

ELECTION '06

Wednesday, January 11, 2006

CANDIDATES for
GREY-BRUCE RIDING

SHANE JOLLEY GREEN

LARRY MILLER CONSERVATIVE

Representing the Green Party, Shane Jolley, a businessman from Owen Sound, thinks it is time for a fresh approach.

Jill McIlwraith, an NDP candidate, hails from Markdale, and wonders if Ottawa has been asleep at the switch.

To read what they have to say, see pages 9 and 10. Remember, your vote does count.

VERONA JACKSON LIBERAL

JILL McILLWRAITH NDP

Monday, July 23, is election day in Canada. Here in Grey Bruce, voters have a choice of 4 candidates. Incumbent Larry Miller of the Conservative Party, who upset Liberal MP Ovid Jackson (three terms) in the June election of 2004, is facing challenges from three newcomers.

Verona Jackson, wants to reclaim the seat her husband Ovid lost by a 26% margin.