Easter Sunday will not fall again on April 4th till the ear 1999.

* * *

After all, nothing on earth can move as fast as a thoroughly idle rumor.

* * *

The old time Liberals claim that to tariff reductions will be satisfactory, and that no motor car factory will cease operations on that account. It is all bluff, they claim.

* * *

Owen Sound Board of Trade is offering prizes for the best pictures of scenery in that vicnity, to be used for advertising purposes. The experiment should prove satisfactory.

....The Liberal Association in South Grey is becoming active. They intend placing a candidate in the field at the convention to be held in Durham this coming Friday, and expect to come out victorious if a three-cornered contest is staged.

DIED

PURVIS—Suddenly at Toronto, Wednesday, April 21st, 1926, Hilda Gertrude, dearly beloved daughter of Emily and the late William L. Purvis. Funeral 2 p.m. Saturday, 24th, inst., from her late residence, 123 Westlake ave. Interment St. John's cemetery.

Deceased was a daughter of the late William L. Purvis, who spent his boyhood days at Eugenia Falls, Ont. Miss Purvis contracted stomach influenza two weeks ago, but was not considered seriously ill, but on Wednesday last she suffered a relapse and peritonitis set in. She passed away suddenly on Wednesday evening April 21st 1926. Miss Purvis was in the Money Order Dept of the Toronto General Post Office and is survived by her mother and one brother, Wm. F. Purvis, on the staff of the Riverdale Technical school, Toronto.

The three days of heavy thawing weather last week created havoc with many bridges in this district, as the deluge of water was too much of a strain for the bridges to withstand. All rivers were exceedingly high, in fact higher than they have been for some years. Most of the snow is now gone on the main roads but the back lines are still bound up and travel is exceedinly difficult.

Mrs. Jas. Fisher Died From Result of Stroke

After an illness of about one week suffering from a stroke, Mrs. James Fisher passed to her heavenly award at the home of her son, Thos. J. in town on Thursday morning, of last week, at the age of 73 years. She had been in excellent health all winter, and it was a shock to the family when the stroke came so suddenly.

The late Mrs. Fisher, whose maiden name was Sarah MacComb, was born in the township of Hope, in the year 1853, where she lived until she was married to her sorrowing husband in 1880 She afterwards came with her husband to Artemesia township at that time, and settled on the old homestead on the 4th line. To them were born five children, all of whom are living:- Thos. J. of Flesherton; Ethel (Mrs. S. N. Leader) of London; Ida in Toronto, Edna, (Mr. R. McGeoch) of London, and Maggie, (Mrs. H. Patton) of the 4th line of Artemesia, all of whom were home for the funeral.

In 1913, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher moved from the farm to Flesherton where they have been living, but for the past two months have been with their son, Thos., where she was when taken so suddenly ill.

The late Mrs. Fisher has been a life long member of the Methodist church, formerly attending Mt. Zion while on the farm, and latterly of St. John's United church. She was a devoted Christian woman, and was loved and respected by all who knew her.

Besides her husband and family, she leaves to mourn their loss, two sisters and one brother:- J. H. McComb of Lang, Sask., and Mrs. Thos. Little, and Mrs. J. Brothwell of Port Hope.

The floral offerings were many and beautiful, banking the casket in a lovely diffusion of color. These were tendered by the following: A Pillow, from the family; spray from the grandchildren, sisters and brother, Ladies Aid from St. John's church Mr. and Mrs. Alex McKechnie, Mr. John L. McDonald of Ottawa, office staff of Singer Sewing Machine, Co. where her daughter Ida, is employed; Misses Hill, Plantt and Pedlar; Mrs. Jas. Chard; Mrs. Patton, Miss McMillan, Mrs. W. Stewart, Mr. A. F. Patton, Toronto; Mrs. McArthur, Toronto; Carleton St. church Bible Class, Toronto; L.O.B.A., Miss Fisher's roomates at 60 Alexander St., Toronto; and John Blackburn and family.

The funeral was held on Saturday, service being held at the home of her son, Rev. W. R. Clements, her pastor, preaching a very comforting sermon. Mrs. McCallum, Mrs. Blackburn, and Mrs. A. Dawn sang very beautifully thedeceased's favorite hymn, "Jesus is Mine." Interment took place in Flesherton cemetery, the pallbearers being her six nephews: Frank Brothwell of Port Hope, George, Wallace, Harry and Edward and Robert Fisher.

Several telegrams were received, conveying sympathy to the bereaved one, these being from Arthur J. Abbott of Oneida, N.Y., Adelaide Baptist church, London, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Knight of London. The Advance joins in extending sympathy to the bereaved ones.

Here are the facts

When 3 telephone orders can be taken in the time required for one order over the counter — as has been proven — and the amount of a telephone sale averages almost a third more, as it does, can there be any doubt in your mind that the merchant who uses the telephone consistently will win out over the rival who does not?

Can you afford to overlook the rapidly increasing importance of the telephone in your business for increasing sales and reducing the cost of selling?

Be open-minded. Try it — not spasmodically, but consistently, and judge for yourself.
