Supplement to The Flesherton Advance

Traverston

There have been scores of family reunions and visiting of kindred during the holiday week. Regret we have only a limited list of those, but the following were some of them: Mr. and Mrs. Homer Tuck, Misses Bessie and Iona Beaton of Toronto at the home of John A. Beaton; Messrs. Lauchie, Philip and Walter Dunbar from Detroit at the Dunbar home; Rob Peart and Keith Edwards of Detroit at their parental homes; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lawrence of Egremont at the Davis homestead; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Harriston of Swinton Park at the Nelson home; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Mays and bright twin daughters, Misses Elsie and Isobel, of Guelph, at Grandma Firth's; Miss Violet Fallaise and her neice, Marion Pink, of Toronto, at the old Fallaise home; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Twamly and Mr. and Mrs. Will Campbell and two boys of Wellbeck at the home of Mr. Chas. McClocklin; Mr. and Mrs. T. Ivan Edwards, Toronto, at the Edwards home.

At the close of No. 5 school last Tuesday, Miss R. L. Barbour had a splendid Christmas treat for all her pupils.

Miss E. J. Allan of Chesley was present for the Christmas concert and met many of her former friends.

Among those feasting out of the neighborhood were: Mr. and Mrs. H. McArthur at Mr. John McNally's, Durham; Mrs. John O. Greenwood and family at Mr. C. McIntyre's, Dornoch.

Quite a crowd were present at the Township Hall on Monday for the nominations. The following were nominated: For Reeve, Messrs. W. Weir, A. MacCuaig and R. T. Edwards; for Councillors, Messrs. Alex. Aljoe, J. McKechnie, Mal. Black, Thos. Brodie and Chas. Weppler. All the above spoke besides Messrs. John McGrath, John O'Neil, David Robinson and John McGirr. There were no dull moments, in fact. it was one of the liveliest meetings we've had for years. Mr. MacCuaig and your scribe withdrew at the close of the meeting, leaving Reeve Weir elected and later on the supporters of Mr. Chas. Weppler withdrew their man, not wishing to cause an election, hence, the old council are all safe for another year.

Old Zion was filled on Christmas eve to overflowing with a happy crowd. Rev. J. E. Peters most ably filled the chair. The program was a bright, lively one and Miss Barbour received many warm compliments over the part taken by the school children. Among those who took part were: Juanita Noble, Elvie Hastie, Gordon Greenwood, Gordon Noble, Clara Jack, Willie Peart, Geordie Blair, Ada Banks, Catherine Timmins and Mary McNab in recitals; Vera Robbins and Catherine Timmins in deft club swinging; Iona Noble splendidly acted the pantomine, "Comin' Thro' the Rye." Mr. and Mrs. McNally and Jim Peart supplied the sweetest of music. Mrs. Noble and Miss Edith Teeter very sweetly sang an old favorite; the young people a rousing chorus, and the four dialogues were rousers. Santa Claus had a big task at the close. Proceeds $39.00.

A very interesting program was given in the school on Tuesday afternoon, December 22, by the school children under the supervision of the teacher. A number of interested parents and friends were present and enjoyed the program of choruses, recitations, dialogues, etc. Master Jack Bradey discharged the duties of chairman very creditably. At the close of the program Santa Claus in the person of Wilbert Wyville appeared on the scene and distributed the presents from the tree, during which a merry time was spent. All present enjoyed the treats provided, as well as a tasty lunch. A delightful hour was spent in various games. The teacher, Miss Lawson, and the pupils are to be congratulated on the success of the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hodgson and family spent Christmas, the guests of Mrs. W. P. Stephenson and family of Markdale.

We extend our sincerest sympathy to Mrs. Wes. Johnston, upon the death of her father, Mr. Sheriff, of Wingham.

