Mrs. John Galloway

Following an illness of some months' duration, borne with remarkable fortitude, the death took place in Toronto, on January 4th, 1926, of Mrs. John Galloway (Mary Francis LeGard). Mrs. Galloway was born on the old farm 1½ miles from Flesherton, known as LeGard's corners, 50 years ago, and at the age of 4 years, with her twin sistr, Alice Ida (now Mrs. William Poulter of Toronto), recited at the Flesherton Methodist Sunday School anniversary, which so favorably impressed the audience that the late Dr. Christoe prevailed upon them to repeat the recitation. For many years after, the twins braved the storms and bad roads two or three times a week in order to become proficient and do their share to make a success of the aninversary which was one of "the" times in those days.

Mrs. Galloway was the daughter of Joseph LeGard, who died 32 years ago this month, and Mrs. Lucy LeGard, now of Toronto, who is 87 years of age.

So much alike in looks and appearance were the twins, that their father, and many others, besides the late Will Irwin, their school teacher, late proprietor of the Durham Chronicle, could never distinguish one from the other, and many innocent pranks were played by the twins in order to humor their friends.

Mrs. Galloway is survived by her husband and one daughter and three sons, all of whom have the sincere sympathy of her old home town residents.

INFERIORITY COMPLEX ALLEGED OF CANADIANS

Gentle criticism of an alleged Canadian inferiority complex was made by Dr. Henry Marshall, director of the National Research Council, before the New York Canadian Club here on Saturday.

"We are always," said Dr. Troy, "making comparisons with the United States to our own disadvantage. These comparisons have given to young Canadians a sort of feeling that their own country is not quite the equivalent of other countries. I don't like to use the term "inferiority complex," but that is what they have. It is a kind of looking toward this country which is not wholesome Canadians, Dr. Troy thought, should see Canada as a young, aspiring nation, and make comparisons with other nations in the same stage of development.

HARD ON MISS MACPHAIL

Miss Agnes Macphail turned up in time one night last week to save the Government. Five Progressives voted against it on a motion to adjourn but Miss Macphail was not one of them. The Conservative section of South Grey should make a note of this. Miss Macphail has professed the greatest admiration for Mr. Meighen, and something like scorn for King, but when it comes to a division, she shows her true colors. She is a Grit by heredity and may always be depended upon to vote that way in an emergency. If she ever votes Tory it will be on some occasion when the Government is safe without her vote.—Bruce Herald & Times.

A meeting of the Directors of the East Grey Agricultural Society was held in Flesherton on Monday afternoon when the nominating committee brought in their report of the standing committees for 1926. A discussion took place with respect to the enlarging of the membership of the fair and the holding of a ticket contest, but the matter was laid over until the next meeting. It was decided to hold a skating carnival in the rink during the first week in March, and further announcements will be made later. During the carnival the lady directors of the society will have charge of the lunch room, and all ladies interested in the welfare of the society to assist with baking, particulars of which will be given in next week's paper.

The Good Old Days

Say, can you remember when—farmers raised more whiskers than wheat; when doctors wore plug hats and gave the same pill for everything; when people wore red flannel underwear in hot dance halls without the aid of perfume; when girls had to wait until a fellow learned a trade before he'd propose; when folks fitted themselves with spectacles out of a basket at the grocery; when side whiskers caught the girls; when we had to wait 'till the middle of June for lettuce; when preachers had to dress as if they were "laid out" to hold their job; when a woman wouldn't climb into a buggy if anybody was looking, when belonging to the band was about as high as you could get unless you wanted to work in the livery stable, or some place. and await your turn to be postmaster. And they sigh for the "good old days."—Bruce Herald & Times.

6 Year Newton McGeoch Struck and Killed by Car

Newton McGeoch, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy McGeoch of 805 Central Avenue, London, died in Victoria Hospital, Monday afternoon of injuries sustained when he was struck and run over by a light delivery truck in front of Lorne Avenue public school Harley Pugh, of 257 Simcoe street, driver of the truck owned by Cohoon & Patterson, was arrested on a charge of criminal negligence, and was subsequently released on $500. An inquest was ordered by Coroner Robert Ferguson, after consultation with Crown Attorney A. M. Judd. The little boy left the school a few minutes after 12 o'clock and was somewhat later than his classmates. Two little girls told the Principal that the child ran first to the opposite side of the street and almost immediately ran back again in the path of the auto. The front wheels crossed his abdomen. He was rushed to the hospital in the police ambulance, but died a few minutes after admittance.

Newton was a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Fisher of town, and was often a visitor with his mother, Mrs. McGeoch being formery Miss Edna Fisher. The child was an exceptionally bright litttle fellow, and the many friends of the parents extend their sympathy in this severe blow they have received. Mr. Thos Fisher, and Mrs. H. Paton of the 4th line left Tuesday morning for London.

Debates to Be Held In Grey Presbytery

The Grey Presbytery Young Peoples' League are taking over the work in connection with the debating series of the Owen Sound District Young Peoples' League, and are making a county affair of the competition. This end of the district is under the direction of Mr. Howard Graham, and he has the entries of Markdale, Flesherton, Kimberley and Dundalk in his hands.

The subject for the first round is, "Resolved that the church, rather than the state, should be responsible for the moral welfare of the immigrant."

Inistioge meets Markdale on that subject, the debate taking place in Flesherton, while Dundalk and Flesherton argue at Inistioge, with Flesherton supporting the affirmative. The dates are to be announced later, but will be the last week in February or early in March.

A new challenge trophy is to be placed for competition, and the winner will be the trustee for on year.

Miss Mildred Caswell and Mr. Geo. Akins, last years winners are the Flesherton team, and will try and repeat the success of last year.
