Will Hold Banquet for Local Baseball Teams

The citizens of Flesherton and community purpose holding a banquet in the basement of Chalmer's Church on Tuesday evening, November 2nd, to show their appreciation to our ball team, which has brought honor to our village and community by winning the cup in the Centre Grey League for two consecutive years, and also to the ladies' softball team, which has also been a credit to our community in the clean games they have played during the season. The committee of ladies of the village are arranging for the supplying of the hot part of the banquet, and will make it easier for the country people who can fetch something in teh line of sandwiches, cake, pie or salads. This banquet is a community affair and everybody who has been interested in the sport are invited to come, only bring something along to eat. A good program of toasts and musical numbers, songs and readings will be provided. Supper served from 6 to 8 o'clock. Let us show our appreciation to the ball teams by our presence.

FINAL DEBATE OF LEAGUE BE HELD IN MARKDALE ON FRIDAY OF THIS WEEK

The final debate of the Grey Presbytery debating contest of the Young Peoples' Societies is to be held in Annesley United Church at Markdale on Friday evening of this week, October 29th, between the Kimberley and Duncan debating teams. The debate is to comlence at 8 p.m. and should be closely contested.

A gentleman and his wife motored all the way from Milwaukee, Wis., to Meaford for a day's fishing on the Georgian Bay. They called on one of the garages in town on the return journey and said the trip was worth while and the fishing was great. We presume, of course, they did not judge the experience from a financial standpoint, but merely from an emotional elevation as it were. This fishing business must never be judged from the commercial point of view, according to our own experience.

SCALDED COW THAT DAMAGED GARDEN

At the sittings of the Division Court at Midland a cow case from Port McNicholl took up considerable of the afternoon. Since Port McNicholl came into existence and large tracts of land were bought up and sub-divided it became a great place for pasture. Farmers a couple of miles away allowed their cattle to run at large. Finally the Port got tired of being the stamping ground for the farmers and a by-law was passed forbidding all cattle but cows from running at large within the village limits. Any time during the day you can see from fifty to a hundred cows roaming at large in that vicinity. This summer one of these cows became quite a nuisance to Mrs. Wm. Mohan. It continually invaded the old lady's garden and did considerable damage. To get even with the bovine Mrs. Mohan threw a pan of hot water on the cow, scalding her badly. The veterinary had to be called in several times to dress the wounds and take the milk away from her. Mr. Reedy, the owner, brought action to recover $75 damage to the cow and fees charged by the veterinary. After hearing the evidence, pro and con, His Honor Judge Wismer gave judgment for $70 and all costs and expenses and allowed $15 for a counter claim for damage done to the garden.

ECKARDTS COMING

The Musical Eckardts, Swiss bell ringers and variety entertainers, will appear at the school auditorium on Friday evening, October 29th. Since their last visit to Flesherton four years ago the Eckardts have engaged a new company of performers and promise an entire change of program. Burnard Eckardt, comedian with the party, will be seen and heard in a new line of comic songs, monologues and character sketches. The Doreen sisters, English tap dancers, have lately joined the Eckardts. This act comes direct from the London, Eng., theatres, where it has been featured over the Mose vaudeville circuit for the past three years.

THE LOCAL NEWSPAPER.

In spite of the fact that the metropolitan press now reaches into every town and village in the country, the local newspaper in Canada is each year getting a firmer foundation and becoming more and more useful to its home community.

It may be said that the day of the metropolitan newspaper is at hand. This is true, but it is equally as true that the day of the local newspaper is here, too.

The metropolitan daily with its world-wide news, its comic sheets and its magazine supplements, while of course essential to our modern civilization, cannot take the place of the home newspaper. The very fact that the big city daily must cover a broad field forbids its becoming local in any sense, and it is in the local field where the home newspaper dominates and where it finds its true usefulness.

For, after all, it is the home news which is most important to most of us. We have the greatest interest in the community in which we live, and in the people who are our neighbors and friends. And it is the local newspaper which records the happenings of the folks at home, and in addition, fosters the civic pride and progressive spirit of the community.

It is the home newspaper which boosts the town, year in and year out, who refuses to advertise the city merchants in competition with the local business men, and which takes the lead in every enterprise which has for its purpose the upbuilding of the community.

We frequently hear it said that the old time independent spirit of the newspaper is gone, that its editorial policy is now subservient to the business office. Yet this is not true. There is more unselfish idealism in the average local newspaper than any other business enterprise. It frequently speaks out in the way which it believes will be for the good of the nation and of the community regardless of what the consequences may be.

Of course the local newspaper is now on a firm business basis. This is why it is improving from year to year, why it is giving its readers a constantly better newspaper, and why it is increasing its influence for good newspaper is stil the principal booster for the community, and it does its boosting often without any hope of material reward.

Unfortunate indeed is the community that does not support its local newspaper.

Man is far from being a truly intellectual or a moral being when 130,000 of him are willing to pay twenty dollars or more apiece to see two big fellows try to knock each other insensible, and when millions more regard the match as the chief news event of the day.
