The Late Wm. Little

There passed away in Owen Sound on Saturday of last week one of Grey County's oldest and most highly respected citizens in the person of William Little, following an illness of a little more than three months. Although he passed his 95th year this was the only illness in his long life of almost a century, he having been a man of robust health and one who enjoyed the great out-doors. His death was due to the infirmities of old age.

The late William Little was born in County Fermanagh, Ireland, and was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Johnston Little. He came to Canada with his parents and other members of the family when he was between 18 and 19 years of age, and they settled in Orange Valley, three miles north of Flesherton. The family was one of several pioneers who hewed their home out of the virgin forest, and their history is a repetition of that of others. They were all hardy people, and formed the foundation of many of the best families in the county of Grey. The family farmed in a number of places, but always lived in the township of Artemesia. Deceased moved to Owen Sound in 1868, and has been an honored resident of that city from that time until his death. He was much interested in the city and its development and in the 57 years in which he resided there saw many marked changes and witnessed the growth from a small place into a flourishing and busy city.

During the first 25 years of his life here was engaged in the milling business with the firm of John Harrison and Sons, and was one of the head men of the mill. During the last 30 years he lived a retired life at his home at 389 14th street west, where he passed away.

Deceased was a life long Methodist and was an ardent Conservative in his political belief. He was also an enthusiastic member of the Orange Order for a period of 75 years. He joined first L.O.L. No. 244, Artemesia, and at the time of his death was a member of L.O.L. No. 1102, Owen Sound. Two years ago when the Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario West met in Owen Sound he was honored by being made a life member. He always displayed a great interest in the affairs of the Orange Order. He was a member of St. George's Lodge No. 88, A.F. & A.M., and of Georgian Chapter, R.A.M. No. 56. He was a faithful attendant at the meetings of the Masonic lodges, and was for a number of years Scribe E. of the Chapter. He was a veteran of the Fenian Raid of 1866, and took an interest in military matters generally.

He was married 70 years ago to Miss Elizabeth Moore of Artemesia, who predeceased him 24 years ago. He was the last of a family of seven children, of which he was the only son. He was the father of eleven children of whom there are but four surviving, Johnston Little and Dr. Arthur E. Little of Owen Sound; William G. Little, Toronto, and Dr. H. M. Little of Niagara Falls, Ont.

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon under Masonic auspices at 3 o'clock and interment was made in Greenwood cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Myers Fifty Years Married

Mr. and Mrs. George Myers of town celebrated their fifty years of married life on Tuesday of this week. As Mrs. Myers' health has been very poor for some years, and being bedridden for about two years, she was too weak to receive many of her friends at once. St. John's church sent flowers and Mr. and Mrs. Alexander of Feversham gave beautiful golden mums, suggestive of the occasion. The Reeve and a few friends met and, on behalf of the older residents of the village, presented Mr. Myers with an easy chair, and Mrs. Myers with a purse. Gold was given by their sons, Will and Sheldon. Mr. Myers very feelingly thanked all who had contributed and also for the sympathy which the gifts expressed. Mrs. Myers, in her weak voice, expressed her thanks for the kindness which prompted the gift and was surprised that any one outside her own family remembered the ceremony of fifty years ago.

HAY—MacDONALD

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the Manse in Toronto on Friday, November 20th, when Jessie Viala, third eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John MacDonald, Ceylon, Ont., became the bride of William Gimmell, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Hay, Toronto, Rev. D. L. McKenoll officiating.

The bride looked pretty in a gown of sand satin-faced canton with hat and shoes to match and was attended by her eldest sister, Kathleen, who wore peach georgette with black picture hat. Both carried bouquets of orchid roses and maiden hair fern. The groom was supported by his eldest brother, Alex. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a gold bar pin set with amethyst and to the best man a pair fo white gold cuff links. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents, which was decorated with yellow and mauve chrysanthemums. The happy couple left next morning by motor for a short honeymoon in Batavia, Buffalo and Rochester. On their return they will reside in Toronto.
