The Canadian Champion
MILTON, July 18, 1912.

Action in the matter of arranging for the extension of Court Street and the construction of a subway at its crossing of the C. P. R. would be appreciated. Without the subway and safe communication between the Bousfield survey and the rest of the town there will be no sales of lots nor dwellings built in that part of town, there will be little abatement of the house famine, our industries will be prevented from engaging the desired married employees or increasing their output. Until there is greatly increased house accommodation we can secure no new industries. We want that subway to be under construction very soon, that there may be time for the building of the dwellings before winter sets in.

The British North American Act makes a redistribution of seats compulsory during the next session of parliament and requires that the census figures be followed. The change will be that while Canada east of Port Arthur will, if the national constitution be followed, lose sixteen seats, the four western provinces will gain sixteen. The losses will be—Prince Edward Island, one; New Brunswick, two; Nova Scotia, five, and Ontario, eight. Quebec will retain her thirty per cent. of the total seats in parliament. Ontario will drop from thirty-nine to thirty-five per cent. The three prairie provinces, whose interests are identical, will rise from twenty-seven to thirty-nine members, or from twelve per cent. of the total to eighteen per cent. After redistribution the comparative power of the various sections of the country will be seen in the following table, in which the first column shows the present relative power and the second column the new relative power:

	Per cent.
Maritime Province	15	11
Quebec	30	30
Ontario	39	35
Prairie Provinces	12	18
British Columbia	3	5
Yukon and North-West	1	1

The Oil Field.

Last Thursday morning, after two barrels of oil had been pumped out of the second hole at the original Brandon well the flow stopped, the pump having been choked by, it was said, paraffine. A quantity of salt and water was put in and the result was nine and one-third barrels in the afternoon. However, the well has not yet been pumped out and its capacity is not known.

On Tuesday, at a depth of a little over 600 feet, a heavy flow of gas was struck in the red medina in the second well, a little to the south of the first. This is considered a good indication. Though such good progress has been made in this well, the last to be drilled, it has been slow in that on the Scott farm. The cause was a large body of gravel, which was hard to penetrate, and which often broke loose and fell into the hole, stopping the drill. The depth of the hole is only a little over 100 feet, but the drill has got through the gravel and is making good time.

In the well on the Milton Pressed Brick Co.'s property a depth of about 1500 feet has been reached, but so far, there is no oil.

Saskatchewan Still Stands for Reciprocity.

The general provincial election held in Saskatchewan on Thursday has once more made reciprocity the outstanding and dominating feature in Canadian politics because, although the contest was a Provincial one, Reciprocity was the great question under discussion. In fact, this and Ottawa interference in a Provincial affair, were practically the only matters discussed. While purely Provincial topics were brought up early in the campaign, these were entirely obscured before polling by the concentration of popular interest on the problem of wider markets.

And the result was an emphatic declaration of belief that Saskatchewan needs wider markets and that Reciprocity affords the way to this end. In the late Legislature with 41 seats, the Scott Government held 27 seats against 14 for the Opposition. In the contest just closed, with 51 seats to be filled, and with polling for two of these deferred, the Government carried 44 to 8 for the Conservative Opposition. It is naturally expected that the two deferred elections will go with the Government, thus making its total strength 46.

From the Old Land.

London, England,
July 1st, 1912.

Editor Champion

Leaving Montreal at 6.30 a.m. June 21st, we reached Quebec at 1 p.m., a run of nine and a-half hours, where we stopped to take on European mail.

Here more passengers boarded for Europe, and here historic scenes spoke loudly. Wolfe, the captor of our country from England's historic enemy, old France, stirred up patriotic thoughts. A lady presented flowers gathered on the Plains of Abraham. I hope in this sympathetic design wrath has been placated and love has removed the sting of events on that historic battlefield, where the ebb and flow of grim victory hung in the balance, even in the very death throes of the two great generals, Montcalm and Wolfe.

Yet other memories beckon to the observer. A great steel placard is riveted on the face of the cliff, the inscription says, "Here stood the undaunted fifty Canadians fighting the American army of invasion and killing Montgomery, their general, on the last day of 1775 and routing the enemy from our country." Such valorous deeds strengthen our patriotism. Yet let us hope they may never recur.

Now we leave for the long voyage of 2841 miles to Liverpool. At least 15 Catholic priests, 6 or more Anglican ministers, 6 or more Methodist ministers, 38 Mormons, 22 of whom were going as permanent missionaries for 3 to 5 years, bearing their own expenses, zealous to preach and teach the gospel of Joseph Smith and Brigham Young, the founders of their faith. Three masses and one Anglican service were held on Sunday.

Professor Lees, of Lincoln University, had a party of 10 American tourists to see the British Isles, Europe, and back by way of the Mediteranean to New York.

Four icebergs appeared on Sunday and Monday, grim monsters in a calm sea, heedless of our approach. A wide birth was accorded by a wise captain. Our passengers were: 1st class 105, 2nd class 256, steerage 100, stewards and sailors 347; total, 809 persons. Except one burial at sea, all were landed safely.

Borden on the Navy.

Speaking at a banquet given by the Royal Colonial Institute in London, Premier Borden said that Canada does not propose to be merely an adjunct even of the British Empire. If any Great Dominion is to undertake to share on a permanent basis in the sea defence of the Empire, that Dominion must, he said, have some voice in the policy which shapes the issues of war or peace.

Premier Borden and other Canadian Ministers have been in conference with the British war authorities for some days. It is reported that Premier Borden put a series of questions in order to elucidate the real inwardness of the naval menace, and that he has become greatly impressed with the imminence of the German peril. The Canadian Ministers will, it is said, visit Paris shortly, presumably for the purpose of consulting with representatives of France, which is practically in alliance with Britain.

TO STRENGTHEN WEAK NERVES

The Blood Supply Must be Made Rich, Red and Pure.

When you build up the blood you strengthen the nerves, because the nerves get their food through the blood. You cannot reach the nerves with medicine, except through the blood—this is a great medical truth few people realize. Nervous people are pale people. They are nervous because they are pale. The blood is so thin and watery that it cannot nourish the nerves. Starved nerves mean sciatica, neuralgia, nervous prostration, paralysis.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are a real nerve tonic. They supply plenty of nourishing red blood to the exhausted nerves, thus enabling them to do the work nature intended they should do. This is the simple secret of the success of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in curing nerve troubles. As to their value in cases of sciatica, Mrs. Job Palmer, Fenelon Falls, Ont., says: "For seven weeks I suffered untold agony from sciatica. I tried everything to ease the pain, but it steadily grew worse. Liniments had no more effect upon the trouble than water. Then the doctor told me to apply a hot iron to the afflicted part and I did so morning after morning, but my leg had become so numb with the pain that I could hardly feel the heat of the iron. I never expected to be able to walk again, my leg was so drawn up. I had tried so many things that I had given up hope, yet at the urging of my brother I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. To my surprise in two weeks I was able to stand on my feet with but little pain, and soon after I was able to walk about again. I continued taking the Pills for about two months, but some time before I discontinued their use my leg had become normal again, and the agony of the trouble had disappeared, and I have not since had a twinge of it. Words fail to express my gratitude for what the Pills did for me and I must strongly recommend them to all sufferers from sciatica."

The every day mission of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is to cure cases like the above, and they will not disappoint if given a fair trial. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
