Premier Chas. Dunning of Saskatchewan has been secured by the MacKenzie King administration to enter Dominion politics with the appointment of Minister of Railways and Canals, to succeed Hon. Geo P. Graham, who is retiring after his defeat at the polls last October. The new minister is a rising man, and only a few years ago came out from England as an immigrant. He entered politics in Saskatchewan in 1921 and rose rapidly to be chief of the province. His career will be watched with interest.

GAVE THE KIDS A REAL SURPRISE

When a select group of young lads in their early teens hied themselves to the "Club House," an old stable behind Johnston & Brown's garage, on Tuesday night, they found Chief Clarke installed as a reception committee of one.

The Chief had received complaint that the place was being used as a rendezvous, and was waiting when the kids arrived. One of them had a flash light, and when he saw the uniform he fled in disorder, but the Chief nabbed the other two, and took them to the hoose-gaw where they discussed the matter.

It appears as though the ringleader was the holder of the flashlight. He claimed a short time ago to have "found" the articles stolen from Johnson and Brown's garage and returned them to the owners.

There were cigarette stubs and cards in the old barn. — Meaford Mirror.

[A reader says: "That's no new thing. We were caught doing the same things ourselves a few years ago. Why can't the younger generation think up something new to do?"]

Commenting on the frequently heard statement that girls go hungry to buy clothes, we ask, why don't they buy clothes, then?

Letters From Our - Subscribers -

Editor of the Advance:

Dear Sir;

In your issue of February 17th, there were two letters, one from a "Supporter of Co-operation," and another one from the "Osprey Royal Scarlet," regarding the closing song that was used by the Unity U. F. W. O., whose report appeared in the Rock Mills items of February 10th. Now the item referred to read as follows, "The meeting closed with the New National Anthhem." It should have read, "the meeting closed with The Peace Anthem," the words of which are

"God of the nations wide,
Far flung on every side
May peace prevail.
Ruler of land and sea,
Guiding man's destiny,
Oh! hear our prayer to thee
May peace prevail."

I feel that had both the "Supporter of Co-Operation," and the Osprey Royal Scarlet," brought into action some of their better impulses, and made enquiry of some of the members that were present,as to what the closing song was; there would have been no need of resorting to ridicule, nor yet to feel that they had to stand on guard. The United Farm Women do not know of any New National Anthem, let alone use one. In spirit we are "True Blues." Surely after the past war, which shall never vanish from the minds of all true Canadians, might it not well be the prayer of every loyal Canadian. " May Peace Prevail."—Mrs. E. C. PEDLAR, U. F. W. O., Riding Director.

NEWSPAPER LAW

1. A postmaster is required to give notice by letter (returning the paper does not answer the laws) when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office and state the reason for its not being taken. Any neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publisher for payment.

2. If any person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrears or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and colelct the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until payment is made.

3. Any person who takes a paper from the Post Office, whether directed to his name or not is responsible for pay.

4. If a subscriber orders his paper stopped at a certain time and the publisher continues to send, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it out of the Post Office. This follows the sound principle, that a man must pay for what he uses.

During the week the British pound sterling rose on the foreign exchange market to $4.86½, the highest point touched since the war, The result is very gratifying and shows that British finances invariably come back to their own.
