Mr. Hector McKinnon of Toronto, was in town on Monday. H. B. is a cousin of the late Donald McLachlan, but could not remain for the funeral as he leaves for Ottawa on Tuesday, where he takes up his duties of Secretary of the recently appointed Tarriff Commission. This apointment coming as it does, unsolicited, is a distinct honor, and recognition of ability. Seldom does a young man receive such an important appointment, and we congratulate our friend H. B. on the honor conferred upon him.

We sincerely regret to have to report the death of Mr. Donald McLachlan of the village, on Friday morning April 2nd at the age of 52 years. He had been ailing for some months, suffering from anemia, and had been confined to the house nearly all winter. Last week pneumonia developed, and proved fatal. Mr. McLachlan was born and raised on the old home farm west of the village, and spent most of his life in this vicinity as a farmer and dealer in livestock. He was highly regarded by all who knew him as a valued friend and a good and obliging neighbor, and his cheerful personality will be much missed around this village. Sixteen years ago he was married to Miss Alice Ross of this place, and to them was born one daughter Jean,, who with the mother will mourn the loss of father and husband. Other relations who will mourn him are, three sisters, Mrs R. Shortreed of Glenelg, Mrs. Akins and Mrs. Mair of Buffalo, and two brothers, Angus of Lethbridge, Alta., and Alex of Grand Rapids, Mich., besides a large number of cousins. The funeral was held Tuesday, from his residence to McNeil's Cemetery. Rev. A. Sutherland, his pastor, conducted the services. Friends from a distance who attended the burial are, Mrs Akins and daughter, Ethel, and Mrs. Mair of Bufalo, Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Burgess, and Miss McLachlan of Durham. We extend our sincere sympathy to the sorrowing wife and daughter, and other relatives.
