St.Columba Church, Priceville

The August meeting of the W.M.S. of St. Columba United church, Priceville, was held on Friday, Aug. 20, at the home of the Misses James, and was largely attended. The opening services were conducted by the president, Mrs. (Rev.) McCormack, and the Scripture lesson was read by Mrs. Jim Weir. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the Secretary, Miss Edith James, and were adopted. The alloted time for business which followed was taken up with plans for the thank-offering and for the packing of the bale of clothing. It was decided that the thang-offering meeting should be held on some Sunday in early autumn and that the bale should be packed on Monday, the 30th inst., at the home of Mrs. H. B. McLean.

A fine article entitled "A Meditation for hte Individual Member," by Ethel M. H. Smith, was read by Mrs. Allie Muir, after which Miss Willa Patterson gave an interesting and enlightening talk on the work at the Mission of Wokstas, where she has been stationed for some time. A duet waes sweetly rendered by Mrs. H. B. McLean and Miss Louise Watson, after which the meeting closed with a hymn, followed by prayer by Rev. Mr. McCormack.

THE LADIES' AID

Mrs. L. McArthur then took the chair and called the members of the Ladies' Aid together. The minutes of the last meeting were read by the Secretary, Miss B. James, and were adopted. Then followed the business of the meeting. After some discussion it was decided to hold a bazaar some time before Christmas and a committee was appointed to look after the same.

The former Ladies' Aid of Ebenezer who have disbanded and united with the Society of St. Columba church, made a very acceptable contribution of $12 to the funds, which was much appreciated by the members.

Flesherton Beat Creemore

The Flesherton ball team journeyed to Creemore on Wednesday of last week and played the crack Creemore aggregation there and came home with the game safely tucked away in their pocket, the score being 9-6. The local squad was reinforced with three Dundalk players, Mel Thompson, who caught Kitchen's offerings in fine style, Frank McIntyre, who played a good game at third and Wilfred Lockhart, who made some fine plays at the short stop position. Ken Boyd was the usual shining light at first and Cecil McTavish took the pegs at second base. Albert Sparks guarded right field in a fitting manner and a couple of hits went to his field that allowed one man to take third and the other one to go to second. They were real hits and Ab. played them well. Reggie Hutton, the star pitcher of the 1925 champions, made some fine catches in centre field and Frank Betts played left field. Russell Kitchen whiffed six Creemore lads and the first three men who faced him in the first inning were retired on three pitched balls, something we have not seen happen yet. This was his eighth straight win and the eleventh one for the season. This afternoon the return game was supposed to have been played but Creemore notified the local management Tuesday evening that they would be unable to come. An efofrt will be made to have them at a later date.

Mr. Findlay is at Hanover on Friday and Saturday of this week, Riverton, October 5th, Teeswater, October 6th and Wingham on October 7. Mr. Alex. Muir of Ceylon is a judge of sheep, cattle and swine, and has several fairs in new Ontario, but we have been unable to learn the places and dates.

EPITAPHS

Here lie the remains of Percival Sapp
He drove a car with a girl on his lap.
Slumbering here is one Wm. Blake
He heard the bell but had no break.
J. Smith lies here without his shoes
He drove a car while lit with booze.
Here is Mary Jane, but not alive,
She made her car go forty-five.
Ed. Jones is lost to eartly wiles,
He turned a curve at fifty miles.
Beneath this turf lies Wm. Meak,
He used a match on a gas tank leak.
R. L. Johnston occupies this bunk,
He tried to drive while he was drunk.
Nellie stalled her car on R. R. track
She's gone very far and won't be back.
In a hearse just past was P. O'Shean
He battled liquor and gasoline.
Here lies a mutt from Parry Sound,
He drove fifty and is under ground.
Heaven help women like Mary Lamar
She took one lesson, then drove a car.
O'er Mike O'Toole they just said mass
Reached for his brake but hit the gas
Shed a tear for Maggy McGluck,
She missed a Ford but hit the truck.
A local lad with speeding vice
Is heading where they don't keep ice.

Interesting Fair Program

Judging from the program of events Fair Day at Flesherton is going to be a red letter day for those planning to take it in. Music, ball games, drawing contests, children's pony races, ending up with a big evening program at the high school is arranged for. Not the least interesting will be the contests between the old time fiddlers and step dancers at night. Valuable cash prizes have been set aside for these events that should draw a record entry. The full particulars are available on the large posters which have been distributed. The secretary is receiving requests for prize lists from all over the county and it appears that a wonderful exhibition can be expected. Dont overlook the dates for Flesherton Fair, Thursday and Friday, September 23 and 24.

The drawing contest for teams at the Flesherton Fair will be an interesting event.

The young folks are eagerly awaiting the Flesherton Fair to see their favorites in the pony races.
