osprey.

Mrs. Beatty visited with Mr. and Mrs. B. Field.

FEVERSHAM

Mr. Hanley of Orangeville was a caller in our village last week.

Mr. T. W. Rowe of Guelph spent a couple of days here last week.

R. J. Colquette visited with friends in Collingwood over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Ottewell have moved from our village to Lady Bank on the Twelfth Line.

The annual fowl supper of L.O.L. 1085, L.O.B.A. and R.B.P. No. 343 was held in the Orange Hall here on the 19th and was a great success. The three lodges united this year and had a good social gathering with a plentiful supply of fowl and other good eats supplied by the ladies. Music was supplied by Messrs. Esland, Brownridge and Sayers with guitar and violin, with Miss Aleda Esland as accompanist, and their music was highly applauded. The program consisted of readings, recitations and songs and an address by the Rev. T. J. New, P.C.M. of the Association. Mr. C. H. Smith, W.M. of L.O.L. 1085, occupied the chair and filled the position in good style.

Mrs. H. Alexander visited with her sister, Mrs. A. Stewart, at Flesherton last week.

The young people adjourned to the vacant house, next door to the hall, after the supper, and tripped the light fantastic toes until the wee sma' hours.

Miss Rose McGirr has returned from the city, where she spent a couple of months.

Miss Ferris spent the week end at her home in Flesherton.

Our continuation school teacher, Mr. C. Rutledge, spent the week end at his home at Horning's Mills.

Miss Aliston, teacher at S. S. No. 6, spent the week end at her home in Collingwood.

Mr. Stewart McMullen has returned home from Ogama, Sask., where he spent three months this fall with his brother, Will, assisting to harvest and thresh the western crop.

One of McLaughlin's large trucks from Owen Sound broke down here on Monday last and had to be towed back to the city of the Greys by another of their trucks, which was at some of the other towns not far away.

The threshing is about completed around here for this year.

BORN — On Saturday, November 14th, 192,5 to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Pedlar, a son.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy shown us through the illness and death of our loving wife and mother.