The annual Christmas Tree of Harkaway Sunday School was held on Wednesday, December 16, at the church. There was a very large crowd present. Rev. A. Bushell made a very capable chairman. The concert opened with a chorus by the school. Recitations were well and acceptably given by Leona Johnson, Velma Wells, Jean Lawson, Harold Thompson, Wallace Wells, Jean Rae, Isabel Graham, Leslie Hawken, Mary Hawken, Ina Thompson, Mabel Wyce and Marjorie Murdoch. A solo was sweetly rendered by little Miss Jane Dickie. Misses Mina and Wilma Dickie sang very acceptably a pretty duet. The dialogue, "Just like a Woman," provoked much merriment and was thoroughly enjoyed. The parts were ably taken by Mrs. Will Halbert, Misses Violet Moore, Muriel Murdoch and Messrs. Bob Murdoch, Ed. Edmonds and Perry Lawson. Another dialogue, "Vice Versa," proved to be very humorous and was well acted by Messrs. Arthur Murdoch, Eugene Thompson and Willie Stoddart, and Misses Freda Binns, Mabel Wyce, Mary Hawken, Ina Thompson and Gladys Graham. Miss Juell Binns rendered a very pretty solo, accompanied on the autoharp. She was heartily encored and responded with a very comical selection. Miss M. Johnson's class of little tots went through a pretty little drill reflecting credit on themselves and their teacher. At the close of their drill they sang "Jingle Bells." Miss O. Lawson's class of Intermediate girls presented a very pleasing motion drill, at the close of which they sang "O! Susannah." They responded to an encore. The school sang as a closing chorus "The First Nowell." Accompanists for the evening were Mrs. Binns, Misses Ina Acheson and Olga Lawson. Santa Claus was ably impersonated by Mr. H. Porter. The Sunday School Officers wish to thank all who took part in training the children, and in the concert, making for a very successful evening's entertainment. Proceeds amounted to over $29.

The pupils of Miss Moore's School and Miss Smith's united in putting on a splendid concert and Christmas Tree in Harkaway school on Monday, December 21. The school was beautifully decorated for the occasion and a good program of music, dialogues and readings was presented. Proceeds amounted to over $28.

Miss R. Stewart and pupils of Harkaway South claimed Tuesday evening, December 22, for their Christmas Concert. The school appeared very Christmassy and a very enjoyable evening is reported by all. Proceeds amounted to over $17.

Miss M. Passmore left on Thursday morning to spend Christmas at her home in Brussels.

Miss Alice Fee of the Owen Sound General and Marine Hospital, spent Christmas at her home here.

The annual Sunday School Christmas Entertainment held on Wednesday eve., December 23rd, was well attended and was a very successful and enjoyable affair. Rev. A. Bushell proved his worth as a chairman. A splendid, varied program was presented as given below. Three choruses by the Sunday School children were much enjoyed. A quartette entitled "Hurry up Mr. Clock" was given by Isobella McMullen, Evelyn Hampton, Betty Jackson and Evelyn Harper, also a duet, "Jolly Old Saint Nicholas," by Evelyn Hampton and Betty Jackson. Recitations by Macklin Gordon, Jean Bushell, Lina Erwin, Billie Jackson, Lilian Fee, Roy Weiler, Doris Fee, Audrey Weiler, Laura Fee and Stanley Weiler, Evelyn Hampton, Nelson McMullen, Enid Bull and Leonard Hampton were enjoyed very much. An amusing number was a "Minstrel Show" by eight girls, which won much applause. Two dialogues were well presented, the "Woman's Rights" claiming Evelyn Hampton, Bert Bushell and Joe Fee, and the other one was given by a number of the older members of the Sunday School. A Christmas drill was presented by some of the boys of the School under the leadership of Miss Passmore. Musical numbers were supplied by the orchestra. A tableaux was given by the girls of the Golden Link's Class, after which Santa Claus appeared in high spirits and with his helpers made the small folk happy with bags of candy and other pretty gifts from the tree. The proceeds amounted to almost twenty-eight dollars.
