Thos. Dale Passes at Summerland, B.C.

After an illness extending for many years, the last two or three which he was absolutely helpless, Thomas Dale died at Summerland, B.C., on July 10. Mr. Dale was born in 1860 in Ontario residing in his youth at Flesherton. In 1884 the Dale family moved to Manitoba and in 1906 they moved on to British Columbia and settled at Summerland.

He is survived by his wife and daughter, sister Mary (Mrs. E. W. Bateman) and brother John. His sister, Annie, and both parents died some years ago at Summerland. His only son was killed during the last war.

The Dale family will be remembered by some of the older settlers in and around Flesherton.

The Advance had a pleasant call on Monday from Mr. W. L. Hudson of Lethbridge, Alta., formerly of Feversham. Mr. and Mrs. Hudson have been visiting relatives in Osprey and will start on the homeward journey next Monday. It is twenty years since they literally cast their lot in the far West, the lot, and others added thereto, have evidently brought prosperity. During that time Mr. Hudson has kept in touch with the "doings" at home through the columns of The Advance. Mr. Hudson was accompanied by Mr. Robert Morrison of Maxwell, whom we were pleased to see enjoying fair health.

Mrs. John Blackburn Died Suddenly Saturday

Lucy Simmons, beloved wife of John Blackburn, , was born in Somersetshire, England, seventy-six years ago, and came with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Simmons, to Oxford county when three years of age; and later moved with her parents to the Fourth Line of Artemesia. Here she was married to her sorrowing husband almost fifty years ago, and they began life together on the East Back Line, three miles from Flesherton. She was a staunch member of the Presbyterian church all her life and was a member of Chalmer's church, but she was a better Christan and while health lasted was always in her place of worship on the Sabbath day. About ten years ago they moved from the farm and took up their residence in Flesherton.

Besides her sorrowing husband she leaves to mourn her loss four sons and one daughter, namely: William, Saugeen Jct.; R. J., Toronto; Albert, Fourth Line; George, on the old homestead and Mrs. T. J. Fisher of town.

The floral tributes were numerous and most beautiful—a pillow from the family; wreath, Mrs. W. Simmons and family, spray from Mr. and Mrs. T. Chard, Toronto; J. Fisher and daughters; Mrs. Jas. Chard; Mrs. McGeoch and Mrs. Leader, London; Mrs. J. P. Ottewell; Mr. and Mrs. R. Chard; Mr. and Mrs. John Pedlar; Mrs. M. Thistlethwaite; The L.O.B.A.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Croft; Mrs. Jos. Balckburn; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hawken and the Ladies' Aid of the United church.

Mrs. Blackburn was in her usual health up to Tuesday, July 20th, when she was taken ill and passed away suddenly on Saturday, the funeral taking place on Monday. Rev. Jos. Harrower officiated at the house and grave. The funeral was largely attended, showing the high esteem in which the family is held. Deceased was borne to her last resting place by loving hands, the pall bearers being her four sons, son-in-law and nephew, Mr. A. Blackburn, of Collingwood.

The friends from a distance were: Mrs. S. Blackburn Jr., James Blackburn and daughter, Mr. Albert and Miss Ethel, Mrs. H. Lawrence, Mrs. I. Watson and son, Mr. and Mrs. W. Milne and daughter, all of Creemore; Mr. W. Blackburn, Mr. Arthur and Miss Gertie, Stayner; Mr. Jos. Blackburn and Mr. and Mrs. J. Cammadge, Mount Forest; Mr. and Mrs. R. Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. M. Blackburn, Mrs. Jos. Bull and dauphter, Collngwood; Mrs. H. Duffort and Miss Ida Fisher, Toronto; Mr. J. Seeley, Mr. and Mrs. A. Styles of Woodstock; Mr. J. Dingman of Toronto and Mrs. (Dr.) Kister and son of St. Catharines.

The sympathy of the community goes out to the sorrowing husband, sons and daughter.

Pritchard Re-Union

The family of Mr. and Mrs. George Pritchard of Vandeleur held a reunion at Eugenia on Saturday, it being the 74th birthday of Mr. Pritchard. Those attending were: Rev. R. G. Pritchard, wife and family of Neepawa, Man., Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reed and two sons of Oxford, Mich., Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Richardson and son, Harold, and also Mr. and Mrs. George Pritchard. Mrs. Reed brought the birthday cake over from Oxford in honor of her father's birthday, while Mr. Reed donated the candles which made a lovely ornament on the cake. It was the first time in ten years that the family was united before and a jolly time was enjoyed by all.

