Mr and Mrs William Stewart following their marriage in Park Head United Church. Mr Stewart is a son of Mr Clifford Stewart of Clarksburg and Mrs Lois Olmstead of Owen Sound. Mrs Stewart is a daughter of Mr and Mrs Ivan Matches of Park Head. The couple will reside in Owen Sound.

Park Head United Church was the setting for a very pretty wedding on Saturday, March 4 at four p.m. when Carol Eva Matches, daughter of Mr and Mrs Ivan Matches of Park Head became the bride of William Bruce Stewart, son of Mr Clifford Stewart of Clarksburg and Mrs Lois Olmstead of Owen Sound.

The church altar was very prettily decorated with white chrysanthemums and pink carnations. White satin bows marked the pews for eighty guests. Rev F. R. Jackson officiated. Mrs Mervin McKnight of Park Head was organist.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a floor length gown which featured a lace bodice and train with floral headpiece and scalloped veil. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and stephanotis.

Mrs Blair Noble of London was matron of honor, and Miss Sharon and Miss Brenda Matches, sisters of the bride were bridesmaids. Karen Stewart, niece of the groom was flower girl. They wore identical gowns of pink polyester satin with long sleeves and lace accenting bodices and necklines and carried nosegays of white chrysanthemums and pink carnations.

David Stewart was groomsman for his brother, Barry Stewart, brother of the groom and Douglas Matches, brother of the bride were the ushers. David Matches brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Following a reception in the community hall at Park Head, the bride chose a multi-colored peasant dress with black velvet bodice and corsage of pink carnations for travelling.

Mr and Mrs Stewart will reside at 732 8th Street East, Owen Sound.
