The Late Jas. Speers

FEVERSHAM

Mr. Jas. Speers, a resident of our village, pasesd away to the Great Beyond on Saturday morning, November 20th. Mr. Speer had been in poor health for about three years and for the last few months had been a great suffer, and death came as a happy release. He was sixty-five years of age. The funeral took place on Monday to the Buckingham Cemetery, and Rev. T. J. New of Maxwell United church officiated. The brethren of the R.B.P. No. 343 and L.O.L. 1085 conducted their services at the grave. Mr. Speer had been a member of L.O. L. 1085 for over forty years, and of the R.B.K. of Ireland for about thirty years. The floral tributes were a beautiful wreath each from R.B.P. and L.O.L. and a spray from Mr. S. Hemphill and family of Ceylon. Those from a distance attending were Mr. Watson and Mrs. Bowes of Thornhill, cousins of the deceased, Mr. S. Hemphill and family of Ceylon, Mr. Hood Hemphill and sister of Flesherton, Mr. and Mrs. Plant, Mr. Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. John McKee and Mr. and Mrs. R. Fisher of Flesherton. A large gathering of friends and neighbors assembled to pay their last respects.

EVANGELISTIC SERVICES IN THE BAPTIST CHURCHES

On Sunday, November 28th, the local Baptist churches received a visit from the McMaster University Evangelistic band, four young men, filled with zeal for service and a passion for souls. In spite of the inclement weather the attendance at each service was splendid. The congregations were delighted by the singing of the quartette. Hearts were softened as their manly voices blended in the songs of Zion. Mr. S. Iveson preached at the morning service here; Mr. Leslie Wilton, B.A., delivered the message at Rock Mills in the afternoon, and Mr. Russel Anderson, B.A., addressed those who gathered in the Flesherton church in the evening. As a result of their united efforts twenty-one stood to their feet for Christ and Salvation. Some of these had taken their stand previously, but had not received the light of life; others confessed that they had grown cold in the life of service. The majority stood out for the first time, and by their act signified their willingness to take Christ as their Saviour. Altogether it was a wonderful day. The Lord manifested His presence in no unmistakable manner, and those who attended the services were much helped. We all feel that the people of Flesherton would heartily appreciate an early return visit of these young men, and in this we believe the folks of Rock Mills readily concur.—Com.

IN MEMORIAM

BEST — In loving memory of our beloved son and brother, Allie Best, who died December 3rd, 1925.

God is good, He gives us strength to bear our heavy cross;
He is the only one who knows how
bitter is our loss;
We miss you at a thousand turns
along life's weary way,
For life is not the same to us since you were called away.
Long days, long nights he bore his pain
Hoping for cure, but all in vain;
'Till God alone knew what was best,
And took him home to be at rest.
Sadly missed by —Father, Mother, Brothers, Sisters.

Mrs. Edyd of Gravenhurst, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Consley, has returned to Toronto prior to leaving for Florida, where she expects to spend the winter.

Last Thursday, Nov. 25, Mr. Robert Bates, section foreman, very narrowly escaped being run over by the freight train. He was inspecting the railway track between Dundalk and Proton stations, and, although aware that the freight train was close behind him, he somehow missed hearing or seeing it until it was right up to him. He jumped from the track, but not far enough to escape the bumper, which hurled him sixteen or eighteen feet over the embankment. A high north wind blew the smoke and steam back over the engine so densely that the engineer did not see the man in time to do anything. Fearing he had run over him, he stopped the train, and, to the immense relief of the terrified crew, they found him in the ditch, alive. The Dundalk doctors were immediately summoned, who, after an examination, found that his injuries were chiefly a few broken ribs and a bruised body. Up to the present nothing more serious has developed and Mr. Bates is thankful for his escape even though it was by the narrow margin of a few inches.

A REAL HERO

A striking example of chivalrous sacrifice, or heroism, was displayed last week in the City of Timmins, when a young man accepted a year's sentence of imprisonment to save an acquaintance.

It appears he was driving a car last July with a lady to whom he had just been introduced by a mutual friend. The lady expressed a wish to learn to drive and was at the wheel when she struck another woman on the ankle. Gangrene developed and the woman died. At the trial, the young man, who was a Toronto University student on a prospecting trip, accepted all responsibility for the fatality and went to jail.

But the end was not yet. His lady companion, who had not been summoned, on learning of the sentence notified the authorities that she alone was to blame as she was driving at the time. As a result of her action she is now facing a charge of manslaughter.

Viewing the actions of those two people, who can say the days of chivalry are over?

While the victim of the unfortunate accident has undoubtedly died, the circumstances surrounding the fatality would warrant the Crown in taking a lenient view of the case. The presiding judge at the trial expresesd his admiration for the young man, and regret that he could not grant him his freedom. The subsequent claim of the boy's companion alters the whole situation and if both were forgiven the world would not be any poorer. People of their stamp are all too scarce.

IMPALED ON FORK HANDLE.

Bruce Herald and Times.

Leaping over a partition in his stable on Tuesday evening of last week in an effort to prevent a steer getting out, Mr. Ben Whitehead, a well-known Brant farmer, had the misfortune to alight on a sharp-pointed broken fork handle, which entered his abdomen on the right side, and after penetrating for a distance of four inches came out of his body again near the navel. Finding himself impaled on the stick, the unfortunate man threw himself over on his back, and while lying in this posture he pulled the handle out of his body. He then limped to the house, a distance of one hundred feet, where he collapsed on the floor. A Walkerton doctor who was hastily summoned, found on examination that while the lining of the intestines had been torn, none of the bowels had been punctured, and as a consequence there is every prospect of his recovery, provided tetanus (lockjaw) can be prevented from setting in. A serum to ward off this trouble was given hypodermically to the patient, and by the end of this week all danger from such an infection will have passed. The patient, who was for a time in intense agony, is now resting easier and is to all appearances making a good recovery.

CAR RAN AWAY

While calling at this office Wednesday afternoon Mr. I. B. Whittaker of Ceylon left his car standing just in front and suddenly it started off on its own hook down the grade and took a course dirertly across the street. Mr. Whittaker went in pursuit when he noticed it but the runaway was too far ahead and could not be stopped. It struck the brick at D. McKillop's hardware shop and came to rest with a bent fender, bumper and a tire damaged beyond repair.

The Late Wm. Cameron

Mr. Wm. Cameron died at the home of his son, Alexander, 8th line, Artemesia, on Thursday of last week, the funeral taking place to Salem burial ground on Saturday afternoon. We believe Mr. Cameron was the oldest living pioneer resident of Artemesia township, he having come here with his parents from "Muddy York" in the year 1852, where he was born in 1847. He was therefore 79 yeasr of age when he died. For seven years the deceased gentleman had been suffering from the terrible affliction of blindness, which he bore with great fortitude and without complaint. At 26 years of age he married Miss Eliza Johnston of Bentinck who predeceased him eleven years ago. By this union there were four children— Alexander on the homestead; Mrs. Schwartz, Toronto; Mrs. Carr of Saskatchewan, and Mrs. Ed. Graham of Clarksburg.

Mr. Cameron was of a rather reserved disposition, but was very highly respected as a friend and neighbor. The funeral on Saturday last was largely attended. The deceasesed was a Presbyterian in religion and a Reformer in politics.

A fine new pipe organ has been put in the United Church at Palmerston.
