HOWTO GET HONEST VOTERS' LISTS

The Dominion Election contest will soon be at fever heat throughout the country.

Some political leaders express the convicition that in preparing the voters' ists in the big cities there will be opportunity for unscrupulous men to have dead men vote and to have absentee voters personated. They point out that in Toronto many thousands of bogus votes were polled for the liquor interests in the plebescite and in Hamilton and other wet centres illegaities were perpetrated by "antis'" which added greatly to the vote polled against the Ontario Temperance Act. At this time we have no means of getting at the trouble. Let us, however, make a suggestion to the fearful ones. They should cease their outcry and get to work at once to see that an honest voters' list is compiled. If half the time spent in barn-storming by Toronto and Hamilton orators were devoted to effective organization to provide for an honest vote, public interests would be served, and the best man would win. It is a notorious fact that there are many hundreds of good citizens in every election who only orate on platforms or grumble at street corners, both before and after polling day. While they stand idly by, or orate to those probably already confirmed in their views on public questions, the unscrupulous manipulators of voters'-lists, get in their fine work and by this means too often defeat a return of a candidate polling the majority of the honest vote. What they need in Toronto, Hamilton, and other centres of population is not pre-election oratory but earnest and persistent organization and work to keep the voters' list pure from now till the last vote is polled.

Let all be warned by their experience in the last vote on the Ontario Temperance Act and prevent a repetition of ballot box shuffling in any respect.

ARE WATCHING EACH OTHER VERY CLOSELY

With the arrival home from Ottawa of Miss Agnes Macphail, the representative of Southeast Grey in the last Parliament, political matters in that riding are beginning to take on an interesting aspect Miss Macphail does not need to do any worrying regarding her nomination as she was placed in the fied at the U. F. C. convention held in Durham last Friday, so that she is going ahead and completing her organization, and when the time comes will have everything in good working order

On the other hand, the Conservatives and the Liberals are waiting to see which is going to make the first move towards the calilng of a convention It is understood that the Conservatives decided not to make a move until after the Liberals have gathered and decided as to who their candidate is going to be, if they go so far as to put one in the field, but whether they will hold out long enough is questionable.

In Conservative circles there is talk of several candidates. It is generally understood that Dr. L. G. Campbell, of Markdale, who opposed Miss Macphail last year, would not be adverse to taking another try at the game, but there are some in the party who think that a stronger candidate might get better results, and several names have been mentioned, among them W. D. Henry, of Markdale, and Ex-Warden Dan McTavish of Flesherton. However, it may be along in August before a convention is called for the purpose of nominating a candidate.

There is a great deal of reticence among the Liberals as to their intentions. In the last Federal election they did not put a candidate in the field, leaving it to Miss Macphail and Dr. Campbell to fight it out, but there is a feeling among some of the leaders of the Liberals in the riding that they should have a candidate of their own this time. It is expected that they will hold a convention during the latter part of this month to decide the matter.

EDITORIAL NOTES

The "Agnes" rose developed by the Central Experimental Farm at Ottawa has won first prize from the American Rose Society for an outdoor rose originated on this continent. Ottawa has had another Agnes who is a winner.—Toronto Star. Now this is scarcely fair. The other Agnes is ours, and likely to be until "Some bonny laddies tak's her awa'."

Some people are lamenting because laws pasesd by the late parliament were not finally disposed of when dissolution took place. Cheer up and obey the Ten Commandments—at least till a new parliament "is." Nothing has been passed by legislatures in these thousands of years that can beat the old Mosaic statutes.

The King's prize—the blue ribbon of the Bisley riflemen's meet was won by a 72-year-old gentleman shooter. Who says the age limit for sport should be 50 ?

There is a plethora of school teachers in Ontario. When the board at Albion, Peel county, came to fill a vacancy last week, they had before them 250 applications. An Orangeville young lady took the prize.

Indications are that there will be fewer three cornered fights in the Dominion election contest starting in earnest this week. This will make the outcome of the struggle less uncertain. Much will depend on the West however.

The present Dominion eection contest promises to be a long drawn-out-affair, as the politicians did not look for a dissolution this year. Very many former M. P.'s are being nominated. This is not surprising; the surprise will come to many when the votes are counted on election eve.

As old Sir John A MacDonald was accustomed to declare, "If there is anything more uncertain than a horse race; it is an election."

Church union in various forms is now in progress in both England and Scotland. Once more Canada is pointed to as giving a good example.

The Ontario Hydro Electric Commission is reported to have a surplus of $437,848 for the last financial year. So much for public ownership. Now let us have a reduction in rates.

In the coming election, if Canada is to be saved, we must vote for the (————————) party. Fill in to suit yourself. But do not talk blue ruin, and thereby discourage your neighbors.

The witty Lord Dewar, in an address to the visiting South African bowling team, pointed out that Disreali declared that men could no more escape taxes than death. Death, however, is generally painless, which is more than can be said of taxes. That is why the politician is so fond of indirect taxes, which are imposed on the necessaries of life. Being concealed, they take the same place as the sugar coating on the doctor's pill.

The government continues to sell timber limits to fatten up the exchequer This may be all right, but care should be taken to keep replanting the forests for future use. Otherwise there may be wood and water famines in the future. Such has been the experience in all lands.
