Little Billy Henry celebrated his fifth birthday on Friday last by entertaining eighteen little boys and girls. Two "little girls" who are usually called Mrs. W. I. Henry and Mrs. Batty, directed the children in their games, and a jolly time was had by all. A contest was held which was no other than that which their parents, as children, indulged in and loved; pinning the tail on the donkey. Jackie Welton was the successful one and was made happy with a beautiful Easter Egg. It takes boys to beat the girls, eh, Jack? We are wishing that Billy has a birthday every week.

L. F. Kipp at Ingersoll

The Ingersoll Daily Sentinel Review has the following article to say of Rev. Lewis F. Kipp a former pastor at Flesherton, Rock Mills, and Ceylon.

Special services were held yesterday in the Baptist church, and were attended by large and appreciative congregations, the occasion being the anniversary of the Four Square Class. The speaker of the day was Rev. Lewis Kipp, B. A., editor of the Canadian Baptist, Toronto. At the morning service, Rev. Kipp brought an appropriate and searching message, taking as his subject, "Making a Man." At the evening service, his subject was "Life's Greatest Question." His messages, which had special bearing upon the lives and ambitions of young men were listened to with marked interest..

A male choir rendered pleasing choruses at both services. Wm. Hey presided at the organ in a finished manner. In the morning Mr. L. Topham gave a fine sole, "My God, My Father," and again at the evening service rendered effectively, "Gently Lord, O. Gently Lead Us." A violin solo by Harry Edmonds was a splendid feature of the evening service. Rev. Kipp was assisted at the services by the teacher of the Four Square Class, Rev. John Pollock.

C. B. Wilson Builds Fine New Factory

The following atricle from the St. Catharines Standard of March 27th gives an account of the success of another old Flesherton boy in the person of Mr. Ben Wilson, and we are pleased to know that he is making a name for himself in St. Catharines. We print the article as follows:-

Mr. C. B. Wilson, who for a number of years was connected with the Lord & Burnham Company of this city, was for some time in charge of the Woodworking Department of that firm. Some months ago Mr. Wilson entered business on his own hook and opened up a shop at 113 Dufferin Street. Here Mr.Wilson has carired on a very successful business in the mandfacturing of sash and frames, as well as other woodworking.

The success that has attended Mr. Wilson's efforts since opening business has been such that in order to take care of increasing business he has been forced to secure new premises. These are under construction and are located on East street on the corner of Welland avenue, and will be ready for occupancy in about five or six weeks time.

Mr. Wilson in his new quarters, will be even better equipped to take care of the needs and desires of both contractors and individuals, as the new plant will be modern in every detail. In conversation with a representative of the Standard, Mr. Wilson foresees a great advancement in all lines of activity in St. Catharines, and claims that the latter is one of the most prosperous cities in Ontario.

Mr. Wilson has spent his entire life in the woodworking business and is fully enabled to serve the needs of all in this line.

Mr. Robt Down was in Toronto on a business trip the first of the week.

A SCOTCH TAG DAY

An English traveller arrived in a small Scotch town one afternoon and noticing the almost depopulated street asked the station master what had become of all the inhabitants.

"Weel, mon, to-day be tag day," was that worthy's pointed reply. Some weeks later the Englishman paid another visit to the same place, and on this occasion found the street swarming with people, as if some festive celebration was under way. Looking up his previous informant, he remarked upon the phenomena of a village that is deserted one day and over-populated another.

"I'll tell ye," volunteered the officious Scotchman. "Ye recall the tag day we had here last fortnight? Weel, it was a failure, so the Charity Committee decided to make a house-to-house call for moneys. And to-day they're making their canvass."

CHURCH NEWS AT VICTORIA

Sleigh loads continue to convey the people to Inistioge each Sunday. It is a fine arrangement, insuring a larger congregation, without exposing a larger number of horses to the weather.

A committee has been formed with a view of converting the open shed into a covered one. It is expected to be ready for use in the fall.

Mr. Clements received about eight persons into the church last Sunday. The address was very interesting and appropriate.

Road Snow Plow Coming

The opening up of the roads from Flesherton south to Toronto is now being eagerly looked forward to by the motorists of this vicinity. It was thought in the early part of last week that the warm weather had arrived and that the snow was a thing of the past, but another cold spell had to come and spoil everything.

It was learned to-day, however, that the big government snow plow, which operated in the country south of here last spring, is at Orangeville, and is waiting for a favorable opportunity to come north. There is, more snow on the road south of Markdale right now than for several years past, while in the village itself the snow and ice is four feet deep on the main street, so that it will take a lot of warm weather, and some work on the part of the authorities to get rid of it all.

It is the intention to bring the snow plow north from Orangeville as far as Flesherton, and cut over from here to Durham, and then north on the Garafraxa road to Owen Sound. This can be done with less difficulty than by trying to break through from Flesherton to Markdale.

However, there are plenty of indications now that warmer weather is at hand, and it will not be long before the motor traffic will be in full swing and the dust flying.. Once the snow and ice starts to go it disappears fast.
