The Rally Day service given by the young people of St. John's United Sunday School last Sabbath evening was of a unique character. The pageant entitled "United for Service" was given in dress as worn by the little children of the countries where our missionaries are stationed, such as Africa, China, Japan, etc., making it very realistic.

We will be sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Henry and little son, but wish them success in their home.

In the writing for third book pupils at the Artemesia school fair at Flesherton, the prize winners' names being published last week, we made a mistake in the first prize winner. In place of Bill Welton it should have been Bill Patton. The latter Bill is a splendid writer, as is evidenced by his success in taking first prize at the Flesherton fair for public school pupils, and thereby won the silver medal donated by the Owen Sound business college.

Good Crowd at Fair Despite Rain Showers

Flesherton Fall Fair did not experience the best of weather this year and the big crowd expected to turn out to see one of the best fairs in years failed to attend. Rain fell most of the day and put a damper on the day somewhat, but did not interfere with the running off of the scheduled special attractions. The attendance was real good for the kind of day and the gate receipts amounted to about $200. The hall was well-filled with roots and vegetables, cut flowers fruit, domestic baking, butter and ladies' work. The latter was not such a big class as last year, on account of the ladies' work in the prize list being entirely changed, but the quality of the exhibits was of a decidedly higher standard. The flower display was real beautiful, some lovely cream colored dahlias being shown by W. S. Inkster. J. I. Graham had a large display of fruit and won many prizes and J. R. Fawcett had a big exhibit of roots and vegetables grown in the valley at Kimberley.

The Flesherton Woollen Mills, John Nuhn proprietor, had a large exhibit of made-in-Flesherton woollen goods, and showed two dozen horse blankets which were made to order for the Swift Canadian Co. at Toronto. The variety of woollen goods made by this firm caused considerable favorable comment.

The school parade took place at 1.30 p.m. to the grounds and eight schools joined in the march through the rain and Proton Station school took first prize, with Rock Mills second and the Eugenia school third. The schools were not out in full strength on account of the weather and many of them were unable to do justice to their marching. The kiddies hope for good weather when they march next year.

The show of live stock was excellent. There was a large exhibit of cattle, especially in the shorthorn and grade classes, and there would have been more if there had been good weather. Some exhibitors in the cattle classes did not bring their stock out. Edward Littlejohns took the prize for the best female animal with a Shorthorn and also was the largest exhibitor of cattle. John Flynn took first for his Shorthorn bull which is a lovely animal. Batty Bros. of Meaford brought a carload of Shropshire sheep, taking most of the prizes. W. J. Meads took most of the prizes with his Oxford Down sheep, with Geo. Shand of Hopeville and Edgar Betts of Osprey showing against him, the latter with only one shearling ewe. In the swine Charles Stewart showed Berkshires and Edgar Betts and George Ross their Yorkshire pigs. Geo. Ross took the prize for the best bacon hog.

A fine ladies softball tournament took place with seven teams competing. Orioles, champions of the Georgian Bay Ladies' Softball League, were victorious on the day and carried off first prize with Chatsworth taking second. The other teams entered in the contest were: Flesherton high school, Flesherton town, Dundalk, Mt. Forest and Bognor. A great deal of interest was taken in these games. The Flesherton girls made the only triple play seen this year when there were three Chatsworth girls on the bases and the next batter hit to the pitcher who doubled the runner off first and then the one on second.

The Horses this year were a fine class. Thos. Wilson of Markdale showed in the roadster class and carried off five first prizes including the specials. J. Brinkman, Meaford, and Jas. Ellison of Durham also showed. The latter won the prize for the best groomed horse, best matched team, heavy or light, and the general purpose single driver. Levi Betts won the gentlemen's road race.

A pony class was put on this year and several ponies were in the ring. R. G. Noble of Markdale took first prize for single driver in the small pony class; best boy or girl rider, the two sons of Mr. Bert Douglas, and in the pony race these two boys won first and second in a spirited contest.

