It may be all right to kick a man when he's down if that is the only way to get him up again.

ROCK MILLS

Sorry a mistake was made in February 10th issue, the National Anthem should have read Peace Anthem. Hope this is satisfactory to our name less -Cooperative supporter, and also The Osprey Royal Scarlet. Our name less Co-operative supporter states he would appreciate the editor procuring for him a copy of this suprise ticket as he calls it. Probably not such a surprise after all for it is a beautiful anthem, and one I am indeed proud of, and it isn't "We Have No Beer to-day" either. Is that the nearest comparison to the National Anthem that you could think of, if so I am very sorry to have our beautiful National Anthem compared with such. I will gladly submit the Anthem below. It is sung to the tune of the National Anthem.

God of the Nations wide,
Far flung on every side,
May peace prevail.
Ruler of land and sea
Guiding man's destiny,
Oh! hear our prayer to thee,
May peace prevail.

The play which was put on by the Osprey U. F. Y. P. O.e under the auspices of Unity U. F. W. O. in the Orange Hall, Eugenia, on Friday night last was a decided success, and although the early part of the night was very stormy, a good crowd was out, and the proceeds amounted to $28.80. Others who took part in the programme were, Misses Loreen and Eunice Gorden, and Miss Irene Walker, Master Victor Campbell, and Mr. W.T. Pedlar.

MARRIED

Watson — McArthur — In Toronto, Monday, February 15, 1926, at 42 Admiral Road, by the Rev. Stuart C. Parker, Mary Isabell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McArthur, to Wilfred Melville Watson, both of Priceville.

IN MEMORIAM

TURNER—In sad and loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. Oliver Turner, who entered into eternal rest February 25th, 1925.

Deep in our hearts lies a picture,
Of a loved one gone to rest;
In memory's frame we will keep it,
Because she was one of the best.
Lips canot speak how we loved her.
Our hearts canont think what to say,
God only knows how we miss her,
As we journey along life's rough way.
Lovingly remembered, Husband, son and daughter.

IN MEMORIAM

TURNER — In sad and loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, Janie, (Mrs. Oliver Turner,) who passed away on February 25th, 1925.

In the clear morning of that other country in paradise,
With the same face that we have loved and cherished,
She shall arise!
Let us be patient, we who mourn with weeping some vanished face
The Lord has taken, but to add more beauty and diviner grace.

Think of us, dearest one, while o'er life's waters
We seek the land,
Missing thy voice, thy touch, and the true helping,
Of thy pure hand,
Till, through the storm and tempest, safely anchored
On the other side,
We find thy dear face looking thro' death's shadows,
Not changed but glorified.
Sadly missed by Father, Mother, sisters and brother.

AUDITORS' REPORT TO THE SHAREHOLDERS

We have examined the books and accounts of The Standard Bank of Canada at its Head Office for the year ended January 30th, 1926, and have been furnished with certified returns from the branches. We have obtained all the information and explanations we have required, and in our opinion all transactions of the Bank which have come under our notice have been within the powers of the Bank.

The Bank's investments and cash on hand at its chief office and certain of its principal branches were verified by us as at January 30th, 1926.

We certify that, in our opinion, the above general statement of Liabilities and Assets at January 30th, 1926, discloses the true condition of the Bank, and is in accordance with the books of the Bank.
