The Personal Element in Banking affairs

BETWEEN the curtness and coldness of printed bank forms and the human element for whose use they are designed, are vast oportunities for the banker to give valuable personal assistance. The Standard Bank, throug the members of its staff, is anxious to use any opportunity that arises to demonstrate its value in offering personal advice on financial matters. The local manager of the Standard Bank will be glad to give intimate counsel upon money matters pertaining to your business.

Grey County Infant Mortality Not Greatest

In the report of the meeting of the Women's Institute for Grey County held in Kimberley, August 12, which appeared in last week's issue of The Advance a part is misleading when the facts are known. Mrs. Aitken of Beeton is credited with making the statement that Simcoe and Grey Counties showed the highest death rate in mothers and infants under one year than any place in the world. This statement if true is a reflection on Grey county and particularly on the efficiency of the medical profession and local health organizations and in co-operation with Dr. Turubull we find that in the figures given in the last report of the Registrar General that it is not difficult to find many other countries with a higher ratio, both for infant and maternal mortality than our own county, while Grey has a lower rate than the average for the province as a whole. The following figures for infant mortality (deaths under 1 year per 1000 births) are interesting for comparison:

Grey County 77; Province of Ontario 83; New York in 1880 288 and in 1919 82; England in 1854 was 300 and in 1919 was 87.

In two cases the figures are given for New York and England for the years 1880 and 1854 respectively to show by comparison the marked decrease in infant mortality due to half a century of public health work and education. The satisfactory low rate for Grey County shows that we are not lagging behind.

Maternal deaths per 1000 births:—Grey County 5.1, Belgium 5.4, Canada (registration area) 5.2. France 6.0, Newfoundland 6.2, Scotland 6.4, United States (registration area) 6.6.

No one will deny that there is much room for improvement along the lines of preventive medicine, but the purpose of the above figures is to show that Grey County has not the highest death rate in mothers and infants of any place in the world, but compares favorably with other places.

Local Funeral Parlor is Up-to-date in Service

Mr. T. W. Findlay, our local funeral director, attended the annual embalmers' convention held at London last week and which most of the up-to-date directors of funeral services in the province support. At this convention all the manufacturers had an exhibit which gave the different funeral directors a chance to keep up with the times in giving real service to the community.

The service in the Flesherton undertaking parlors includes a motor hearse, grave lining and covering to represent green grass, pneumatic lowering device, electric lights where these are not ordinarily available, chairs, newest designs in caskets and the flower service. These have all been introduced since Mr. Findlay took over the business.

We are sure the community feel grateful to Mr. Findlay for the up-to-date methods, both in equipment and in services, rendered during the sad passing of a loved one. Mr. Findlay is to be commended for his endeavors to keep his funeral equipment and services up to the highest standard of the profession.

LOCAL ITEMS

Mr. Norman Archibald of the west back line, Artemesia, received a telegram that his eldest brother, William, of Killarney, Man., had died suddenly on Saturday, August 28th, in his 60th year. Interment was to take place at Killarney, Man.

A political meeting in the interests of the Liberal-Conservative party will be held in the Flesherton high school Thursday evening of this week, when Mr. Russell Nesbitt, M.P.P., of Toronto will be the principal speaker. The candidate, R. T. Edwards, and others will also speak.

A mysterious visitor passed over this town on Monday night a little after eleven o'clock, in the form of an air ship. It passed close over the village, going in a north-westerly direction, and its lights were visible for several minutes before it disappeared. It apparently came from the direction of Camp Borden.

FINGERS LACERATED IN CEMENT MIXING MACHINE

While working with Mr. Thomas Lever's cement mixing outfit at the residence of L. A. Fisher on Friday last Robert Ferris of town received lacerations of the fingers that necessitated the attendance of a doctor. In some way he had his hand caught by the inner workings of the mixer and at the same instant he jerked them out, otherwise his hand would have been taken off. This is the second accident to Mr. Ferris ths year in which he has been laid off work, the other time being in the winter when he had his leg broken while drawing logs from the valley. His many friends sympathize with him in his misfortune.

Mr. J. W. Carr, a Eugenia boy, is railway agent at Tichfield, Sask., and Mr. Jack Bemrose of Osprey is conductor on that railway line. The Advance got in touch with both of these gentlemen last week, in the right kind of way. They wish to keep tab on the doings in their old homes and sent along their "tab" money.

Farmers in the Field

A motoring tourist in travelling through the riding of South-East Grey beholds on every side the farmer in the field endeavoring by honest toil to garner the harvest. He naturally at this time, inquires what is going on in the political field, and is amazed to learn that here, again, only farmers are in the field. He is informed that the interests of the common people are being represented by Agnes Macphail, who has served them well in the last two parliaments and that the interests of special privilege are also being represented by a farmer, R. T. Edwards. In bewilderment he inquires "Am I awake?" The answer is "Yes, it is no dream. These are the cold facts."

Electors of South East Grey in general, and farmers in particular. Can you not see through the smoke screen?.... On behalf of the Political Association of the South-East Grey United Farmers we appeal for the support of all those interested in representation for Agriculture, independence in Parliament and the putting of nation welfare before party advantage.

You are either going to vote for a farmer who has served you loyally, independently and fearlessly in the past, or for a farmer brought out by special privilege as bait for farmers' votes; special privilege hoping thereby to regain control of South-East Grey. Their candidate is pledging himself on the public platform to follow blindly his political leader whose cabinet contains many milionaires.

Think, Electors! Do not stifle the voice of conscience on September 14th.

JOHN WHITEFORD, Pres. S. E. Grey U. F. Pol. Assoc. R. R. No. 2, Hanover.
