Quite a number attended the funeral of Mrs. George Sayres at Feversham.

PRICEVILLE UNITED W.M.S.

The W. M. S. of St. Columba church Priceville, met on Wednesday, March 10th, at the Manse. Mrs. Robt. Parslow, the vice-president was in the chair.

Two delegates, Mrs. R. Parslow, and Mrs. (Rev.) McCormack were appointed to attend the Presbyterial to meet in Orangeville on March 23rd On learning that there was a deficit in the misisonary budget for this presbyterial, the members decided to make an offering towards this fund, contribution to be made not later than Sunday, March 21st.

The topic for this month was "Prayer and the Missionaries," and was taken by Mrs. E. Mather, and Mrs. D. G. McLean.

At the close of the meeting, a social hour was spent, while lunch was served and this brought to a close a very pleasant afternoon.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our wife and mother, Elizabeth Sayers.

HUSBAND AND DAUGHTERS

The late W. J. Bryan left an estate of $600,000. Bryan was known as the Great Commoner, but his estate shows he was an uncommoner.

ROB ROY FRIENDS FAREWELL

On Thursday evening, March 15th, a large number of friends and neighbors met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Angus McLeod to bid farewell to them before they move from their home at Rob Roy, to Maxwell. They have lived at Rob Roy for fourteen years and are very highly valued in the neighborhood.. Their loss will be greatly felt by the neighbors as well as by all in the community who were acquainted with them. A very enjoyable time was spent in games, cards and dancing. During the evening an address was read by Miss R. E. Love to the family who were presented with a handsome wicker set consisting of a wicker rocker, arm chair and flower stand.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of William Brewster, who died Nov. 22nd 1924.

We loved him, yes we loved him
But Jesus loved him more,
And he gently called him
To yonder shining shore.
The golden gates were open,
And a gentle voice said come;
And with farewell unspoken,
He gently entered home.

—His niece, Mrs. Jas Ottewell

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Margaret Brewster.

Weep not for me, my friends so dear,
I am not dead, but sleeping here.
God loved me too, and he thought it best,
To take his loved one home to rest.

—MRS. JAS. OTTEWELL

Canada wants American settlers. One good American is worth five Europeans. Land, excellent land, is much cheaper in Canada than it is in the United States, and will produce just as big crops.

PROTON STATION

The Proton Juniors paid their weekly visit to Flesherton last Friday night. This time the result was a tie.

Dever Bros. have purchased the store and dweillng house from Mr. Hugh Copeland, which they have had leased for the past five years.

MARKDALE

WHITBY—In Markdale, on Monday, March 15th, 1926, Rufus Ormond Whitby, in his 65th year. The funeral took place, Wednesday March 17th, at 2 o'clock, from his late residence to Markdale Cemetery.

Mr. J. .E Crone, for the past three years manager of F. T. Hill & Co's. store here, last week closed a deal for the stock and fixtures of Milheln & Gill at Strathroy. He and Mrs. Crone left for their new location Monday evening and are taking charge of the business immediately. Mr. Crone has been a good citizen and we are extremely sorry to see him leave town. He is one man in whom we have the utmost confidence and we can assure the people of Strathroy and vicinity that there is no squarer business man in Canada to-day. We hope that Mr. and Mrs. Crone may fit in well in their new location and that they may have good health and prosperity.

Mr. Albert Jackson has purchased the garage and equipment formerly conducted by Mr. E. Hill at Chatsworth and will take possession at once. He will sell Chevrolet and McLaughlan cars, and will employ an expert mechanic to look after the repair end of the business. This is an excelent location for a garage and with the experience that Mr. Jackson has had in the business he will make good We congratulate Mr. Jackson on his enterprise and extend him best wishes for continued success. The Jackson garage business here is now entirely in the hands of Mr. Bert Jackson, who has proved himself an energetic salesman and manager. — Standard.

LADY BANK

Spring has made its appearance in due time, and the snow is going quickly.

The Ladies' Aid will hold their April meeting at the home of Mrs. Walter Wilson, on Wed. the 14th.

NOTICE

No fishing or trespassing will be allowed on Lot. 40., Con. 10, Artemesia. Trespassers will be prosecuted.—Geo. Ottewell.

Who can remember away back when a school teacher didn't think it was a good day unless half a dozen kids were trounced?

EUGENIA

Spring-like weather. Crows are plentiful in this vicinity although the snow is very deep on the roads, especially on Inkerman street here.

The roads are not in very good condition at present.

We neglected to mention the hard-tyme social in last week's items. It was held in the United church on Wednesday March 10th. It was quite successful. Proceeds amounted to $14 including fines. The prize for best hard-tyme costumes was awarded to Mrs. H. Falconer and Miss Marjorie Park. These two ladies were dressin a real harde-tyme way, and their costumes depicted all features of hard times. We must not forget the pancakes—they were good, and made better by the appliance of the toothsome sweetness of the maple.

Mrs. Geo. Beecroft and son, Flesherton, visited the former's mother, Mrs. Turner, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Boyce, 4th line, visited their son, Calvin here on Monday.

Miss Selena MacDonald, 8th line spent a few days with Mrs. E. Doupe of Saugeen Junction.
