Wise sayings are only good when acted upon. Old saws cut no wood-piles.

The daylight is so brief these short days that a rooster has hardly time to crow and flap his wings a few times in the morning until it is time to go to roost.

You have noticed, of course, that those who oppose kissing on sanitary grounds do not appear to have better health than sensible people.

We had our January thaw early this year. Last year we did not get our usual thaw in January and there was a water famine.

Some people are so up-to-date that they will not read the Old Testament.

A man isn't old until he begins to talk about several winters he has known.

"Here lies the body," is all right, but "Here lies the epitaph" would be as true in more ways than one.

Telephone Rates at this Exchange

THE following table shows the principal rates now in effect for this exchange, and the new rates for which we are asking the approval of the Board of Railway Commissioners:—

	Present Monthly Rate	Proposed Monthly Rate	Monthly Increase
Business Service
Individual Line	$2.05	$2.50	.45
2-Party "	1.85	2.00	.15
Residence Service
Individual Line	$2.05	$2.05	.00
2-Party "	1.85	1.85	.00

It will be seen that in order to bring local teelphone rates into charges for residence service. The tendency is thus to encourage the line with our proposed new schedule, no change is necessary in the development of residence service.

Merchants and business men, while asked to pay a somewhat higher rate for business telephones will benefit in the enlargement of the scope and value of their service by the development of residence telephones.

We believe our patrons will agree that to maintain and extend a service vital to the welfare of the community far outweighs in importance the moderate increases a relatively small number of our citizens will be asked to pay.

John T. Miller is New Warden of Grey County

Mr. John Miller of Euphrasia was elected to the Wardenship of the county of Grey after a lively session. There were six candidates in all. Mr .Charles Holm of Normanby was the next in running, but was beaten by five or six votes. Mr Miller is a man of much experience in municipal affairs and the county should prosper almost as well as it did under the able direction of T. R. McKenzie, the retiring warden.

Mr. W. J. Meads was elected to the Chairmanship of the House of Refuge, he too having five opponents for the office. Mr. Meads, in his jocular manner, when communicated with over the telephone last night, said, "I will know where to find a home anyway." We extend our congratulation's to Flesherton's reeve in the honor which he received.

Phillipson—Smith

Profusions of flowers and foliage adorned the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smith, 475 8th street east, on Wednesday, January 20th, 1926, when their elder daughter, Bertha Mlidred, became the bride of Mr. George Arthur Phillipson, of Toronto, formerly of the local staff of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, and son of Mr. G. S. Phillipson of Palmerston. The ceremony took place at 12.30 o'clock p.m. Rev. P. T. Pilkey of Knox Church officiating in the presence of over forty relatives and intimate friends.

The bride and groom stood before a bank of ferns and palms, formed before the fireplace, the former being given in marriage by her father and looking radiantly lovely in a gown of French blue georgette with ruffles and oldtyme lace. She wore a bandeau of gold leaves in her hair, and carried a shower bouquet of valley lilies, orchids and roses, her effective costume being completed with champagne shade kid shoes. The only attendant was a litle flower girl, Phyllis Ferguson, who was frocked in white voile, with lace and ribbon trimming, a ribbon bandeau in her hair, and carrying a basket of roses and valley lilies. Miss Violet Hilloughby, in a becoming gown of fuschia shade georgette and Grecian lace, blonde shade satin hat and an old time nosegay, presided at the piano and rendered "Intermezzo" from "Cavalier Rusticana" Lohengrin's "Bridal Chorus" and "To a Wild Rose."

The wedding luncheon was served following the bestowing of congratulations and best wishes on the young couple. The bride's mother was wearing a handsome gown of black silk crepe with fissue of gold lace and a corsage bouquet of American beauty roses. The bride's sister, Miss Jean Smith, was prettily frocked in green crepe de chine and silver lace, and a bouquet of sweetheart roses. The groom's sister, Mrs. T. G. Nesbitt, of Palmerston, wore a becoming gown of sandalwood silk crepe, trimmed with cut velvet and a bouquet of roses and valley lilies. The out of town guests included two aunts of the bride, Mrs. W. E. White, of Toronto in coral silk crepe and gold lace and Mrs. D. McTavish of Flesherton in rosewood crepe de chine with white scarf.

The assistants during the luncheon hour were Miss Mamie McTavish of Flesherton in rust satin crepe with embroidered godets, Miss Bessie Stewart of Flesherton, in black satin with net frills, and Miss Wilda Glazier, in honeydew crepe de chine and lace. The table was beautifully done with lace cloth, rosebuds and pink candles, the wedding cake occupying the central place, adorned with pink tulle.

The bride and groom left on the C. P. R. train for a honeymoon trip to Detroit and other points, the former wearing a rosebud silk crepe de chine gown trimmed with grey fissu and band of brilliants, a smart hat of metallic cloth and French flowers patent shoes, grey gloves and hosiery and a handsome seal coat, the gift of her father. The many handsome gifts received included a purse of gold from the groom's father. Before her departure the bride threw her bouquet, which was caught by Miss Wilda Glazier, and later presented to an elderly lady, Mrs. Donnelly, at the expressed wish of the bride. Mr and Mrs. Phillippson will reside in Toronto. Paisley apartments, Beach avenue.

A Greater Canada

THE Bank of Toronto for more than seventy years (1855 to 1926) has been building on the conviction of a consistent growth in the Dominion of Canada and an increasing and abundant prosperity for her people. Today, as never before, this bank subscribes unreservedly to the doctrine of sound optimism in the destiny of the country, affirming that today there are more impressive signs of the coming tide of prosperity than at any period since the war.

The Bank of Toronto seeks to serve the people of Canada with the same spirit that actuated those pioneer bankers who founded this institution even before Canada became a Dominion.
