Grandmothers of Bride and Groom Attend Friday's Ceremony

A quiet, but pretty wedding took place at Park Head United Church at 3.30 Friday May 12th when Muriel Grace Doubt Reg. N. only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Doubt of Hepworth was united in marriage to Cpl. Arnott Louis Hanenbourg of the R.C.A.F. Radio School, Clinton, Ont. only son of Mrs. Hilda Hanenbourg of Margaret Ave Kitchener and the late Mr. A. L. Hanenbourg.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in figured white organza over taffeta with sweetheart neckline. Her veil which was floor length was held in place by a Juliet cap or orange blossoms and seed pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of white Ophelia roses, valley lilies and bouvardia. Her only ornament was a single stand of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Mrs. Howard Cockman, sister of the groom who was maid of honor, wore a floor length petal pink silk jersey gown with iris blue accessories, and headdress of petal pink point d'esprit. She carried a showier bouquet of pink carnations and blue iris. Trooper Howard Cockman of Camp Borden acted as groomsman and John Doubt, brother of the bride as usher.

Organ music was played by Miss Audrey Matches, cousin of the bride during the signing of the register.

Mrs. Doubt, mother of the bride wore a silk jersey dress in gray and blue shades with blue accessories and a corsage of Tallman roses. The groom's mother was attired in white silk flowered jersey with green and brown accessories and wore orchids. The bride's grandmother Mrs. J. S. Matches and the groom's grandmother Mrs. L. A. Hanenbourg of Kitchener were special guests.

The wedding dinner was served at Morrison Inn, Owen Sound, at which time the bride's parents were congratulated upon the occasion of their 24th wedding anniversary and presented with a suitable gift.

For travelling Mrs. Hanenbourg wore a forgetmenot blue silk jersey dress, navy coat, and hat and forgetmenot blue gloves. The honeymoon will be spent at the groom's summer home at Port Elgin. Upon their return Cpl. and Mrs. Hanenbourg will reside at 32 Filbert St. Kitchener.