A LUCKLESS LAKE TROUT

Here's a real honest to goodness fish story, vouchd for by a straight forward onlooker at the time. Last Thursday, while a number of bathers were disporting themselves in the Bay at Oakview, one of their number noticed a mighty splash nearby. Upon closer investigation it was found that a fish of unusual size had come in over one of the sandbars and was having soce difficuly in getitng back to deep water. The bathers, by flank and rear movements, immediately cut off its retreat by forming a cordon and endeavored to drive it still farther ashore into shallow water; but a fish is not a sheep, consequently it refused to be driven in such docile fashion. Twice it charged the encircling phalanx and twice the line broke, but the shifting sandbar was a more effective barrier to freedom than even the gallant assaulters, and its efforts to escape were unavailing.

How to secure the coveted prize was a problem until one brainy bather thought of an axe, which was brought and speedy execution followed. It tipped the scale at twenty six pounds, probably the largest lake trout ever caught in Nottawasaga Bay.—Stayner Sun.

Mr. and Mrs. Oram and family of Toronto were the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Nuhn over the week end.

All former residents now living more than ten miles away admitted free at Vandeleur on Aug. 7th.

W.M.S. and Ladies' Aid Organize for Coming Year

At a meeting held on Tuesday in St. John's United Church where Rev. Jos. Harrower presided, the Woman's Missionary Society and Ladies' Aid were organized for work.

After the devotional exercises lead by Mr. Harrower the following officers for the W. M. S. were elected: Pres., Mrs. J. Cargoe; 1st Vice, Mrs. Harrower; 2nd Vice, Mrs. W. H. Thurston; Rec. Sec., Miss McMillan; Cor. Sec., Mrs. Tremp; Treas., Mrs. T. Findlay; Supt. of Christian Stewardship, Mrs W. Moore; Supt. of Mission Band, Miss Mary Paton and assistant, Miss Agnes Henderson; Supply Sec., Mrs. J. J. Thompson; Strangers' Sec., Mrs. E. C. Murray. It was decided to hold the meetings the third Thursday of each month; the next meeting being held on August 19th at 3 o'clock in the church. The fee is 50 cents a year.

The officers of the Ladies' Aid are as follows: Pres., Mrs. W. Moore; 1st Vice, Mrs. A. Gilchrist; 2nd Vice, Mrs. Thos. Findlay; Sec., Mrs. (Dr.) Turnbull; Treas., Mrs. C. Richardson; Parsonage Com., Mrs. W. Stewart and Mrs. Geo. Mitchell. The meetings to be held the first Tuesday in each month at 8 p.m.

The most notable feature of the meeting was the harmony which prevailed throughout, while no one seemed to want to hold office, yet each one accepted what was bestowed upon her, seemingly determined to do her best to fill it. The meeting closed by singing one verse of a hymn and prayer by the Pastor.

Passed Entrance at 9

To pass his Entrance examination with honors at the age of nine years is the proud distinction of Master William Somers, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Somers, Eighth Line, Osprey. Besides securing the honors Dr. Huff, inspector, informs us that Billy took the highest marks of the forty-five who wrote the examinations at the Feversham centre. Billie has attended S. S. No. 5, Osprey, since he commenced his education and altogether has only attended school three years and one month and has just recently, after he wrote the exams, reached his tenth birthday.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. John Blackburn and family desire to thank their neighbors and friends for their many acts of kindness and helpfulness during the illness and death of the wife and mother and for the beautiful floral offerings.

OVERALLS CAUGHT FIRE—DIES

The death occurred on Friday of Malcolm Duncan, 15 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James Duncan, 108 line, East Garafraxa Township. On Tuesday night the lad left his pair of overalls under an automobile. Wednesday morning when he put them on they were wet, and he thought it was rain. He entered the kitchen and stood beside the fire to dry them out. Suddenly he was enveloped in flames. He was badly burned and died from the results. Instead of water, the overalls had been soaked with gasoline from a leaky gas tank.

STICK PIERCES COW'S UDDER

While delivering a good milch cow, which he had sold to Mr. C. Guyer of Saugeen a few days ago, Mr. James Heron saw the eighty bucks which he was to receive for the bovine fade into thin air when the beast stepped on a pointed stick which upended and passed clean through the cow's udder, making a painful and destructive wound which bled profusely. The beast was taken home and the sale called off.—Port Elgin Times.
