Dept. of Highways Lays Dust on Connecting Link

Calcium chloride was laid this Tuesday on the connecting link of the Provincial Highway through Flesherton, by the Department of Public Highways. This is not the usual practice of the department ,but has been done as an experiment as to the dust-laying qualities of this mineral. The Department of Highways had practically declined to do the work as the connecting link had not been taken over, but Dr. Jamieson, M. P. P., on being appealed to interceded on the behalf of Flesherton, and secured the distribution. It is claimed that with the application of calcium chloride, the dust on the streets will be laid permanently for the remainder of the summer. The thanks of the Village of Flesherton is extended to Dr. Jamieson for this act of mercy on his part, and for his interest in village afairs . When the Department of Highways consented to lay the dust on the main highway, the village Council met in the town hall Friday evening last and decided to expend $100 by applying the same on Collingwood -- Durham streets at once, the laying of the Calcium Chloride will also be done by W. J. Moore, provincial road foreman in this district.

Asa Hill Died Monday From Terrible Injuries

Asa Hill, R. R. No. 5, Markdale, died at his home on Monday morning as the result of injuries which he received when he fell in his barn at noon on Friday last. Mr. Hill, who was a bachelor, resided on his farm about three miles from Markdale, on what is known as the west back line, and on Friday, while workng in the barn something went wrong with the small car which operates the hay fork, and Mr. Hill placed a ladder from a scaffold to the car, which was up in the peak of the barn.

Just what happened, whether the ladder slipped, or the scaffold gave way, is not known, but at any rate Mr. Hill was precipitated to the floor of the barn, a drop of about 35 feet. Two boards of the scaffold came down with him, indicating that there was a shifting of the boards. In his descent, he struck his shoulder on a corner of the wagon, which was standing on the floor, crushing it very badly, and one leg was broken close to the thigh, the bone protruding right through the flesh. He also sustained internal injuries.

Mr. William Byers, who happened to be in the barn at the time of the accident, ran to his asistance, and at once telephoned to Markdale for medical assistance, Drs. Brown and Ego responding. The unfortunate man was removed into the house, and later Dr. H. G. Murray of Owen Sound was summoned, and everything done to relieve the sufferer, but he relapsed into a state of unconsciousness early Saturday evening, and he passed away at 5 o'clock on Monday morning. Those who attended him were of the opinion at the start that nothing could be done to save his life, so severe were the injuries received. It was the internal injuries and the terrible shock which caused his death.

Deceased ,who was between 59 and 60 years of age resided on the farm with his mother, who is in her 89th year. He was considered upright and honest, and a very successful farmer, and the news of his tragic death will be sincerely regretted by the entire community.

The funeral will be held this Wednesday afternoon to the Markdale cemetery, service at the house at 2 o'clock. He is survived by two brothers, Silas, who lives near by, and William, of Orange Valley, and two sisters, Mrs. Piper of Ceylon, and Mrs. Love, Euphrasia.
