Big Crowd at School Fair held here Thursday

Thirteen public schools of Artemesia township joined in the school fair for this township held in Flesherton on Thursday afternoon of last week and made one of the best exhibitions of produce, baking and nature study work that has been shown at any school fair since it was inaugurated several years ago. Having won the prize for best marching for three years the Flesherton school did not take part in the competition this year, but were in the parade. The attractive regalia of the pupils, the excellent marching and the vibrant school yells given by each school were commented upon very favorably by the largest crowd that has ever attended the fair of the kiddies. The judging of the many schools took a long time and the judges finally gave out that the Eugenia school had won first prize with the Rock Mills schools a close second and Portlaw third and as the decision was announced each school gave their school yell and were heartily applauded.

The following schools took part this year in the school fair: East Mountain, Eugenia, 8th Line, Portlaw, Victoria Corners, Proton Station, Springhill, Flesherton, Orange Valley, Ceylon, Stone's Line, Old Durham Road and Priceville.

The public speaking did not attract many orators, but Miss Irene Martin again won the honors in Miss Macphail's prize contest and will represent Artemesia Township in the final public speaking contest which will be held in Flesherton.

The hall was well filled with produce, cooking, fancy work nature study work, grain and seeds, etc. In potatoes there were forty-seven entries made and the array was one of the best we had seen and no doubt the judges had a fine time eliminating the poorer ones. The baking of the young ladies would make a healthy man's mouth water. It fell to Master Jim Bannon of Victoria Corners to win from the girls in the bread making contest and it was good looking bread too. The class of gate making brought about seventeen models of farm gates from the size of ten inches long to four feet in length and they were indeed very commendable.

There was a large entry of poultry and many fine birds were shown, of course being bred-to-lay fowl.

The prize winners are given below. The numbers after the name is the school section to which they belong, while the senior room of Flesherton is F1, and the junior room F2.
