Smith-McIntosh
Vows Spoken
At Park Head

In Park Head United Church, decorated with wrought iron standards filled with pink and white chrysanthemums in a candelabra and with candles in candelabra and with white bows on the guest pews, marriage vows were exchanged by Margaret Ardella McIntosh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross G. McIntosh of Park Head and William Ralph Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of Meaford on Monday, May 23rd at 2 p.m.

Rev. Andrew McKenzie of Acton conducted the service, assisted by Walter Smith. Mrs. Mervin McKnight played wedding music and Mrs. Fred Wright sang Wedding Prayer and The Lord's Prayer.

Mr. McIntosh gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a floor length gown of white flocced nylon over taffeta made with round neckline and full skirt. A rap trimmed with sequins and pearls held her fingertip tulle veil. She wore a pearl necklace and earrings and carried a cascade of calla lilies with salal foliage.

Mrs. Bruce Hopkins was matron of honor for her sister. Miss Ilene Telfer and Miss Irene Johnson were bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of pink flowered nylon on a white background over white taffeta, with pink bows, white gloves and white picture hats trimmed with pink bows, white gloves and shoes, pearl necklaces and earrings. They carried cascades of pale pink carnations with white laceon tufts and salal foliage.

Douglas Smith, Toronto was groomsman. Ushers were Gordon Welch, Allenford and Jerry Doble, Meaford.

The bride's mother wore a blue crepe dress with lace bodice, pink hat and gloves and corsage of pink feathered carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a rose lace dress with blue hat, gloves and shoes and corsage of blue tinted carnations.

The reception was held in Park Head Community Hall where the wedding cake and bridal bouquets were on the bride's table and pink roses on the guest tables. Assistants were Mesdames B. McKnight, W. Lipskie, R. Chebbott, R. O'Leary, S. Spencer, Miss Margaret Bannister, Miss Beth Evans and Miss Diane McKnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will live in Meaford after a trip to northern United States.

For travel the bride chose a blue figured polished cotton dress with matching jacket and a tailored cluster of Belmont gardenias.

Guests attended the wedding from Toronto, Buffalo, Burlington, Saskatoon, Meaford, Owen Sound and Allenford.

A. Zevenbergen
John B. Neerhof
Wed Saturday

In a setting of tulips, daffodils and other spring flowers, Audrey Zevenbergen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Zevenbergen of Hepworth and John B. Neerhof, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Neerhof of R. R. 2, Chatsworth plighted their troth Saturday in the Christian Reformed Church. Rev. Hiram Vander Klay heard the marriage vows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white satin, featuring a full skirt, and a lace top and sleeves. The bodice was lined with satin and the sleeves ended with lily points. The scalloped neckline was trimmed with sequins and tiny pearls. Her veil was of tulle with hand-clipped lace flowers sewn on, and was worn with a halo of pearls and sequins. The bride carried roses and tiny mums.

Attending the bride were Miss Jane Zevenbergen, sister of the bride, and two flower girls, Vida and Herda Zevenbergen. The bridesmaid wore a dress of blue crystal-charm, street length, featuring a large bow at the back with a V neckline and short sleeves. Her tiny hat was of the same material. She carried a cascade of pink carnations. The flower girls were dressed alike in pink nylon and carried small nosegays.

Groomsman was A. J. Neerhof of Owen Sound.

At the reception held at the Paragon Club, the bride's mother wore a blue dressmaker suit, with beige hat, and a corsage of pink feathered carnations. The bride's table was centered with a three-tiered cake, flanked with white candles and flowers.

For her wedding trip to Southern Ontario the bride wore a light blue sheath dress and blue coat, with white accessories, and a cluster of pink carnations. On their return they will live at R. R. 2, Chatsworth.

Out-of-town guests were from Sarnia and Woodstock.

Evelyn Pringle Wears Mother's Wedding Veil

Park Head United Church was decorated with two baskets of white shasta chrysanthemums on wrought iron stands, tall white candles in candelabra and ferns with white satin bows on the guest pews, for the marriage on Saturday, June 18 at 2:30 p.m. of Evelyn Dawn Pringle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Pringle of Park Head to Bruce Arthur Devlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Devlin, Toronto. Rev. S. E. Annis heard the marriage vows. Mrs. Harry Fisher, Cookville played the wedding music and Donald Roberts, Toronto, sang The Lord's Prayer and Still as the Night.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attended by Mrs. Edwin Devlin as matron of honor, Mrs. Sheldon Spencer and Miss Janet Devlin as bridesmaids.

The bridal gown was fashioned of white French silk taffeta with rounded neckline, three-quarter length sleeves with small button trim, the fitted bodice coming to a point at the centre back and accenting the soft fall of the skirt into a chapel train. The bride wore her mother's wedding veil arranged on a crown of seed pearls, white kid gloves, and carried a white Bible crested with a white orchid and stephanotis.

The attendant's dresses were of champagne beige peau de soie styled on sheath lines large stoles in deep folds forming the collar and falling to the hemline of the dress in front. Their veil trimmed hats were of champagne beige flowers with teardrop pearls. They wore gloves and shoes to match and carried clusters of pink sensation roses with ivy trails.

Edwin Devlin, Toronto was groomsman for his brother, Ronald Pringle, the bride's brother, Jack Head, Melvin Stone and William Stark of Toronto ushered.

The bride's mother wore a dress of pastel blue Italian brocade with matching hat and white accessories and flowers and the bridegroom's mother wore Dior blue Italian pesante with blush pink accessories and flowers.

The reception was at Sauble Lodge, where pink beauty bush, roses and orange blossoms were arranged with trailing vine. White candles and the bridal bouquets formed the setting for the wedding cake on the bride's table.

Mr. and Mrs. Devlin will live in Toronto after a trip to points south and east. The bride travelled in a tailored dress of white serano suiting, shepherd's check navy and white coat, white accessories and a cluster of white butterfly roses with white ties.

Guests from Cochrane, London, Toronto and Buffalo attended the wedding.
