A NOTEWORTHY WEDDING.

The Winchester, Massachusetts, Star, contains the following account of a wedding that will interest many of our readers. The groom is a grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Armstrong of Flesherton, and is well known to many residents of this neighborhood, he having spent many of his holidays at the old homestead:

"Miss Priscilla Larned, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Larned of Highland Avenue, and John H. Clarke of Main street, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Clarke of Weston, Ont., were married last Saturday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, by the Rev. Allan Evans, Jr., rector of the Church of the Epiphany.

"The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a beautiful w her father. She wore a beautiful wedding gown of white taffeta with a pannel and flounce of point duchess lace, a family heirloom. Her bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended only by her namesake, little Priscilla Durland of Swampscott. Her frock was of pale pink chiffon and she carried pink rose buds. Daniel Dinsmore of Woburn was best man and the ushers were G. Fred Ashworth of Pawtucket, R. I., brother-in-law of the bride, and Robert Sherwood of Wincester. The wedding march was played by the bride's sister, Mrs. Ashworth. Pink and white gladioli and other flowers were combined in the house decorations, which were most attractive.

"Following the ceremony a reception was held which was largely attended, the guests including several college classmates of the bride. The parents of the bride and groom's father assisted in receiving, Mr. Clarke's mother being unable to attend the wedding because of illness.

"The bride was graduated from Mt. Holyoke college with the class of 1916 and was for a time secretary to the School. Later she became secretary of the Walnut Hill school in Natick. The groom is a McGill University graduate, class of 1912, and is associated as chief chemist with the Merriman Chemical Works at North Woburn. Upon their return from a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Clark will reside at 130 Mt. Vernon Street."
