PRICEVILLE

Blossom season is somewhat later this year, but these fine days are bringing buds and bloom out quickly. Seeding is about at a close now and the early spring grain sowed is beginning to make the ground look green.

Miss Woods is the guest of Mrs. S. G. McCormack.

Mrs. Sydney Standin of Stratford is visiting her father here, Mr. A. D. McLeod.

Mr. Jack McVicar of Meadowville was a visitor the first of the week at Mr. and Mrs. Angus McVicar's.

Mrs. Muir is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Dougall McDougall.

Mr and Mrs. Chas. Anderson, and daughter Jean, and Mr. L. Hartley of LaSalle, N.Y., were visitors over Memorial Day, May 30th, at Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Watson's.

Mrs. Blake, who was operated upon a few weeks ago in Hamilton, is doing as well as can be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. McTillan of Niagara Falls were the guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Kate McArthur over Memorial Day.

On Friday evening, June 4th, the ladies of Priceville gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. McLeod to do honor to Mrs. Sydney Standin (nee Annabell McLeod.)

About forty ladies were present and a very enjoyable evening was spent in games, music and chat. Later Mrs. Standin was brought to the foremost part of the reception room and a very suitable address was read by Miss Jelly, while little Misses Margaret McArthur and Hazel Bender drew forth the beautifully decorated chariot which contained a half dozen Community Plate dinner knives and jelly server, also a silver tray and cream and sugar set, which was presented to the bride. Mrs. Standin made a neat reply, after which a dainty lunch was sered.

UNITY U. F. W. O.

Unity U. F. W. O. entertained the ladies of Holdfast Club on Wednesday, June 2nd at the home of Mrs. Thos. Betts, with the president, Mrs. C. Newell in charge.

The club had a record attendance, there being over forty present. The meeting opened with singing, the Maple Leaf, and the creed being repeated in unison. The Holdfast club was duly welcomed by the president. The Roll Call was answered by "Housework I Most Dislike," to which every member present responded.

The minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. Miss McPhail, M. P. was present and put on a couple of contest and prizes were given to the winners. A very interesting programme was given, both clubs taking part, and consisted of a paper by Mrs. J. Campbell, "Discontented Husbands Should Find Wife's Good Qualities," followed by a poem by Mrs. Lewis Genoe. Mrs. Archie Stewart then gave a reading and Mrs. Whittaker, a recitation. Mrs. D. Campbell, gave a paper on "What Farm Women are Doing.", and Mrs. J. K. McLeod and Mrs. Whittaker gave a dialogue. The programme was then brought to a close by the singing of the Peace Anthem. Refreshments were served by the ladies, and a social time spent . Mrs E. C. Pedlar of Singhampton, the South East Grey Director, was present, and spoke a few minutes after luncheon. Mrs. C. Newell was then appointed delegate to the convention held in Priceville June 11th. A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Betts. The meeting adjourned to meet at the home of Mrs. W. Gordon on July 7th.

Mr and Mrs Robt. Philips and son Albert and Mr. Chas. Hoy, and daughter Ella, motored up and visited at R. Clark's the past week.

WINS PUBLIC SPEAKING CONTEST

Miss Jessie McIntyre of McIntyre, one of our Osprey young ladies won the silver medal donated by Miss Mcphail M.P., in the public speaking contest at Durham on Saturday last. Miss McIntyre chose as her subject "Community Gatherings, Halls, Singing and Services," and she surely did well to secure the medal, as she is an amateur, and was against contestants who had stood on the platform, and spoke in public meetings many times before and against contestants who had training in schools of public speaking.

Mr. John Brimsmead of Toronto is holidaying in our mountain village, and trying his hand at catching the wiley trout. Mr. Brimsmead has spent his holidays here for several summers and is surely a devout follower of Isaac Walton.

