

Volunteer of the Year

Community Living of Wiarion last week named its Volunteer of the Year and awarded the distinction to the Bruce Peninsula Sportsmens Association. The club has been involved with Community Living for a number of years and each year, hosts a fishing day at its club. Accepting the award on behalf of the Sportsmen was Don Elliott. L-r, Libby Ipsen from Community Living, MPP Bill Muroch, Don Elliott, and Rev. Ed Laksmanis.

Home Hardware founder and president Walter Hachborn, shown here at left, visited Wiarion last week and presented a golden hammer to Anne and Chris Stabenow. The award was given in honour of the late Don Stabenow (inset), who passed away recently but had spent 50 years in the hardware business.
