Banquet Given to Honor Ball Teams

Held in Chalmer's Church Tuesday Evening — Miss L. Lever Won the T. W. Findlay Prize

Was Fine Social Evening

The boys' baseball team, winners of the Centre Grey Championship, and the young ladies' softball team were tendered a banquet in Chalmer's United Church on Tuesday evening of this week, when a large crowd was in attendance to do honor to the teams that represented Flesherton this year.

During the evening Mr. Thos. W. Findlay presented his prize of a fine wicker fern stand to Miss Luella Lever for the most sportsmanlike manner of conducting herself in the gaes played throughout the year. Mrs. F. J. Seeley was second and won a serving tray, while Miss Maie McTavish received honorable mention as a close second. In return Miss of mocha gloves for his interest in the welfare of the team. Mr. Findlay was completely taken by surprise by the gift.

Toasts were given to the King; to the baseball boys, proposed by Mr. W. Turney, president of the Centre Grey League and responded to by Mr. F. J. Thurston, secretary of the local club; to the girls, proposed by Dr. A. Turnbull and responded to by Mrs. (Dr.) Murray; to True Sportsmanship, proposed by Mr. Wesley Armstrong and responded to by Mr. T. W. Findlay; to the community, proposed by Mr. F. H. W. Hickling and responded to by Messrs. Wm. Miller and Alex. Cameron. During the toast list music was supplied by Mr. Hardwick, Miss M. Stewart and Mrs. J. Perkins, who rendered very fine solos. Reeve Meads spoke a few words on the honor it gave the town to have two such teams as we have had this year. Mr. Frank McIntyre of Dundalk spoke a few words and congratulated the Flesherton team on winning the trophy and expressed the good-will of the Dundalk team to the winners.

The evening was very much enjoyed by the large number of those interested in the welfare of the teams.

Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Gordon and family of Wareham visited the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Robert McMaster.

Presentation

Good fellowship reigned supreme on Wednesday evening, October 27, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dougald MacPhail on the occasion of a surprise visit by the neighbors. Mr. Donald Stewart was master of ceremonies and arranged a good program. Speeches were made by Mr. Alex. Carson and Will MacKenzie, and humorous readings given by Mrs. Dan Campbell and Mrs. Alex. Carson. The following address was then read by Mrs. Andrew Hincks, and a beautiful pyrex caserole in a silver frame was presented by Mrs. Donald Stewart. Mr. and Mrs. MacPhail were deeply touched by the kindness of their friends. Both spoke fitting words of thanks.

A social evening was spent, and just when lunch was on Miss Agnes MacPhail and Mr. Farquhar Oliver came in from a political meeting. Mr. Stewart insisted on a speech from both. Farquhar, in a few words, expressed his understanding of the desire of the neighbors to give some expression of their good will on the occasion of the MacPhail family leaving the farm home they have occupied for 24 years, even although they would still be in the neighborhood. Agnes would only consent to speak if she could talk about something less touching that her appreciation. She told of her trip to Boston and of her joy that Canada is a young country yet in the making. She appreciated the friendliness of the Americans, and complimented the English accent and manners of the Bostonians. Singing Auld Lang Syne brought the evening to a close.

Following is the address:

Mr. and Mrs. Dougald MacPhail and Miss Agnes:

Dear Friends,—We, your friends and neighbors, assembled here tonight to spend a few social hours with you before your departure from our immediate midst to take up residence in Ceylon. You are not going far, hence we will still have the pleasure of neighboring with you in a sense, but we felt we could not let you leave without expressing our appreciation of you. As neighbors and friends you are unsurpassed, a joy to know, ever ready to give a helping hand, sharing your joys and lightening our cares. We treasure your friendship. Mr and Mrs. MacPhail are widely known and respected, and Agnes has shown her ability and genius in her untiring and painstaking service as our worthy M. P. We may well be proud of the distinction she has brought to this community. As you, Mr. and Mrs. MacPhail, retire to a less active life, we hope you may be spared many years of health and happiness, and that not the least of your happiness may come from reminiscences of your association with your neighbors. As a token of our sincere regard for you we ask you to accept this gift, not for its value alone, but as a small remembrance May God's richest blessings attend you

Come to see us often, that we continue to enjoy your companionship. Signed on behalf of your neighbors, —Mrs. Donald Stewart, Mrs. A. S. Hincks.

Death of Mary McInnes

Our community was deeply saddened on Tuesday, Oct 26, when Mary McInnes, one of our oldest pioneers, passed away at the age of 77 years, eight months. Although ailing for some time, her death came as a great shock to the family and friends.

Mrs. McInnes came with her husband, Duncan McInnees, who pre-deceased her thirteen years ago, and settled on the old homestead on the 4th line, Osprey, where she has resided for fifty-nine years. To them were born eight children—Archie of McIntyre, Annie (Mrs. D. Winters) Maxwell, Hector of McIntyre, Jessie (Mrs. Levi Lougheed), Minnie (Mrs. Isaac Lougheed), Sandy and Alec, all of Brownlee, Sask.; Sara (Mrs. B. C. Neff), who died at Brownlee in 1918 Mrs. McInnes was a faithful member of the McIntyre Presbyterian church for many years. Rev. Shannon preached a very comforting discourse . The pall bearers were: Allan Campbell, Geo. McIntyre, Alec. Camqbell, Alec McIntyre, B. McLean and Archie McIntyre. Besides her three daughters and four sons, she leaves to mourn her loss three sisters—Misses Flora and Julia Campbell, Mrs. H. McLean, Feversham; and three brothers—Allen, Donald and Malcolm; also thirty-nine grandchildren and six great grandchildren. Those from a distance attending the funeral were: Mrs. Levi Lougheed, Mrs. Isaac Lougheed, Mr. Sandy McInnes, all of Brownlee, Sask.; Miss Mamie Black, Sarnia; Mrs. Jack Lowndes and Mr Allen Campbell, of Collingwood. Much sympathy is expressed for the bereaved family.

KU KLUX KLAN.

It is said that a branch of the Ku Klux Klan has been organized in Flesherton. This village has always been a fine stamping ground for new organizations, and all have flourished for a time. On Thursday evening last seven gentlemen drove into town in a big Packard car and proceeded to enlighten about thirty people who had assembled in Clayton's Hall by special invitation, as to the aims and objects of the Ku Klux Klan. The strangers were all disguised and at the close the speaker asked all present to swear to secrecy as to what they had heard and seen. Of course in a small place like Flesherton it is impossible to belong to an organization of this kind without having one's identity known, and the names of all those present at the meeting and those who belong to the order and were instrumental in bringing the band of organizers here are well known. The meeting was opened with a special prayer for the success of the order. A card containing a couple of verses was handed around These verses were a parody on "Let the Lower Lights be Burning," and the words substituted were, "Let the Fiery Cross be burning, send a gleam across the sky!" A couple of village ladies presided at the organ We understand that two or three young men signified their desire to attach themselves to the Klan.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Mr. Petty and son, John, of Durham, were visitors at W. Moore's over Sunday.

Miss Kate Jamieson spent a few days with Mrs. Robert McMaster before going to Toronto.

We are pleased to report Master George McMaster, who has been ill, as recovering.

Mrs. W. I. Henry returned on Tuesday from Berkeley, where she had spent a couple of weeks with her son Everett.

The young ladies' class of the United Church Sunday schol entertained the young men of the congregation to a Hallowe'en social in Chalmer's Church on Monday evening and a rousing time was enjoyed.
