An Unique Service

The service in St. John's church on Sunday morning was rather of an unique character. On the platform associated with the pastor, Rev. W. R. Clements, was the Superintendent of the Sunday school, Mr. W. Miller. The Sabbath school scholars filed in and occupied the centre seats, followed by the Boy Scouts, numbering about twenty-five. Alice Heard, Emory Fisher and Jim McFadden gave recitations and five little girls sang very sweetly. The Scout Master, Mr. Wes Armstrong, read the 31st chapter of Proverbs, and the boys in unison repeated, with bowed heads, the Scout's prayer for Mothers. Mr. Clements gave a short talk on the theme for the day: "Mother." The collection went to the Religious Education Council.

It was a beautiful service, carried out by the young people in a reverent and thoughtful manner and did not savor of entertainment.

It was announced that the Sabbath school would be held during the summer months at 9.45 a.m.

AUCTION SALE

A credit auction sale of farm stock, implements, household furniture etc, will be held at Lot 20, Con 8, Osprey, 1¼ miles east of Feversham, on Friday, May 14th, at 1 p. m. See learge bills. Carl Deadman, Proprietor, Wm. Kaiting, auctioneer.

McCULLOUGH—ALLEN

A quiet but pretty weddding was solemnized on Wednesday, May 5th, at 4 p.m., when Miss Eva J. Allen, one of East Mountain's popular and highly esteemed young ladies, became the bride of Mr. Thomas McCullough. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents, in the presence of the immediate relatives and friends, Rev. W. L. Cullis, B. A., B. D., officiating

The bride was becomingly attired in powder blue crepe-de-chine, with georgette trimming, and wore a string of pearls.

They will reside with Mr. and Mrs. Allen on the third concession of Euphrasia, where their many friends wish them a long and happy married life.

LADY BANK

Mr. Lou Leppard, completed his job of decorating and varnishing Providence church here last week, and deserves much credit for his work.

Many in our neighborhood have been suffering from the nasty sick cold going, but most of us are able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fawcett and son, Delbert, visited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Semple and family on Sunday last.

Mr. John Ottewell Jr. had a successful woodbee one day last week.

Mr. Ed. Harbottle has commenced shingling his mill, getting ready for the big season's work.

Mrs. Wm. Anderson of Chesley is visiting this week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. David McMullen.

Mrs. Sam Phillips and two sons of Rock Mills, visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Ottewell Jr. on Sunday last.

Mr. Les. McMullen of East Mountain visited his parents here over the week end.

We are sorry to say that Mr. David McMullen is not improving in health as we would like to see him.

The fall wheat continues to look pale after the hard winter.
