Vol 46 No. 17 | Flesherton, Ontario October 6, 1926 | W. H. Thurston & Son, Proprietors

EUGENIA

In naming the floral tributes in the obituary of the late John K. Jamieson last week's issue there was an error Instead of wreath from grandchildren Laura, Sask., it should have been wreath from Mr. and Mrs. James Jamieson, Laura, Sask., and a wreath from the grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shaw and little daughter of Cheeseville visited at Mr. A. F. Pedlar's on Sunday.

Mr. Robert Gordon of Toronto visited the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Jame Leppard. His wife and four children, who have been visiting here since last spring, returned home with him.

VANDELEUR

Anniversary services were held in the Vandeleur church on Sunday last and were very largely attended. Rev. James Dudgeon of Port Credit occupied the pulpit in the afternoon and Rev. J. H. Oke of Toronto was the preacher in the evening, and both delivered excellent sermons. The Markdale choir, led by J. H. Dundas, provided splendid music throughout the day. The beautiful weather also helped to make the anniversary services a real success.

Mrs. Will Burnett of Sligo visited with her mother, Mrs. Genoe.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Buchanan and children of Owen Sound spent the first of the week with friends here.

Mrs. Davis is visiting friends in Chesley.

(Last Week's Items)

It was learned with deep regret that Mr. Gordon Prossic, student, who has had charge of the services here for the past two months, must return to his studies at Belleville. He preached his farewell sermon on Sunday morning to a large congregation. His discourse was thoughtful, earnest and full of wise council. During the offering Miss Stewart sang a sweet solo "My Task." The people of Ceylon were very sorry to part with him and at the close of the service presented him with an address and a beautiful fountain pen as a slight token of the good will of the people of this place. Mrs. Hales made the presentation and Miss Della White read the address. Mr. Prossic was completely taken by surprise, but very feelingly thanked the people for their good wishes for his future career. During his short stay he had found kindness and encouragement everywhere, which he would not soon forget.