This neighborhood received a great shock when the news was received of the passing of Mrs. Tuppling at the home of her daughter Mrs. Clarence Semple at Islington Mrs. Mary Tuppling is a widow of the late Chas. Tuppling, who predeceased her some years ago. Mrs. Tuppling, whose maiden name was Mary Thomson, was born in Osprey Township 64 yrs. ago, and lived in Osprey the most of her life. A few years before Mr. Tuppling died, he moved his family out west to Arcola, Sask., where he farmed until his death a few years later. Mrs. Tuppling, with her family came back to her old home, and has been in this vicinity ever since, though her family of seven daughters and two sons have grown up, and married, and have homes of their own. Her daughters are, Mrs. McGee, Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. King, and Mrs. Wm. Guy of Hamilton; Mrs. Jas. Smith, Brantford, Mrs. Clarence Semple of Islington and Mrs. McDuffy of Battleford, Sask., and two sons, John of Buffalo and Lorne of the Collingwood Townline. Mrs. Tupling died very suddenly, as she was in this village on Sunday, went to Islington on Monday morning, and died on Tuesday morning, June 1st. The remains were brought here to her brother's Chris Thompson's and was laid to rest in the Presbyterian cemetery here, when one of the largest gatherings seen at a funeral here, gathered to pay their last respects to one who was loved and respected by all who knew her.

Mrs. Andrew Douglas attended the funeral of her sister, the late Mrs. Tuppling.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tuppling of Buffalo attended the funeral of the former's mother last week.

Mr. John Thompson of Agincourt was here for his sister's funeral last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Colquette and children, and Dr Mary McCort of Owen Sound, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Colquette.

Mrs. W. G. Dand and Son Herbert of Long Branch, Ont., and Mrs. Alex McIntyre of McIntyre, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Colquette on Sunday last.

Mrs. Lang of Owen Sound is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Henderson at present.

Miss Queenie Kaitting of Riverview spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Geo. Burk.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Morris of Southampton, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curran of Riverview, spent Sunday with the ladies' mother, Mrs. Henderson and family here.

TORONTO LINE, NORTH

Mrs. Joseph Hogg and son Allan of Toronto were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Littlejohns over the week end.

Misses Gertrude Weber and Amanda Warling spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sewell at Vandeleur.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Pritchard of Vandeleur visited with their daughter Mrs. Robt. Richardson.

Mr. Robt. Hogg jr., and Miss McBride of Chatsworth were Sunday visitors at the home of G. W. Littlejohns on Sunday.

Come to Flesherton on June 10th.

The smaler the intellect the louder the honk honk.

MAXWELL

The Ice Cream social held by the Women's Institute last Thursday evening was a splendid success.

The Women's Institute will hold the regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Geo. Priestly on June 10th. Miss M. Ross will give a report on the Girl's Conference held at Guelph on May 5th, 6th and 7th.

Mrs. Robt Priestly of Dundalk spent a few days with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Nicholls of Dundalk spent Sunday with the latter's parents here. Miss Mabel Ross returned home after spending the past week with them.

Dr. Guy leaves Wednesday for Montreal where he will attend the second General Council of the United Church. Dr. McWilliam will take his work during his absence.

Mr. Sam Grummett's little boy had the misfortune to be kicked with a horse. He was taken to Collingwood hospital where it was found that his skull was fractured besides some cuts on his face.

The Ladies' Aid of the United church met at the home of Mrs. Jas. Winter on Friday afternoon. They will hold a garden party on July 7th, the place to be announced later.

DIED—At his home in Toronto, Mr. Neil Black aged 68 years, formerly a resident of the 4th line of Osprey. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.

Miss Mary Ross spent a few days with her aunt Mrs. Black last week.

Mr. and Mrs. McLeod visited over the week end at Thornbury with Mr. McLeod's brother who is seriously ill.

We extend our sympathy to Mr. Wm. Hall in the death of his mother, Mrs. Hall of Shelburne.

We are sorry to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. Mary Tupling and extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.

Quite a number from here attended the meetings in the Armouries at Markdale on Sunday.

The Father's Day Service in the United church Sunday, was very interesting although poorly attended on account of the weather. The choir gave one selection before the sermon while a quartet sang very nicely afterwards. Mr. New preached a splendid sermon.

United Sunday school at 10.30 a. M. Sunday.

VANDELEUR

Mr. and Mrs Arthur Gough of Rochester, U. S. A. were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wright for a few days.

Last Sunday was Children's Day in Vandeleur church. The children attended in a body and occupied the front seats. A choir of children rendered several fine selections. The pastor Rev. F. N. Bowes, gave a splendid discourse on the subject of pencils. Much credit for the distinct success of the day is due the teacher, Mrs. Dave Graham.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Halbert of Harkaway visited with Mr. and Mrs. H. Baker recently.

Vandeleur Baseball team are again going into the Centre Grey Baseball League, and have commenced practice.

The annual convention of Artemesia Markdale and Flesherton Sunday School Association, was held in Vandeleur church on Friday, June 4th, afternoon and evening. Rev.
