ANYTHING ELSE

Some mouths look like peaches and cream, and some like a hole chopped into a brick wall to admit a new door or a window. The mouth is a hotbed of toothaches, the bunghole of oratory, and a baby's crowning glory. It is patriotism's fountain and the tool chest for the pie. Without it the politician would be a wanderer on the face of the earth and the cornetist would go down to an unhonoured grave. It is the baker's friend, the orator's pride, and the dentist's hope.

Has Beautiful Grounds

Those who visited the ground of the Ontario Reformatory, Guelph, have been struck with their artistic appearance. All too much credit is due on account of the former poor and swampy condition of this farm. The sunken garden is particularly attractive and the use made of a small stream is marvellous. This work is to be further extended this year. With its palatial buildings and park like grounds this institution will present quite an attractive appearance, surpassing even many summer hotels

Ball Team This Year?

Flesherton ball team of 1925 is no more. After winning the championship of the Centre Grey League, and displaying a machine like precision in every department of the game the team disbanded. Dow, the star second baseman, is in Kitchener, and will, no doubt, make a place with the Inter County Leaguers. Kelly, the red light guardian, is in Bronte, K. Boyd is attending Toronto Normal, and Reggie Hutton is in Detroit, where he has secured a position.

The outfield of last season, namely Thurston, Alcox, Sparks and Wauchope, will be available for duty this year. The infield will have to be rebuilt around Cec. McTavish, who will play either shortstop or second base. There is a probability of Boyd being home this summer, but two good men must be found to fill the "shoes" left by Kelly and Dow. There is a world of material for these positions, but a lot of hard practice must be indulged in by the candidate for either job. Frank Betts could deliver the goods, and Currie, of the O.D.R., McDonald, Buchanan, or Genoe would make 'em all step.

The battery was badly shaken with Hutton's departure, but with Akins again available, the receiving problem might be worse. Buchanan would be of great assistance if he could be coaxed out of retirement. Alcox is recovering nicely from his recent illness, and the boys are all pulling for his return to form. Th management are working hard, and some "dark horses," may be trotted out for the approval of the fans.

Death of A. B. McDonald

The death occurred on Tuesday, of A. B. McDonald of Priceville, who passed away at the home of his son, J. L. MacDonald, 89 Glen avenue, Ottawa.

The late Mr. MacDonald was born in the township of Vaughan, near Toronto, in the year 1857, and moved with his parents to the township of Proton, Grey county, where, in 1889, he married Sarah McDonald. During the past six years they have resided in Priceville. They had been visiting with their son in Ottawa during the last few months, Mr. MacDonald evidently enjoying his usual good health. On Tuesday afternoon, however, he was taken suddenly ill with a heart attack and passed away within an hour.

Besides his wife, he leaves to mourn his loss a son and daughter, John L., of Ottawa, and Janet, of Toronto. Another son, Neil, predeceased his father seven years ago. Three sisters, one brother and one half-sister, also survive; Mrs. Jas. MacDonald, Durham; Mrs. Archie Ferguson, Proton; Mrs. John Ferguson, Dundalk; Donald MacDonald, Durham, and John MacGillivray, Woodbridge.

Service was held on Wednesday evening at the home of his son, J. L. MacDonald, Rev. G. G. D. Kilpatrick, of Chalmers United church, officiating. Among those present were members of the session and Sunday school staff of Chalmers church and representative public school teachers, besides the more intimate friends of the family. Following the service the remains were taken to the Union station, whence they were conveyed to Priceville, Ont., where interment took place Thursday aftenoon, April 22nd, Rev. R. G. McCormick officiating.

The sincere sympathy of a large circle of gfriends and co-workers in church goes out to the family in their great loss.

Presentation in West

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Saigeon of Forward, Sask., celebrated their silver anniversary on April 3rd, 1926. Mr. W. S. Rutherford gave a verbal address while Masters Lloyd Moore and Clifford Hawton presented the bride and groom of twenty-five years with a shower of silverware. The house was decorated with white bells and silver garlands which looked very pretty. Mr. and Mrs. Saigeon replied in a few well chosen words, expressive of their appreciation of the kindness of the friends and neighbors. Mr. Rutherford took a few snaps of the crowd, after which a bountiful fowl supper was partaken of, and an enjoyable evening spent in games and social chat. Friends from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Will Davis, Mr. and Mrs. George Hawton, Weyburn. Mr. and Mrs. W. Houghton of Regina; Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Pallister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pallister, Khedive , and Mr. and Mrs. Emmanuel Moore. of Trossacks. About 45 guests were present. The Advance joins with Mr. and Mrs. Saigeons' friends and neighbors in good wishes for another twenty-five years of married life.
