Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McDonald spent a few days in Owen Sound this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Whyte, gave a party on Wednesday night of last week in honour of their cousin, Mr. John McKechnie. Those present enjoyed the evening very much.

The play given in McKinnon Hall on Wednesday evening of last week by Bunessan Young People, under the auspices of thhe Presbyterian Guild, was attended by a large and appreciative audience. The play, "An Irish Stew," was very humorous and was splendidly presented. Instrumental music by Messrs T. and L. McKewon and D. McArthur, songs by the three McKinnon sisters, S. L. Glenelg and the two McEachern sisters, dialogue by Miss Kathleen and Master Angus McPhail, rounded out a nice program and evening's entertainment, which was followed by lunch. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered those who came out over bad roads and through the storm to put on the play and take part in the programme. Proceeds amounted to $34.00.

FEVERSHAM

The weather has moderated somewhat again from last week, when the high winds were here, and mercury hovered around 25 below.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Russell and family of Wareham visited with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tyler on the 12th line recently.

Mr. R. Buckingham of Admiral, Saskatchewan, is visiting friends in this locality at present.

Miss Lily Ottewell has returned home, after spending two weeks with her uncle and aunt, Mrs. Fred Brackenbury at Flesherton.

Mr. John Black has gone to see his father in Toronto who is not expected to live.

Sorry to report that Mr. Alex Ferguson is under the doctor's care at present. All hope he will soon be well again.

If only a week of dieting would make you as lean as you feel inside.

The Heroism of Emily Sharpe

A fifteen-year-old girl and unheard of and unknown in the great world outside her home and its environments, perished near Listowel under crciumstances which write her name upon the scroll of Canada's heroic dead. She gave her life to save others. She dashed back into a burning home to rescue little brothers of two and four years old. One of the saddest tragedies of the new years is illumined by an act of self-sacrifice inspired by one of the most beautiful human emotions-- family love.

"Cohen, I've lost my pocketbook." "Have you looked in your pocket?" "Sure! all but der left-hand hip pocket." "Vell, vy don't you look in dot." "Because if it ain't dere I'll drop dead.

IN MEMORIAM

THOMPSON — In loving memory of Jake Thompson who passed away three years ago to-day, Feb. 2nd.

Three years ago to-day, dear Jake,
Since you were called away,
How well I do remember
That sad and dreary day.
Peaceful be thy rest dear Jake,
'Tis sweet to breathe thy name,
In life I loved you ever,
In death I do the same.
In my heart your memory lingers,
Sweet, tender fond and true
There is not a day dear Jake
That I do not think of you.

Worthy of true respect was he,
Worthy of rtlue respect was he,
From all he left behnd,
A better husband never lived,
Nor one more true and kind.
In the lonely hours of the night,
When sleep forsake our eyes,
Our thoughts are in a silent grave,
Where our dear father lies.
God's own star, watch o'er the grave,
Of one we loved, but could not save.
God called him home, it was His will,
But in our hearts, he liveth still.

Sadly missed by his wife, Sarah Thompson, daughters, sons and sisters, and brothers.

MR. GEORGE MELDRUM FOUND DEAD AT HIS HOME

This village was greatly shocked on Thursday, about 1 p.m., when it was learned that Mr. George Meldrum who lived alone, was dead in his chair, found by Mr. Sandy McFadden, who had been in the habit of going in every day to attend to his wants. Mr. McFadden had been in on Wednesday about eleven o'clock, leaving plenty of water and wood. Mr. Meldrum said he had everything he need ed, and would be all right. He went over Thursday about 1 p.m., but could not get the storm door open being clasped on the inside. Thinking perhaps he was ill and could not answer him, he forced the door open, and on entering, found him sitting dead in the big chair he was accustomed to sit in by the side of the stove. Mr. McFadden immediately notified Constable Cook, who called Dr. Bibby, corner of Flesherton, who came at once to the scene and pronunced death due from heart failure. Evidently he had not gone t bed Wednesday night as his bed had not been slept in, nor the lamps had not been lit.

Mr. Meldrum was in his 67th year, and was born in Artemesia. He lived on his farm at Eugenia till he sold it to the Hydro people, and purchased a farm from Mr. W. Hill on the 4th about eleven years ago, selling it recently to Mr. Geo. Fisher. He purchased the residence in town to which he moved about the 2nd week in December. His father passed away about 25 years ago, and his mother who lived with him on his farm, on "Stone Line," died eight years ago.

He leaves to mourn his loss four sisters, Mrs. Pedlar, n the 4th, Mrs. McKee, Eugenia, Mrs. LeGard, Toronto and Mrs. Ben Madill of Glenside, Sask, and three brothers, Robert of Portlaw, and Jack and Sandy in Colorada. The funeral took place on Monday to Salem cemetery. Rev. Mr. Harrower of Flesherton, had the service. Much sympathy is extended the sorrowing relatives.

Those from a distance attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Fred LeGard, Toronto, and Mr. H. Corbett of Proton.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Walker of Eugenia visited at Mr. S. Hemphill's the first of the week.

COLUMBA CHURCH SOCIETIES

The regular meeting of the W.M.S. and Ladies' Aid of St. Columba United Church, Priceville, was held at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Mather on Wednesday, January 20th. The program was given by the W.M.S. with Mrs. MacCormack in the chair. Mrs. L. MacArthur gave a very excellent paper on worry. "Every cloud has a silver lining, but we cannot have the silver lining without the cloud. A further discussion of "Prayer" followed, which was very ably dealt with by Mrs. F. Karstedt and Mrs. Hazard. Miss Grace Ramage and sister, Mrs. S. Williams, gave a much appreciated duet. The Ladies' Aid held a short business meeting. Miss Martha Watson, who was appointed president at the last meeting, resigned, and Mrs. L. MacArthur was appointed in her place. A goodly number were present to enjoy the most excellent program and partake of the dainty lunch served by Mrs. Mather and daughter.

An appeal to the people is practically certain to be made in June, by the Ontario Provincial Government, and the platform will be government Control of the sale of intoxicating beverages.