The team of horses showed their superiority over the pulling power of fourteen good strong men when they pulled the men quite easily In the drawing contest Mr. George Best won first money against Mr. M. Croft in a contest that caused considerable excitement. These special attractions were a special feature to make the day a success.

In the poultry house the exhiibt was not as large as other years, but the pens were all filled, the largest exhibitors being Jas. Barber of Honeywood and Mr. Connor of Durham. Mr. Barber took The Advance special for the best bird in the show with a White Wyandotte cock.

The day was a huge success considering the day and the directorate wish to express their gratitude to the fine crowd which turned out.

Markdale band furnished music throughout the afternoon.

The concert in the high school at night was a huge success. The hall was filled to the doors, the biggest crowd that ever attended a fall fair concert. The receipts at the door amounted to $288. The Agnew Trio of Owen Sound rendered some light entertainment for the crowd, while Mr. Wilfred Squire of Kilsyth gave several readings and Mr. Duncan Morrison of Bognor sang some of Harry Lauder's favorite songs with a typical Scotch accent. The dancing contest for men over 50 years of age was won by Mr Duncan Morrison with Mr. Neil Morrison, second, Mr. Allen McDonald third and Messrs. Robt. Campbell, John Varty and Richard Genoe coming in the order named.

Mr. Haw of Swinton Park won the old time fiddling contest against four other entries: John Gillies of Bognor, John Acheson, Bognor, Donald McLeod, Ceylon, and Robt. Campbell, Ceylon, in the order named. The concert was a welcome change from the old regular line of comic talent which has been secured for years and the people showed their appreciation by attending in large numbers.

The directors of the Society have been working hard the past two months to put on an excellent day with special attractions to pull the society out of debt. They succeeded in giving the extra attractions, but jupitor pluvious opened up and spoiled the day with rain. Next year we hope that the Flesherton fair day will be furnished with extra fine weather. Anyway the directors are already planning to make the 1927 show bigger and better than ever.

The winners of the various classes will be published next week.

GREY PRESBYTERY—UNITED CHURCH MET AT DURHAM

The Grey Presbytery of the United Church of Canada met in Knox church at Durham on Tuesday of last week with a large attendance of ministers and laymen. The proceedings began with a devotional service conducted by the chairman, Rev. C. E. Kenny, in the course of which the sacrament of the Lord's supper was administered.

The business included reports of various committees and such matters as the Maintenance and Extension Fund, Home Mission grants and supply, Religious Education. Candidates for the Ministry, and Evangelism, were earnestly discussed.

At the afternoon session an excellent address was given by Rev. Peter Bryce of Toronto, in the interests of the Missionary and Educational Work of the Church.

Further re-arrangement of pastoral charges was under consideration, and the Presbytery authorized a local union at Berkeley. Several matters affecting Church Property were dealt with.

The statistical report presented by the Secretary was the first since the organization of the Presbytery. The congregations within the Presbytery include 5685 families and 705 persons not connected with families. The number of members in full communion is reported as 10,707, and the number of persons under pastoral care is 21,915. The Sunday School enrollment is 8,233. The value of Church properties and investments is $975,025 with debts on them of only $14,175. The amount raised by the congregations for stipends and local expenses was $124,493. The amount for missions and benevolences, $57,493. The amount for all purhoses, $205,758.

Standing committees were appointed and officers elected for the ensuing year. Rev. W. H. Smith of Durham was elected as Chairman, and Rev. W. J. Gallagher of Meaford was re-elected as Secretary. There were no other nominations for these offices, and Mr. Smith and Mr. Gallagher were heartily acclaimed by the members of the Presbytery. Rev. J. E. Peters of Durham and Mr. D. A. Ferguson of Meaford were nominated for the Treasurership, but Mr. Ferguson withdrew his name and Mr. Peters was elected by acclamation also. Having been Clerk and Treasurer of the Presbytery of Owen Sound for 18 years or more, and Treasurer of the Presbytery of Grey during its 1st year, Rev. Dr. J. B. Fraser, who is on the eve of eighty years of age, had requested that he be relieved of further duty.
