The Flesherton Advance.

Vol 46 No. 23 | Flesherton, Ontario November 17, 1926 | W. H. Thurston & Son, Proprietors

PORTLAW

We are sorry to hear that Mr. W. A. Morton is still confined to his bed with a relapse of his severe illness. His daughter, Miss Lillian, nurse-in-training of Toronto, was home for a few days.

Mr. W. J. Reid is improving slowly from his critical illness.

Little Gracie Jamieson has been a pretty sick little girl for some weeks from what appears to be a severe cold. We hope to see our little friend well again soon.

Mrs. F. H. Thompson of Chesley was a visitor for a week with friends of this part.

Messrs Roy Lyons and Geo. Blakey have gone to Toronto for the winter.

The Sunday school held a social evening lately in the hall. Presents were distributed to all scholars and special prizes were also given by Mr. Thomas Taylor to all who attended every Sunday during the sommer. The school also presented Mrs. J. A. Thompson with a beautiful Bible. Mrs. Thompson is the teacher of the big boys class and was present every Sunday. Mrs. Robert Hanna, teacher of the senior girls class, who is leaving here soon, was presented with an address and a water set and tray as a token of remembrance and recognition of faithful service given.

There have been a number of changes in real estate lately. Mr. Robt. Hannah, who has been running the store for the past five years, has leased it to Mr. Walker, late of Markdale, who is in possesssion. Mr. Hannah has sold lot 1, con. 2 to Mr. F. T. Taylor and Mr. W. F.Shier has bought the farm adjoining his home Mr. and Mrs. Hannah have purchased a farm at Berkelev and are busy removing. Last Friday about sixty-five of their friends met in their home and presented them with a beautiful oak extension dining table, a jardiniere stand and an appreciative address. The presentation of the table and jardiniere stand was made by F. T. Taylor, G. Little, H. Fisher, W. G. Jamieson and A. A. McKenzie and the address was read by T. R. McKenzie. We will miss these good citizens, but they carry with them the sincere wishes of this community for a full measure of happiness in their new home.

This polling division has given more than once a vote of about 97 per cent. in favor of the O.T.A., and naturally, we are not very enthusiastic over the proposition to treat it as a scrap of paper; and that we are to be made partners on the booxe-debauching business.

Mrs. R. D. Meldrum is still in Toronto receiving medical treatment. Her friends are glad to hear that she is somewhat improved. Mr. Meldrum was down to see her last week.

Miss Clinton spent Thanksgiving with her parents in Toronto.

Too Late For Last Week.

It is our sad duty this week to report the death of one of our much respected villagers,Mrs. Edward Rutherford, which took place early Friday morning, Nov. 5th. The deceased was a daughter of the late Archibald Campbell of Erin, where she was born 75 years ago. She was first married to the late Mr. J. White of Erin, and sixteen years ago became the wife of Mr. Edward Rutherford of Proton Station. Her gentle personality and kind disposition made for her a warm plaec in the hearts of her friends and neighbors. The funeral service, held at the home on Sunday afternoon, was conducted by Miss McKenzie. Interment took place in Flesherton cemetery conducted by Mr. James Service of Shelburne. Some of those present from a distance were: Mr. McMillan and two sons, Terra Cotta: Miss Curry of Bronte; Mr. John Rutherford and two sons, Mansfield; Mr. and Mrs. Hetherington and son, Mr. and Mrs. McClellan, Mr. and Mrs. Hall of Shelburne. Mr. and Mrs. Welsh and family of Eugenia. The sympathy of the community goes out to the sorrowing husband and two step-daughters. Mrs. J. F. Atcheson near Dndalk, and Mrs. T. Miscampbell of Angus. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Batchelor.Sherson. Reddick, Vause, McCannell and Acheson, of Proton.—Barrie papers pleasee copy.
