The home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winters, 3rd line, Osprey township, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, Dec. 8, when their daughter, Annie Isobelle, became the bride of Mr. Victor Laurie Pedlar, son of Mr. Samuel Pedlar of the 4th line, Artemesia. The bride entered the parlor, which was prettily decorated in pink and white, to the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. E. Seeley, sister of the groom. She was given in marriage by her father and looked charming in a bois de rose crepe back satin dress and black velvet shoes, carrying a bouquet of American Beauty roses. During the signing of the register Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pedlar gave a violin duet entitled "Perfect Day." A dainty buffet luncheon was served and later Mr. and Mrs. Pedlar left for Toronto and Detroit, the bride travelling in a brown velour coat with opposum trimming and picture hat to match. Crombie, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Cooke and Hazel, from Shelburne.

CEMETERIES MUST BE KEPT UP.

By a recent amendment to the Cemetery Act, when the owner of a plot cannot be found, is unknown, or is unable to maintain it, the municipality in which such cemetery is situated shall be deemed to be the owner, and the Council shall be charged with the duty of keeping it in order. Every County Council shall have the power to appoint one or more inspectors to look after the cemeteries and to enforce the Act. If a Township Council fails or neglects to properly care for a cemetery the inspector may secure a court order directing the Council to do so. If this order is not obeyed every member of such Council can be held liable for contempt of court and punished accordingly unless they can prove to the satisfaction of the court that they were not consenting parties to the neglect. The rural cemeteries have in the past been saved from utter neglect, to a large extent, by the exertions of Women's Institutes, etc. The new Act will at least assure such organizations of the co-operation and financial support of Municipal Councils.
