LADY BANK

A happy New Year to all.

We have had some real zero weather lately.

A most enjoyable evening was had at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tyler, on Monday night last, when a large number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Torrence Williams, nee Florence Tyler. The young couple received many useful and dainty gifts, accompanied by the good wishes of all for a long journey and a happy one, through life.

Miss Adell Roberts spent the Xmas holiday at her parental home here, returning to West Toronto, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ottewell spent the Christmas holiday with Mr. and Mrs. Philip Ottewell eighth line, Osprey.

"ONWARD" NEWS

Make your New Year's Resolutions now, and hold to them for a least a month or two anyway.

Mr. and Mrs. D. McKinnon, also Mrs. A .Currie spent Christmas with the latter's parents at Mount Forest.

Mr. and Mrs. John Williamson, and family spent Christmas with Mrs. J Hardy at Swinton Park.

The O. D. R. school concert was all that could be expected, and a little more. The lengthy but highly entertaining programme was enjoyed and continuously applauded by the audience. McMillan Bros. and A. McInnis' orchestra were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Storey and family of Toronto, also other South Line friends, spent Christmas at Jas. Turner's.

Mr. Hugh Watters and family, spent Christmas at J. McKechnie's.

Misses Emma Oliver and Mabelle Parslow, also Alfred Hincks of Toronto Normal, are spending the Yuletide holidays at their parental domiciles.

"Onward" U. F. Y. P. O. went down to defeat recently in the first debate of the league series to the "Superior" club of Bunessan. Although the affirmative was strongly upheld by the Onwards Miss Kate McMillan and Mr. Elford Watters, the judge deemed their defense a trifle weak for the opposing "Superiors", giving them the decision by a slight margin. The subject of the debate was, "Resolved that township school boards would be better than the present system of school trustees." Negative Debaters were Miss. W. Binnie and Mr. P. McMillan. We wish "Superior" and also Springhill, U. F. Y. P. O.'s a prosperous year in 1926.

If our neighbors had as few faults as ourselves, what a pleasant world this would be to live in.

PRICEVILLE

The Christmas holidays brought a large number of visitors to the different homes. When we think of the home councils of loved ones and the friends at this festive season we naturally think of the joy and happiness and this exists in most of the homes, but in some there is also much sickness and death. Just this morning we learn that Mrs. John Burnett of the South Line, Artemesia has passed away after a long suffering from illness. The funeral will be on Thursday to McKechnie's cemetery. Next week we will extend our sympathy to the sorrowing husband and family.

Mr. John McKinnon of Egremont son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Donald McKinnon, died on Thursday of last week after a few days illness with pneumonia at the age of twenty-seven years. He leaves to mourn his death a brother Donald, and a sister Mrs. Colin Kennedy of Durham. The funeral took place on Saturday to the Priceville cemetery, Rev. Mr. Sutherland conducting the funeral service.

Mr. D. G. McLean has been confined to his bed for the last week, suffering from an attack of sciatica and a very severe cold.
